The local management of the Alkhest Lyceum gave the people a delightful evening last Monday at the Moses Levi Memorial Institute hall, and in our opinion it excelled any of the humorous selections we have had. The entertainer was Mr. J. Williams Macy, who for about an hour and a half kept his hearers on a rollicking bench of mirth, when he was not wiping the salty tears from the corners of their eyes, or when not hypnotized by the sweet melody of Mr. Macy's songs. The program was made up of the piano, song and story, the humor being free from coarseness and throughout was recited with a dignified bearing. He tells his stories with the dramatic effect of an actor, and paints his word pictures in a comprehensive and his songs are delightful—a magnificent voice, with an expression at once to reach the soul. We regard his rendition of "O Jesus, Thou Art Standing," a vocalistic gem, and his rendition of "The Colored Cochin" a masterpiece of mimicry. His recital of "Uncle Eph's Heaven" and "The Ghost of an Old Continental" is as fine presentation of elocutionary art as we have ever seen, on or off the dramatic stage. The entire performance was good, and should Mr. Macy ever return to Manning a packed house will greet him. In the songs and in the recital of "Uncle Eph's Heaven" Miss Nettie Weinberg accompanied Mr. Macy with the piano. This added greatly to the pleasure of the evening. The management of the Lyceum has requested us to specially make for them public acknowledgment of their appreciation for the kind assistance given by Miss Weinberg.

Notice to Confederate Veterans.

We ought to come prepared to pay our dues, both national and State, and to set some plan on foot to help build a monument to our beloved Hampton.

Let all veterans come that day so we may arrange for a large crowd to go to Columbia at least.

A Demonstration of What Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Can Do.

"One of our customers, a highly respected citizen of this place, had been for ten years a sufferer from chronic diarrhoea," writes Walden & Martin, druggists, of Enterprise, Ala. "He had used various patent preparations and had been treated by physicians without any permanent benefit. A few months ago he commenced taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and in a short time was entirely cured. Many citizens of Enterprise who know the gentleman will testify to the truthfulness of this statement." For sale by The R. B. Loryea Drug Store, Isaac M. Loryea, Prop.

To Mansions in the Skies.

On Wednesday the 19th inst., a gloom was cast over our entire neighborhood by the death of little Mary Maud McElveen, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie M. McElveen of Spring Bank. She had been critically ill for nearly three months nothing was spared that medical skill and loving hands could do for her recovery but to no avail.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. James McDowell at Bethel Presbyterian church of which dear Maud for nearly a year was a member, on the afternoon of the 20th, amidst a sorrowing congregation. Maud was a lovely child just 12 years of age and was dearly loved by all who knew her at home and at school, loving, kind and gentle. Her loving form was placed in a beautiful casket and by her side two dolls which she cherished so much in her sickness. She has been taken from a loving family and they have the profound sympathy of the entire community.

"Alas! how changed that lovely flower, Which bloomed and cheered their hearts: How soon we're called to part!"

"And shall their bleeding hearts arrange What God whose wages are love? Or vainly cherish anxious pain For who may miss a loved one?"

"No! let them rather humbly pay Obedience to His will, And with their inmost spirit say: 'The Lord is righteous still.'"

"Her favoured soul He bore, And with you bright, angelic forms She lives to die no more."

"We are glad to hear that Mrs. Evans of New Zion who accidentally swallowed concentrated lye has fully recovered."

"The electrical lights in the upper part of town flickered last Sunday night, but the cause has been discovered and is now remedied."

"Cotton has taken another jump and it would not surprise us to see the staple go still higher, as the stock in the mills is very short."

"The people of Pinewood will soon begin the erection of a first class school building. The election for the special school tax levy will take place in a few weeks."
