

PURELY PERSONAL

The Movements of Many People, Newberrians, and Those Who Visit Newberry.

Mrs. W. M. Griffin and Miss Octie Griffin spent Monday in Columbia.

Miss Azilee Parr of Due West College for Women is at home for the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mrs. Roland Parks has returned to Cedartown, Ga., after a visit to relatives in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Mathis of Prosperity spent the week-end in Newberry with Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Asbill.

Miss Lila Summer, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Summer, returned to her home at Newberry this morning.—Greenwood Journal.

Mrs. C. L. Watkins and little son, Clarence, returned to Columbia Saturday, after spending several days with Mrs. D. J. Burns.

Mr. Edwin A. Carlisle and family of Ohio are visiting his father, Mr. Milton A. Carlisle. His friends are glad to welcome him and his family to his old home.

Mrs. F. E. Dibble of Newberry, wife of a former pastor of the Methodist church here, spent several days last week in Ninety Six with her friend, Mrs. D. M. Lipscomb.—Ninety Six Cor. Greenwood Journal.

Capt. W. Smith Langford arrived in Newberry from Texas a few days ago and will remain for several days. Mrs. Langford was not able to come with him and he will return some time next week. He brought with him in a sealed bottle some samples of the ravages of the boll weevil.

Mrs. Herman Wright was placed on the committee on resolutions at the meeting of the State U. D. C. convention last week, and Mrs. Robert Wright was appointed to represent the Piedmont district as assistant to the chairman of the State Historical committee.

Mr. Heyward B. Ewart, son of Mr. W. F. Ewart, has been transferred from Manning to Hartsville as manager of the Western Union Telegraph company at that place. This is a promotion and a creditable one, as young Ewart hasn't been with the company a year yet.

Mr. John Hay Kuhns, who was born in Newberry, was married on the 15th instant in Dillon, Montana, his bride being Miss Lula Belle Rumbaugh of that city. Mr. Kuhns' home is in Omaha, Nebraska. He was a little boy when he left Newberry with his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. H. W. Kuhns, and the family.
