VOTE FOR FRED DOMINICK.

News comes from up the district that Fred Dominick is going to win in the race for congress next Tuesday. All the information that we can get from reliable sources points to the fact that he will carry a good majority in the big county of Anderson and that he will have a good majority in Greenwood and in a large majority in Pickens county. And that the baby county of McCormick will also give him a good majority.

It will be close between him and Aiken in Oconee and Abbeville with all signs pointing to a majority for him in these counties. In fact it looks like a landslide to Dominick.

The point is that his home county of Newberry should pile up the biggest majority of all and let us have one of our own home raised boys in congress. But we do not put the claim on the fact that he is simply a Newberry man. He has the ability and the experience to make a representative in the national congress of whom the district and the people of Newberry would be justly proud. He will have a majority in Newberry. There is no doubt about that. We would like to see it a big majority. Why not? Some one who is thinking of not voting for him answer that question.

Wonder how many voters are registered in the Democratic primary. According to the returns of the election there were about 136,000 votes cast. A few days ago the daily papers were telling us that there are some 20,000 who did not vote. Now the number has run up to 25,000. That would make a total democratic vote in the State of over 160,000. Wonder if there are that many. The biggest vote ever polled in a democratic primary was four years ago when the daily papers urged the absent ones to come and vote. That was before the strict registration which we have now. We doubt if the increase has been so great. We would be pleased to see a full vote. Both the Blease leaders and the Manning leaders are calling for a fair count and an honest election and each is warning its friends to watch the count.

There is no use to get excited about the election. The old State will move on just the same and the great majority will have to plow on whatever the result.

Upon the whole the cotton crop in this county is not so terribly bad. In some sections the crop is tolerably good, almost a average crop.

Misses Rebecca and Gladys Senn of Longshore are visiting Miss Elise Peterson.

Stone the prophet. This does not mean, as it may seem, to read, to stone a prophet. It means that Mr. Stone, the political prophet, being a good insurance agent, and in need of a fine place to rest after having been laid up in a hospital with an injured foot, finds Newberry the place to recuperate in, especially since Mr. Spinks is here representing the same company and is agreeable company.

Mr. Ed. Stone fell off a barn while working for Mr. Jno. T. Norris Wednesday afternoon and it was at first thought he was seriously injured as he was rendered unconscious. Dr. W. F. Petham, Jr., was called in and upon examination found that no bones were broken, although Mr. Stone was badly bruised. He is, however, getting along improvingly.

At St. Luke's Lutheran church there will be services next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday in the morning and afternoon. Lunch on the grounds. The sermons will be preached by the Rev. W. A. Dutton and his son of the theological seminary.

The school at Whitmire will open next Monday morning. Prof. Hanna and his teachers are on the ground ready for a year of good work.

VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

At Whitmire Saturday the Rev. W. E. Furcrom united Miss Sallie Wilson and Mr. Tom Brock in marriage.

Attend the special services now being conducted at the A. R. P. church by the Rev. S. W. Reid of Atlanta.

There will be a missionary institute of the Presbyterian churches held at Dominick schoolhouse next Thursday.

Mr. Noah Oxner is working at Prosperity now. He will build a dwelling house for Mr. McFall Wise. —Pleasant Grove Cor Leesville News.

From the actions of certain people in Newberry we are easily led to believe that they are enjoying "The Feast of Life."

When "old Sep" ends his days we hope the last single mosquito will disappear with him. That is something to look forward to.

Magistrate R. M. Aughtry at Whitmire married a couple last Friday. He made Mr. William Willbanks and Miss Mattie Holden man and wife.

A Woodman's monument will be unveiled at Rosemont Sunday afternoon to the memory of David A. Langford.

Because a certain fellow in this town is very fond of hearing the pipe organ a guyer says it is organic trouble.

The pictures will begin to be operated promptly at a quarter of eight o'clock nightly at the Opera House. The afternoon hour remains the same, four o'clock.

"Sis Hopkins" will soon disappear from Newberry and her place in the pictures at the Opera House will be taken by someone else in a Kalem comedy.

Baker and Oxner have bought a lot from the Blease estate and will soon have a garage there, on the vacant space adjoining the residence lot of Mr. Foster N. Martin.

Next Tuesday will be a bigger day than was last Tuesday week. Everybody is taking hold. There will be something doing, which we will tell you in the next issue of this paper.

Farmers, planters, bank men, merchants and all others interested will bear in mind the meeting of the Live Stock association at the courthouse Saturday morning.

The English sparrows are tired waiting for that bird picnic. They are not afraid of being exterminated. Where is that bird woodland? Gone into song like "woodland echoes."

