

Your Name in Print.

Miss Carrie Legg, returned to Columbia this morning. Mr. G. L. Dickson returned last night to the Charleston Medical College.

Misses Sallie Stukes and May Wilson returned to Converse College yesterday. Miss Carrie Lucas returned to Manning last Monday night from spending the holidays with relatives in Chester.

Mr. Joseph M. Bradham, the newly appointed postmaster at Packer'sville, was in town yesterday, and fixed up the necessary documents to send to Washington.

Hon. E. A. Tindal is extremely ill, and for the past two days his life was despaired of, but this morning the cheering news comes from Summerton that he is a little better.

Christmas is over. Correspondents send in your communications. Died, last Wednesday, an infant son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. McLeod.

Died, last Sunday night at the poor house, Mrs. Harriet Stedham, aged seventy-five years.

The Times extends greeting to its many readers, and hopes that 1893 will be a year of peace and plenty.

Manning was flushed with money last week. The bank had so much of it that it sent off to other banks a portion.

Efforts are being made to get the electric company to establish an office in the business portion of the town for the convenience of the public.

Fine line of candies at J. G. Dinkins & Co's. Mr. M. Kalisky has become a knight of the grip. He has recovered of late.

Mr. Louis Appelt received official notice of his appointment last Friday night and by the return mail forwarded to Washington the necessary oath and bond.

For fine confectionery go to J. G. Dinkins & Co. Mr. W. G. King and family have moved to Sumter county. Mr. King has a fine change of horses.

Mr. Shade Nichols, who was shot a few days ago, died on Tuesday night of last week. The jury of inquest placed the blame for his death upon Thomas McLutosh.

Handsome line of Christmas and New Year cards at Dinkins & Co's. All the railroads running through this country have paid their taxes.

Dr. W. M. Brockinton is paying highest cash prices for cotton seed. Auditor Davis commenced yesterday on his rounds to take tax returns.

Look for the auditor to call on you this week. He will tell you what day he will be at your place. Beautiful line of plush albums at Dinkins & Co's.

The political campaign this winter will open early, and a hot fight is looked for. The people, however, are not in a hurry to get into a fight.

Dr. W. M. Brockinton is paying highest cash prices for cotton seed. Auditor Davis commenced yesterday on his rounds to take tax returns.

The schools in Manning resumed work yesterday. Lagrippe is going the rounds of the community.

We want live correspondents in every section of the county. Send in the news. The Young Men's Building and Loan Association meeting will take place on the 11th inst.

Alliance man, Manning is a good place for a big Alliance rally. Let's have a rouser. Treasurer Bowman has already collected about $25,000. This is a good showing considering the hard times.

A nice assortment of pencils, stationery, and school supplies at W. M. Brockinton's. Congressman McLaurin will deliver an address next Saturday to the "John L. McLaurin Alliance" at Timonsville.

The Bank of Manning has purchased the corner lot known as the Blakey corner, and a brick building will soon be in the course of erection.

The time for paying taxes has been extended to February 1st. This extension will be a great relief to many poor people throughout the State.

If you want a bottle of fine perfume, call at Dinkins & Co's. The tax extension will be a great relief to the people. A whole month is given those who have not paid, to make the necessary arrangements.

Died, yesterday in Charleston, Mr. Stephen Thomas, Sr., aged 82 years, the father of Mr. Stephen Thomas, Jr., who is well known in this county.

A Pretty Marriage. Last Wednesday night Dr. S. W. Gamble and Miss Cynthia Oliver were married at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. G. G. Oliver, near Foreston. Rev. J. E. Dunlop officiated.

The following couples were in attendance: Mr. S. P. Oliver with Miss May Canney. Mr. Wm. Gamble with Miss Canney. Mr. W. C. Bagnal with Miss Bessie Oliver.

Dr. R. H. Cathcart with Miss Tora Bagnal. Mr. Julius Gamble with Miss Lizzie Oliver. Mr. A. J. White with Miss Kerhesser Higneman.

After the ceremony an elegant supper was served to the bridal party and the guests. The happy couple left next morning for Gouribus, their future home.

