B. Feagle and Mr. Clark Eddy of Jalapa have the prettiest fields of cotton in Newberry county."

An interesting affair of this week to all of the ladies will be the "Kitchen Party," to be given at Mrs. Henry Harms in College Street. The Messrs Leitzsey and Lominick will give a barbecue at the residence of Mr. A. Z. Leitzsey on Thursday. Bur requests us to state there will be plenty of shade and for the benefit of the ladies there will be no "chiggers," so he says. We suppose it is to be taken for granted that there will be plenty of shelter in the case of rain. And there will be a good dinner and well served.

Lightning played dangerous pranks with the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ewell Floyd of Near Garys Lane last Saturday afternoon. Fortunately both Mr. and Mrs. Floyd were not in the house at the time or they would in all likelihood have been killed. The bolt hit the chimney tearing a hole in it, then it made a clean sweep of the mantel piece tearing up everything on it including the clock and some vases. A window was smashed into a thousand pieces.

POLITICAL CATECHISM.

What is politics? A dirty scramble for office. What is office? A position with little work and big pay. What is money? A tool of oppression. What is law? An unequal distribution of injustice. What is a toast? A legalized band of robbers. What is a bank? A corporation that lives on the interest of what it owes. What is poverty? Hell on earth. What is riches? Accumulated plunder. What is society? Good clothes, a full pocket and an empty head. What is civilization? An agreement among the rich and strong to rob the poor and weak by legislation, instead of by physical force. What is a crank? A man with a new idea. What is a politician? A man who has the office itch. What is a patriot? A man who believes that dying for his country is an easier job than trying to live in it.—Fool Killer.

SOCIETY.

A very enjoyable affair of last week was the book party given by Miss Helen Page in honor of her house guests Misses Ethel Eleazer of Spring Hill, Annette Henry of Stonehouse and Kate Eleazer of Chapin.

Miss Bess Burton was the charming hostess Friday afternoon to the Winthrop Daughters. About 14 members were present and the hostess served a delightful ice course, assisted by Miss Mary L. Burton.

SOME WEATHER COMPARISONS.

The constant rains since the first of the month would lead many to the conclusion that never before had there been such heavy down pour of rain in this section.

Voluntary Observer W. G. Peterson has given us some figures of heavy rains for the past several years. There are yet seven days of this month and the total may reach the high water mark if the rains continue.

The following are the figures: July, 1916, until 24th, 10.59 inches. January, 1892, 10.45 inches. March, 1891, 14.18 inches. July, 1896, 10.14 inches. August, 1893, 11.99 inches. September, 1898, 17.90 inches.

MIMNAUGH'S CLEARANCE SALE.

Mimnaugh's big July clearance sale begins tomorrow, Wednesday, and he is going to put the knife into all former prices deep and strong and the buying public will be the gainer. He wants to clear out all goods to make room for his fall and winter stock.

Mimnaugh has a large stock and it is always fresh because he sacrifices the goods at the end of each season rather than carry them over for next season as new goods. Read his ad and then don't forget that the sale starts on Wednesday.
