

Misses Audrey, Caroline and Catherine Jones, daughters of Mr. W. E. Jones, local agent for the American Railway Express company, are spending the summer school holiday season at their former home in Walterboro. Before returning home they will visit relatives in Bluffton and Alendale.

Speaking of Bluffton reminds us to say that Mr. Wilbur R. Gantt spent a week there recently—at the Palmetto Beach Fishing camp—and he says it is all that is claimed for it in the printed matter now being distributed. Why not go to places in South Carolina instead of to those in other states? The fishing camp on the Palmetto beach at Bluffton is now open for the summer, with the advantages of sea food in abundance and no mosquitoes. Bluffton is where a former Newberry boy presides as superintendent of the high school—Prof. Claude Riser.

Miss Louise English of Union has returned home after a visit to Miss Ruth Harrell.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Long of Lexington spent the week-end here with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gregory.

Mrs. W. F. Ewart is visiting relatives in North Carolina.

In the primary methods course to be offered by Mrs. Quattlebaum in the Newberry college summer school, July 10th-August 18th, a splendid opportunity will be offered boys and girls and first and second grade ages to secure valuable training. The classes will be limited to twenty pupils, ten pupils in each grade. They will be expected to attend for two periods every morning. Parents who may desire their children to take advantage of this opportunity are asked to make written application to Jas. C. Kinard, director, not later than Wednesday, July 5th.

Editor W. H. Wallaie of the Observer returned this week from Spartanburg, to the pleasure of his many friends.

Mr. S. J. Klettner, traveling for the Proitor & Gamble Distributing company, distributing point Atlanta, Ga., was in the city a day or so this week. "Si" is looking better (better looking) than ever, and it shows that he is doing well, we are glad to say.

Dr. J. Wm. Folk was in the city Tuesday, paying his assessment as a candidate and attending to other business, meeting many friends and "passing the time of day." So far he is the lone racer for the house on the track, but after this there will be other entries for the course.

Mrs. T. E. Rivers, Jr., is paying a visit to relatives in Newberry.—Mrs. W. T. Reynolds is spending some time with relatives in Newberry.—Greenwood Index-Journal, 27th.

The funeral services of the late Dr. D. L. Boozer, who died in Newberry Thursday, were held yesterday afternoon in St. Paul's Lutheran church at 5 o'clock.—The State, 28th, 20 years ago.

Prof. O. B. Cannon announced as a speaker at the high school conference in Columbia today, Thursday.

Mrs. George McCarthy and children have returned from Newberry after paying a week's visit to the former's brother, W. L. Griffin.—Greenwood Index-Journal.

Messrs. J. D. Crobb, Jr., J. M. Woodall and R. B. Hargrove, Specialty Domino crew representing the American Sugar Refining company, were in Newberry this week at the Hotel National. They have arranged with The Herald and News to let the general public know their business, which is very important and far reaching.

The ladies of the civic league are untiring and successful workers, proceeding with quick action. Four months ago they parked the grounds of the old court house square and in that short space of time they have paid off the debt of $215.50 and have a balance in the bank. This is conducting business to a finish and doing well.

Mrs. William Milam of Kentucky visited relatives in Newberry last week.

Dr. P. G. Ellisor is able to ride out in his car, which gives his many friends great pleasure. While he is steadily improving, he, however, is not yet sufficiently strong to resume the active practice of his profession.

The Rev. Mr. Thomas L. Rideout will hold services at the Episcopal church Sunday, at 11:30 and 5:30 o'clock.

Not since the cow jumped over the moon has there been a brighter answer to the question of "who got his goat" than was given by Mr. J. P. Moon when he said the Commercial bank got his. Moon's all right.

There was another swell wedding in high colored society on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Rev. T. F. Harper in Harper street, when his daughter, Eunice Everlena, and Simeon Walter Allen, Jr., were married.

Mr. Rut McGhee of Columbia, a former newspaper man now in the insurance business, was in the city Tuesday and Wednesday transacting business.

Mr. Bob Longshore, a former Newberry boy now of Clinton, was accompanied from this city Wednesday to Columbia by Dr. Mower, for hospital treatment.

One man in this city has dropped an "e" from boll weevil and now calls it boll weevil. Sounds like putting on airs.

Mrs. William Thomson, after a most pleasant visit to her father, Mr. Jas. A. Burton, and her sisters in Newberry, will leave Friday for her home in Charlotte.

As several persons, intelligent ones at that, have asked why the reporter was wearing a shade over his eyes, we are moved to say that it is not to improve looks or put on airs.

One is left standing where three stood before, two of the three having gone through the door.

Mr. F. W. Chapman spent the week end in Newberry with his family.—Laurens Advertiser.

The 4th of July this year will be the biggest fourth for this city in many years.

Mrs. J. B. Wise and her fine little son, J. B., Jr., after pleasantly visiting relatives here, will leave on Monday for Chester to spend some time there and in other sections of South Carolina before returning to their home in Atlanta.

