

NOMINATE HANLEY UPON DRY TICKET

Nashville: Man Gets Unanimous Vote, an Honor His Leader Fails to Attain.

St. Paul, Minn., July 27.—J. Frank Hanley, former governor of Indiana, was nominated for president, and Dr. Ira D. Landrith of Nashville for vice president today by the Prohibitionist national convention which adjourned sine die at 3:30 p. m. Dr. Landrith's nomination was made unanimous after the vice presidential candidate had withdrawn.

Mr. Hanley's nomination came on the first ballot and followed a number of hurried conferences between advocates of William Sulzer, former governor of New York, and several brief demonstrations in the latter's behalf.

Mr. Hanley received 440 votes as against 181 for Mr. Sulzer. Finley C. Hendrickson of Cumberland, Md., received 51 votes; James Gilbert Mason of New Jersey 10; W. P. F. Ferguson of Pennsylvania 4; Sumner W. Hayne of Indiana 2 and Henry Ford, Detroit, 1. A motion to make Mr. Hanley's nomination unanimous was defeated when objections were offered by Eugene W. Chafin of Arizona and a score of other delegates.

After the nomination of Dr. Landrith the assembly arose and sang the Doxology and ended a six hour session, marking the close of the three day convention.

The party platform with only one change in the draft presented by the resolution committee—the insertion of a plank declaring in favor of the initiative, the referendum and recall—was adopted early in the day's session.

Mr. Sulzer, who had remained at his hotel, later characterized the convention's action as a "steam roller" victory but added:

"As I was not a candidate for the nomination, I am not disappointed that it has gone to Mr. Hanley."

"The Prohibitionist party's platform expresses opposition to the "wasteful military programmes of the Democratic and Republican parties," but favors "preparedness for peace." It suggests a "compact among nations to dismantle navies and disband armies," but "until such court and compact are established, we pledge ourselves to maintain an effective army and navy and to provide coast defenses entirely adequate for national protection."

It favors reciprocal trade treaties to be negotiated with all nations and commissions appointed to gather facts and also legislation to encourage the establishment of an adequate fleet of American merchant ships.

Opposes war with Mexico; pledges aid to the protection of American lives and favors use of force when necessary.

Approves strict interpretation of the Monroe doctrine; opposes abandonment of the Philippine islands at this time, but favors ultimate independence.

Favors non-political promotions to be governed by civil service officials.

Favors equitable retirement law for maintenance of superannuated federal employes.

Declares for Americanism.

Favors uniform marriage and divorce laws and complete suppression of white slavery.

Declares for prohibition of child labor, approves an eight hour day with one hour rest each day, and extension of compensation and liability federal acts.

Opposes "pork barrel" legislation, and useless federal expenditures.

Favors a single presidential term of six years.

Demands public ownership of utilities, to be operated in the interest of all people.

Believes in equality of all persons. Favors separation of church and state, with guaranty of full religious and civil rights to all.

Favors public grain elevators, owned and operated by the federal government, and abolition of speculation on markets.