For reckless driving Elisha Dennis, colored, paid a fine of $2 in the recorder's court Tuesday morning. Recorder Earhardt was light on Elisha from the fact that the horse he was driving was uncontrollable.

If you would see the last of "The Strange Case of Mary Page" will have to go to the Opera House tonight, Thursday. Other pictures will be "The Waters of Lethe" and "The Fable of the Small Town Favorite."

Greenwood Journal effervesces as follows: "We take it for granted that just to show its good name Jolly Street township in Newberry county gave DesChamps and Duncan a vote each."

Ladies of Central Methodist church will conduct a rummage sale Saturday in the vacant store next to E. M. Evans. Whenever these ladies have a rummage sale it is a good one, as the managers know how.

There will be a free band concert at the city park Friday night, beginning at 8 o'clock. This will prove welcome news to a whole lot of people and no doubt a large crowd will be present.

Alice Brady will be in "Miss Petticoats" at the Opera House Tuesday, September 12, Ethel Clayton in "A

MONEY AND SERVICE

If it is money you wish to borrow, we have it. If it is service you wish, please us by asking for one or both.

In Aug., 1915, we published the following notice:

"DO NOT SACRIFICE YOUR COTTON"

"With the facilities offered us through the Federal Reserve System, we are now prepared to loan every farmer in Newberry County enough money to prevent a sacrifice of his 1915 COTTON CROP. If the price of cotton continues below the cost of production, we feel sure that no intelligent farmer will voluntarily throw his crop on the market. With this idea in view, we have prepared ourselves to assist you. If you wish to avail yourself of our services, confer with some of the officers of the Bank at your convenience."

How well we carried out the above is for the farmers themselves to say. With the Federal Reserve System in full operation, we are now in a better position than in 1915 to render the farmers an even greater service. Come in and talk with us.

FRED DOMINICK

The Next Congressman from Third District

He Leads the Race

1,000 Votes in the

First Primary With Four Competitors.

He has a good lead over all competitors in Anderson, Pickens and Newberry. He is second in Greenwood and leads Aiken in Greenwood by 200 votes. He lacks only 150 votes striking even with Aiken in Abbeville county, Aiken's home.

Dominick has the ability and the experience to represent the great Third District. This district deserves to have a representative the equal of any man in the National Congress.

Woman's Way" Tuesday, 19th, and "Mollie King in "The Summer Girl" the 26th. Three bright stars in attractive pictures.

Now is the time for the merchants to put their ads in the paper. Let the people know that you are on the job. Tell them what you have to sell and they will do the rest. The merchant who has the best goods for the lowest prices, and who advertises the fact, is the merchant who will get the trade.

The thief that stole pants from Messrs Frank and Marion Baxter early Tuesday morning must have recollected the clothes stolen from Mr. Jno. Henry Baxter some time last year. It seems that they like the pants of the Baxters. It would take a mighty big thief to wear them. What else would he want with them?

Among the receipts of board of foreign missions for August, as published in the Lutheran Church Visitor, are the following, Mrs. W. G. Allworden, treasurer, for Grace church Prosperity, support Mr. Wasa, $67.40; Church of Redeemer, Newberry, for support of native helper, $137.26; A. H. Kohn, treasurer, $15.24; J. Ira Hältiwanger, treasurer, for support of Miss Powers, $100.

The address delivered on "The Unity of the Faith," by Rev. J. Henry Farms, D. D., president of Newberry college, at the convention of the Lutheran League of America at Toledo, Ohio, was so well received on account of its forcible presentation of the subject that the address was requested for publication in several Lutheran periodicals, and thus it will be given the wide circulation it so richly deserves.—Lutheran Church Visitor.

There are signs that the old town is awakening from her slumbers. They are showing up just in time to keep the undertakers from embalming her commercial body. She was not quite dead, as some suspected; she was only sleeping and dreaming. Now if the able citizens would only get wide awake and follow the good advice Mr. Leland Summer recently gave in advocating the trolley line there would be life in the land indeed. The town might still remain ragged and dirty, but there would be industrial activity which like charity oversin would cover a multitude of holes and ditches and other little unsanitary places that seem destined never to be cleaned up.

Miss Inez Hamel of Kershaw spent Tuesday and Wednesday with Miss Josie Hutchinson in Cline street, and left for Whitmire where she will teach English and Latin in the high school during the coming year.

Mr. Tom W. Clark has arrived from Atlanta to take charge of the Hotel Savoy, which he will manage for Proprietor Yonce. Mr. Clark is experienced in the business. The Savoy is ready for business.