Mr. L. G. Baile left the city Monday morning for Spartanburg where he expects to undergo a minor operation in the general hospital there.—Laurens Herald.

Many in Newberry are looking forward with pleasure to the coming of the picture showing moving scenes of this city.

Next week will bring another big event to this city—the Woman's Missionary union of the Upper South Carolina conference is to convene in Central Methodist church on Wednesday evening, July 5. See program in another column.

Miss Sarah Simmons and Mrs. Brannon of Columbia spent the last week-end with Mrs. J. W. M. Simmons in Newberry.

Mrs. C. Rivers Stone of Greenville spent the last week-end with her mother, Mrs. J. W. M. Simmons.

County Superintendent E. H. Aull, Dr. C. A. Freed and Dr. S. J. Derrick will deliver "stirring educational addresses" at the 4th of July celebration in Little Mountain, Rev. J. J. Long will preside over the meeting. A big barbecue will also be observed.

Mr. Harold C. Booker of Columbia was elected secretary and manager of field service of the South Carolina Cotton Growers' Cooperative association at a meeting of the board of directors in Columbia Wednesday night.

Music was furnished by Miss Lucy Metts, Miss Artitia Fairy, members of the convention and delegates, and John Townsend, a local singer.—From an Anderson special reporting the annual convention of the blind of South Carolina.

Dave Black and John Brooks Koon, the Lexington men arrested by Officers Taylor, Havird and Quattlebaum and lodged in the Newberry jail last Saturday afternoon charged with transporting, were released on bond before Magistrate Douglas, Black in the sum of $1,000, and Koon in $500, and subsequently taken before the magistrate at Prosperity when they were given their liberty in bonds of $100 each.

Mr. Earle Bullock and baby boy spent last week-end at Chapin and Leesville, Mr. Bullock motoring there and returning with them the first of the week. Mrs. Bullock had a visit Wednesday afternoon from her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Frick and two children, Miss Pearl and Alvin Frick of Chapin.

The union service will be held at Central Methodist church Sunday night at 8:30 o'clock, preaching by Dr. Freed. Mrs. Edna Hipp Willson, who is on another of her agreeable visits to Newberry, has kindly consented to sing on that occasion, which will be to the pleasure and appreciation of her many friends.

Misses Marguerite and Mary Werts will return on Monday from Bamberg after visiting their aunt, Mrs. E. W. Watson. These young ladies say they have been reading in The Herald and News so much about the good times expected here on the 4th of July that they just must be at home at that time.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Morris will leave on Sunday for Brevard, N. C., where Mr. Morris will be in business. This is another occasion for regret at seeing good people move away. Mr. Morris, while associated with his father, Mr. L. Morris in the store here, has always so conducted himself in business and in the life of the city as to win the good will of the community which was raised to greater esteem when the young man and his brother Sam entered the World war and did their part for their home country and the rest of the allied countries.

Rev. W. W. McMorries of Persons, N. C., is visiting at the home of his friend, Mr. W. E. Wallace.

Seeing automobiles meeting each other at corners so often narrowly averting collisions we are never surprised to hear of accidents, rather expecting them at any time. A collision occurred this, Thursday, about 12:30 o'clock, at the corner of Nance and Harrington streets, between an auto and a truck. Mrs. Moon was driving her car down Harrington street while Mr. E. C. Taylor was driving his Coca Cola truck up Nance street. The automobile had the fender and one light broken, and the truck had a practically new right front wheel tire torn.

Mr. A. C. Sligh of Dyson was in the city Thursday. He will be chief cook at the Greenwood barbecue July 4th. Congressional Candidates Sherard and McCravy were in the Dominick barnyard this middle week—one at a time.

MARRIED AWAY FROM HOME WITHOUT LETTING US KNOW

Former Newberry Girl and Newberry Boy Both in Atlanta Board the Matrimonial Car.

Some years ago there lived in Newberry county Mr. W. H. Dickert and family and at the same time in this county there dwelt a boy—Sam B. Neal. Whether the then boy knew the Dickert family we know not. At any rate, time rushed rapidly. The Dickerts moved away and in the course of events members of the family passed the great divide. The Neals remained in their native county. Sam the boy grew to young manhood and, like the true blue American that he was and is, at the breaking out of the world hostilities went to help Uncle Sam with his allied friends in Europe.

All of that is in the past. We are now dealing in the present, and will let Sam get ready for his own future. The present is this: On the 17th of June, at the Lutheran church in Atlanta, Miss Caro May Spense, the granddaughter of the late W. H. Dickert of Newberry, and Mr. Sam B. Neal, formerly of Newberry, but now in the insurance business in Atlanta, were married. They are making their home for the present with the bride's mother in Atlanta.

