DOVE SHOOTING SEASON TO OPEN

Chief Game Warden Explains License Law—Condensed Statement of Open and Close Seasons Furnished.

The State.

"The open season for shooting doves began today," said the State game warden, A. A. Richardson of Columbia. "I am overrun with inquiries as to what counties come under the resident hunter's license law. Every county in the State is now under the provisions of this act, except Berkeley, Clarendon, Georgetown, Aiken, York, Greenwood, Cherokee, Lancaster, Marlboro, Colleton, Wilkesburg and Chesterfield. In these exempt counties no license is required of a South Carolinian, but all other counties are affected. On the back of each hunter's license are printed the dates of the open and close season on all classes of game."

Mr. Richardson furnished the following condensed statement of the open and close seasons, the initial date indicating the opening of the season and the second the close:

Deer—September 1-January 1, Colleton county, September 1-February 1. Dorchester and Berkeley counties August 1-February 1. Barnwell, Florence, Marion counties, August 1-January 1. (Orangeburg, Sumter, Richland no open season.)

Quail (partridge)—November 15-March 15. Union, December 1-March 1. Lancaster, Chester, Abbeville, York, December 1-February 1. Fairfield, December 1-March 1. Chesterfield, November 15-March 1. Marlboro, November 15-February 15.

Dove—August 15-March 1. Kershaw, August 15-March 1. Allowed to bait from December 1-March 1. Aiken county, December 1-March 15.

Wild Turkey—November 15-March 15. Lancaster, Chester, Abbeville, York, December 1-February 1. Fairfield, December 1-March 1. (Orangeburg no open season.)

Squirrel—October 1-January 1. (Law in Chesterfield and York only.)

Woodcock—September 1-March 1.

Willow—November 1-March 1.

Summer or Wood Ducks—September 1-March 1.

Grackle—October 1-March 1.

In counties of Chester, York, Union and Marlboro an additional license, costing $5 and obtainable from clerk of court, is required for fox hunters.

No State laws on migratory ducks. Close season at all times on all non game birds.

Bag limits: Partridges or doves, 15 per day; Woodcock, 12, and wild turkey, 2 per day; deer, 5 during the season.

A FAMILY REUNION

There was an enjoyable day at the home of Mr. T. D. Gentry near Kinards on last Saturday, August 12. It was the occasion of the family reunion of Mr. and Mrs. Gentry when their children and grandchildren gathered at the ancestral home. There were seventy three present. There was good hash and baskets of good things to eat prepared by the ladies of the family. The hash was cooked by those famous hash cooks, T. D. Gentry and J. R. Longshore. In the afternoon ice cream and lemonade were served. The only thing to mar the pleasure of the day was the vacant chair made since the last reunion.

Miss Margherita Matthews and Miss Gladys Chappell are on a visit to relatives and friends in Edgefield.

Miss Rebecca Moore of Greenwood is expected to visit her uncle, Dr. P. G. Ellis during the week.

Complaint is made by a citizen that some of those who are running hacks for hire are required to pay the license fixed by law while others are not required to pay and he wants to know why this is thus and the law not enforced.

SOCIETY.

The Young Matrons Rook club was delightfully entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. W. C. Schenck. After several games of rook, iced tea and sandwiches were served.

On Wednesday afternoon Miss Marguerite Burns entertained a number of friends at a rook party, at her home in Boundary street. The tables were arranged on the piazza, and after a number of interesting games, a delightful ice course was served.

Kinard, at her lovely home in Calhoun street, in compliment to Miss Ethel Ramage, of Fort Worth, Texas, and Miss Marie Doolan, of Savannah. Nine tables were placed about the hall and living rooms, and at the conclusion of the games a delightful ice course was served.

A pretty and interesting affair of last week was the kitchen party given by the "Wear Ever" boys at Mrs. Buzard's in Boundary street, Wednesday afternoon. After the demonstration the luncheon prepared during the demonstration was served. There were about 35 ladies present and the afternoon proved very enjoyable.

Mrs. Olin L. Buzhardt gave a very lovely card party at her home in Boundary street on Wednesday afternoon for Miss Marie DeHihns, Lois Jeter and Marguerite Burns which was greatly enjoyed by a merry little bunch.

Beautiful white lilies of the valley with red cannas and out ferns made a most beautiful decoration. Three tables were used for rook. As the crowd gathered punch was served after which a most delightful game of rook was played and the prize was won by Miss Edna Sanders and Master Cornelius Evans for playing the highest score of cards, after which ice cream and cake and mints were served by Mrs. Julius Langford, Mrs. J. L. Burns and Miss Marmie Paysinger.

The amount will be forwarded as coming from the citizens of Newberry through the regular channel. Manager Wells not desiring any credit, other than the aim of doing his part as a patriotic citizen. The Opera House ought to be crowded this afternoon and night.

There was a general delivery at the poorhouse stockade Tuesday night. Five negro women who had been sent down there to help the keeper, Mr. Mark Smith, pull fodder for the next thirty days decided that the exercise was a little too strenuous and the corn stalks a little too tall to make the position attractive so they got busy and found an exit to freedom by climbing up the sides of the building and breaking out some window panes, thus effecting their escape.

Anna Boyd several years ago deeded her child to Mrs. D. A. Dickert, but last Thursday came to Newberry and after being allowed the privilege of taking the child to a picnic, decided that the child was big enough to help her and took the child with her to Charlotte. A warrant was sworn out for Anna and placed in the hands of the sheriff. Deputy Sheriff Dorron, brought Anna and the child back from Charlotte Wednesday night. The child was turned over to Mrs. Dickert, the woman lodged in jail on a charge of kidnapping.

