

A Parting Word.

The field of journalism has been to me most pleasing and inviting and it is with the greatest reluctance that I leave it.

I have sold the paper to Mr. Louis Appelt, who for four years has been connected with the paper.

In this connection I desire to thank the people of Clarendon for their many kindnesses shown me.

Salutatory.

In assuming the editorial control and proprietorship of The Manning Times I do so realizing its full importance and grave responsibilities.

For some time past Mr. S. A. Nettles has been contemplating his retirement from newspaper work.

During the entire four years of my labors with Mr. Nettles not a ripple came in the way to mar our intimate business and social relations.

The Manning Times will continue a people's paper. Its columns will be used to encourage the building up of our town and county.

The Conservative press are trying hard to create the impression that their faction will sit on the fence this year and watch the Reform procession march by.

The Reform movement was inaugurated to stay, and not organized to simply elect certain men to office.

The Times stands squarely on the National and State Democratic platforms and will support no man that does not.

and I will do all that I can towards bringing about a more friendly condition of things. I propose to speak out plainly on all measures that I discuss.

Never before in my life have I felt so dependent as now. Friends, in this undertaking I need your encouragement.

President Cleveland is having a hard time with his appointees. Several of them have been rejected by the Senate.

We would be glad if our friends will speak out on the subject of a convention to suggest a State ticket.

Whenever a man is elected to office he should lay aside his personal feelings, and carry out his sworn duty.

Tariff reform is one of the planks in the national Democratic platform, but we see a number of Democrats opposed to the present bill before Congress.

Peculiar Fire at Pocksville. The incendiary is putting in his work again at Pocksville. This time an attempt was made to burn the post office.

Last Sunday night about midnight a fire was discovered in the office and those that got there first, were informed, say they saw the ashes of burning paper on the floor.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable.

The great civil struggle between the two sections—North and South—is the one that has most profoundly affected our country.

This kind of legislation cannot be made right. If the farmer is the producer of wealth, likewise he should have a voice as to the disposition of that wealth.

It is a fact that there are more consumers to-day than twenty years ago, and there is a greater need for materials, and the demand necessarily will call for better prices.

The farmer is coming to the front, he has caught the spirit of progress and has begun to organize his alliances, and when that organization is perfected there will be remedy for all these wrongs.

During the prevalence of the Grippe the past seasons it was a noticeable fact that those who depended upon Dr. King's New Discovery, not only had a speedy recovery, but escaped all of the complications after effects of the malady.

Free trial medicine. NERVINE. It is a fact that there are more consumers to-day than twenty years ago.

The "CALIGRAPH."

It is now thirteen years since the Caligraph Typewriter was first put upon the market and in all that time has responded faithfully to what is required of a first-class writing machine.

WILL LAST A DECADE,

if properly cared for. In speed contests it has repeatedly taken the first place and in telegraphic work has never been excelled. For manufacturing purposes it has no superior. With interchangeable parts the Caligraph is well nigh indestructible.
