WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1891.

The Keels Forgery Case. The trial of John R. Keels for forgery has excited a great deal of interest and comment throughout Sumter county, and for that reason alone a more extended notice than is usually given to such cases is farnished for the information of the readers abundant. Occasionally a partial failure would occur for the varieties Tuesday morning, but at the request of John T. Green, Esq., who appeared for the defense, the case was continued until Friday. This was done, although the State was ready for trial, and the witnesses who were all present would be incorporated for the freezes come. Now the best of this paper. The case was docketed for were all present, would be inconvenienced fore the freezes came. Now the best by the postponement. When the case was called Friday, Cen.

Leroy Youmans appeared as an additional counsel for John R. Keels. There was a decided disinclination on the part of the defense to go to trial on the merits of the nure. About half the years partial was a saved for cotton. Wheat is generally put off in an odd corner and plowed in late in December without preparation and often without madefense to go to trial on the merits of the nure. About half the years partial case. The first motion made by Gen. Youmans was to have the whole venire dismissed alleging that the notice had been itself the Shependoch Valley or the legally served. This motion was overruled of the Shenandoah Valley, or the by Judge Norton. The next move was to have the indictment quashed, the grounds for this move being some trivial difference between the original indictment and the warrant, such as the use of "&" in one place instead of "and" in the other. The Judge did not entertain this motion either, as slight difference made no material difference in the case.

The evidence seemed conclusive of the guilt of the accused, but the result was a mistrial, the jury standing, it is said, 7 for conviction and 5 for acquittal.

The evidence seemed conclusive of the guilt very large quantities of American grain. Many persons believe that wheat will go to $1.50 a bushel. That

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits.