BARBECUES AND BARBECUES.

There have been more barbecues in Newberry county the present summer than ever before in the history of the county, or in the history of political campaigns. And they have all been fine barbecues, because Newberry has the world beat on good barbecue cooks, and then we have the other things necessary to make good barbecues.

We have made an effort to attend as many as possible and we have not been able to reach all of them. It seems like the irony of fate that we failed to get to Fairview on Wednesday of last week and on Wednesday

WOMEN PRISONERS ESCAPE AND ARE RECAPTURED

Five negro women who have been incarcerated at the county home on misdemeanor charges escaped on Tuesday night. Under the present conditions it is almost impossible to keep a prisoner at the county home. The law requires the separation of white and negro prisoners and it also requires that the men and women prisoners shall be kept apart. And it is due to the lack of proper facilities that it is so easy for the prisoners who are sent to the home, especially the women prisoners, to get away.

As soon as the fact that the women had gone was discovered by the keeper, Mr. Smith, he notified Sheriff Blease and the sheriff and his deputies at once took up the search for the fugitives. By yesterday morning all of them had been located by these officers and were landed in jail. Under the law the prisoners are subject to additional sentence for making escape and the women may be sorry after all that they went away.

It is understood that Supervisor Sample expects to take up with the legislative delegation the matter of providing a safe place for the detaining of women prisoners at the home. The law forbids such prisoners being placed on the chaingangs.

Obituary.

Mrs. Lillie Viola Sligh was born Nov. 29th, 1890, and departed this life July 16, 1916. On the eighth day of Dec., 1908, she was married to Mr. Arthur Sligh. Unto this union three children were born, who with their father survives the mother. Mrs. Sligh was born near St. Luke's Evangelical Lutheran Church and in early life united with that church on profession of faith in Christ.

About three years ago she was transferred by letter to Cannon Creek A. R. P. church and remained a member thereof until God called her to her reward.

She was a daughter of Mr and Mrs. Dave Minick and during her last illness was taken to their home where she died. It was not the wife's privilege to minister to her during her illness but we understand she expressed resignation to God's will and a strong hope of a home in heaven.

May the God of all grace comfort and sustain all her bereaved ones and provide for her little children. May the family circle now broken here, be reformed in glory where we trust they shall meet and be forever with the Lord.

The funeral and burial took place at St. Luke's and Pastor J. Meek White was in charge, assisted by Pastor Cronk, in the presence of a large congregation.

Yours truly,
F. R. Hunter,
Chairman Democratic Executive Committee, Newberry S. C.,
B. B. Leitzsey,
Secretary and Treasurer.

of this week we failed to get to Silverstreet, and at both places the makers of the barbecues changed the dates from Thursday to Wednesday at our request so that we might be able to attend. Business engagements made it impossible for us to be there. We regret it and hope our friends will excuse our absence. We kept our promise to advertise the change at each place and we are told that both were fine dinners.

There was good hash and fine meat at Jalapa on Tuesday and a large crowd present.

We managed to go to two places on Thursday. We told Caldwell Ruff and Henry Counts that we could not come to Jolly Street for dinner but if they would arrange to serve us a breakfast we would try to bring four to eat it. We went and also Ed Evans, Henry Rikard and Jim Sample and we had a fine breakfast served by Mrs. Caldwell Ruff and them brains and pig feet and chittlings were sure fine.

At noon we drove out to Beth Eden to the annual picnic at that place. The dinner was fine and the hash cooked by Ab Sligh they say was as good as the best. He knows how to make hash. There was a good crowd present and we are glad of the opportunity to have spent an hour with these good people.

We wish the supervisor could get out on this road and put some clay with that heavy sand and then there would always be a good road in that direction. We understand that Supervisor Sample is going to do so as soon as the crops are laid by and the people can give a little cooperation and that he is going to repair this road all the way to Whitmire.

Today the barbecue will be at Keitt's grove a most delightful place to hold a meeting.

We are sorry that some of our big family have met with misfortune but glad that it is not serious. Hub Evans has been laid up for a few days and was not able to get to Jalapa. Clemson Wilson put some wrong medicine in his eye in the place of eye water and it might have been serious but he is all right again. Walter Herbert got young and was driving a sprightly young horse which ran off with him and bruised his leg but he has been able to keep going. The rest of the family, thank you, we believe are all right.

As to the finances of the county there are certain fixed expenses that have to be met. The county supervisor cannot avoid them or change them if he should be extravagant or wasteful in the other expenditures then that is a matter for which he should account. But the fact that the county is in debt is a matter over which he has no control and about which he is powerless to act. The county has been in debt for many years and the sad fact about it is that it is getting deeper in every year and will continue to do so so long as the foolish policy of the members of the legislature is continued. And neither can the county supervisor nor the county commissioners help it. So long as the legislative delegation refuses or fails to make the levy sufficient to raise the revenue to run the county the county is going to be in debt. It is a very foolish and unbusinesslike way to do but it has been going on so long that the people should be familiar with it by this time.

The expenses necessary to run the county are about $45,000 and the total income not over $35,000 and of course the county is going to remain in debt so long as that policy prevails.

It is not right to make the people who do work for the county wait for the pay and it is not right to be borrowing money and make the people pay interest. But it is up to the legislative delegation.