Dr. Gamble is a rising young physician of his county and Miss Oliver is one of Clarendon's fairest daughters. She has many friends and relatives in Manning, who unite in good wishes for the newly married pair.

Itch on human, mange on horses, dog and all stock, cured by Wood's Sarsaparilla. Woolford's Sanitary Lotion. This never fails. Sold by J. G. Dinkins & Co., druggists, Manning, S. C.

Packville Pointers. PACKVILLE, Jan. 1. Miss Clara Syphrett has returned to her home at this place after being absent for six months.

The young gallants of Packville this week enjoyed a tournament at this place last Thursday. H. B. Beatson won first honors and crowned Miss Annie White, of Smithville, queen of love and beauty.

C. L. Cutler, second honor, and Miss Fannie Beatson first maid of honor; and S. A. Harvin came in for third honors, selecting Miss Eva Curtis, second maid of honor.

Several parties have moved recently. Mr. Chas. Reynolds has moved into town, and so has Mr. Judson Bradham, of Manning.

Dr. Reynolds has moved to the mill place of Sumner Swamp, and Dr. Dargan Jones occupies the Doctor's house.

Miss Lela Geddings, of Pinewood, spent Christmas week with the family of Mr. E. S. G. Geddings.

Miss Marian Kruse is visiting the Misses Curtis. The ants want the water and ten acres of the moon for a "water patch."

At least, Nomet says, and feed. Mr. J. M. Bradham has just received information of his appointment to the postmastership at Packville.

How about a larger saw mill for town. Mr. Bradham is doing first-class work, and gives entire satisfaction as regards the quality, but the mill that is here now cannot supply the demand.

Mr. Bradham should move more of his machinery to this place, in order to supply the growing demand for lumber.

It is time for you to stop writing 1893. To-day is new years day. I was just ruminating, as Bill Arp says, on the past, present, and future—the past year, the present year, and the future of 1894.

A twelve-month ago I stood on the threshold of a new year, and promises and full of anticipations, but it has slipped silently away to return no more forever. What has been done is done for all time. A few years back I wrote like this.

New years morn'—bathed in floods of light, christened in diamond dew-drops, encircled by the roseate dawn, and set in zephyr rems of frozen beauty. I flung back the curtains of night, and came forth fresh in her virgin loveliness. Last night ere the sable car had rolled half round the heavens, the old year breathed her last, and 1893 with her joys and sorrows, pains, and pleasures, anticipations and disappointments, was numbered with the past.

We have gone forth into the darkness of the old year to find the stars, "scattered like grain on a threshing floor" still bright above us. We have stood on the summit of many a high hill of hope at whose base meandered a tiny stream, mirroring the golden heaven's glory, and reflecting batons of light hung in living flame, but we have had to descend into the vale there to find our hopes scattered and the sky black with cloud and night with lightning flash. But through the mist and the gloom, we could look beyond to a magic isle in a mystic sea and say "The Lord hath guided the Lord hath taken away, blessed be the name of the Lord." Then let's bury the old year with no sad requiems and, "Go forth to meet the shadowy future with a manly heart and without fear."

There has been several parties given in the community during the past week. Mr. G. H. Curtis is making preparation to build a brick store house, so as to be better insured against fire in the future.

Miss Ada Weldon has returned to her home at Smithville after spending a week with Mrs. G. M. Davis. We were glad to see Dr. Esterling on other streets the other day. Some of his friends are speaking of running him for congress next year.

Wishing the Times a happy new year, we will say good bye for this week. NOMET

Manning Dibensary Report. The Manning Dibensary makes a first-class report for the month ending December 31.

That Tired Feeling. The marked benefit which people overcome by That Tired Feeling, from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves that this medicine makes the weak strong. J. B. Emerson, a well-known merchant of Burn, Maine, says: "Aut five years ago I ran to suffer with severe pain in my stomach, and growing worse. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and was convinced that I was troubled with dyspepsia complicated with liver and kidney troubles. I improved at once and finally very much better and feel more like riding."

Hood's Sarsaparilla. Hood's Pills cure Bilious Constipation by restoring peristaltic action to the alimentary canal.