The writer is one of the bridegroom's best friends, and he told us the news of his marriage. We know Sam. He is a fine boy, "all right" right along. We do not know the bride, but will take Sam's word for it that she "is the sweetest girl in Dixie." Of course she is, as we behold her through Sam's eyes. But they all say that. It's natural. There are many of the "sweetest girls in Dixie" as Newberry brides just now. A newly married man thinks of his bride as a mother thinks of her baby—the most wonderful in the world. Occasionally some mistaken woman thinks the same of her husband. (Sam made his remarks confidentially to the reporter, but we just couldn't resist the temptation to "give him away.")

After the ceremony the two, like most of the recent other happy couples in these parts, took the idea of the hymn to "flee as birds to the mountains,"—only Mr. and Mrs. Neal "flew" to the mountains of Tennessee on a delightful bridal trip. Our hand to you, Sam. May you be happy always, with your bride.

PLAYING THE GAME

By Alf Mason
The great game of chance is most always played too often. So, roll up your sleeves, Towards work all hearts must soften.

To those who can wait,
All things come, you have heard it said;
Mind, 'tis not too late,
They may come after you are dead.

Though, this we do know,
Forever climbing high gear
May to us seem slow,
We must patiently keep it there.

Patient endeavor
Should be our governing power.
Confidence ever,
If we would attain the higher.

To humanity
Service you can give that is real;
Productivity,
The watchword of our common weal.

Within Reason
Just as the guards were leading the client away, the lawyer stopped and shook hands sadly with the recent defendant.

"I'm sorry I couldn't do more for you, old man," he apologized.
"Don't mention it, sir," replied the prisoner politely. "Ain't five years enough?"

ROTARY NOTES

One of the most enjoyable affairs in the history of the Newberry Rotary club was the dinner given Tuesday evening in the dining room of the Newberry hotel, when the members of the Newberry fire department were guests of the club. In addition to the members of the fire department, there were several other guests present.

At eight o'clock the Rotarians and guests assembled in the lobby of the hotel—and thence to the dining room where the dinner was served. The tables were decorated with potted plants and cut flowers—and a truly Rotary dinner, served a la Bullock! The program was one of the best that has ever come the local club's way, and was entered into with true Rotary spirit, for the Rotarians were more than glad to have the fire ladies as their guests, and the members of the fire department were none the less appreciative of the hospitality of the Rotary club.

After the singing of "America" by the members of the club and the guests, the address of welcome was made by President Haskell Kibler, of the club, after which Rotarian Walter Hunt, who is the only honorary member of the club, made a five-minute talk on the "Newberry Fire Department," of which organization he was the first president, in 1883. Rotarian Hunt, in a very interesting manner, reviewed the history of the department from the date of its organization to the present.

PLANT PEST BREVITIES

By C. A. Ludwig, associate plant pathologist.

It has been shown that a tendency to blossom-end rot of tomatoes is hereditary. Seeds should be saved from plants which show resistance.

One of the greatest influences favoring the distribution of destructive plant diseases is the custom of purchasing seed and plants from a distance. Raise the seed at home.

The fungicides which depend on sulphur for their action have been shown to be most effective in hot weather.

The Mississippi experiment station reports that pecan scab can be controlled by four or five applications of Bordeaux, beginning when the nuts are first formed.

Spraying reduces transit losses from brown rot of stone fruits, as well as orchard losses.

If Bordeaux mixture can not be used on the day prepared, dissolve a heaping tablespoon of sugar in a little water for each 50 gallons and stir it thoroughly. This will make it remain good much longer than it would otherwise.

Do not cultivate deeply near fruit trees. Injured roots are apt to become diseased.

It is said of some boarding houses that they "find out what the boarders don't like and give them lots of it." Try this on the organism which causes root knot.

SAM H. SHERARD.

"Aprile," the latter being sung in Italian. Miss Kohn was accorded a rising vote of thanks by the assemblage.

Then, last, but not least, the Razzo sextette, composed of Rotarians Earle Babb, Jim Kinard, Haskell Kibler, Jim Moon, Ben Dorrity and Harry Dominick, under the capable leadership of Rotarian Babb, proceeded to present a program of highly artistic musical selections upon the Razzo instruments. This program comprised operatic (?) and popular airs—but it is needless to say that the sextette kept the hearers guessing "which was which."

Well, anyway, the Razooers were applauded when they concluded—but there is now a question as to whether the beautiful selections, or the conclusion, prompted the applause.

It was a great evening for the Rotarians and their guests. The Rotarians were delighted to have the honor of entertaining the fire laddies, and the firemen, in turn, entered into the spirit of the meeting with the same zest and zeal that they exhibit in fighting conflagrations, which means that they were "all there;" the speeches were all full of meaning, and from the heart; the vocal selections by Miss Kohn, with the piano accompaniments by Mrs. Moon, proved to be one of the richest treats that has come the way of the local club since its organization more than two years ago; and the Razzo sextette—Well!
