THE INFLUENCE OF THE PRESS. It is hard for the press to be free. It is hard for the press to be impartial. It is hard for the press to be truthful. It is hard for the press to be honest. It is hard for the press to be just. It is hard for the press to be fair. It is hard for the press to be good. It is hard for the press to be great. It is hard for the press to be noble. It is hard for the press to be brave. It is hard for the press to be true. It is hard for the press to be brave. It is hard for the press to be true.

THE NEWSPAPERS WITH BUT VERY FEW EXCEPTIONS WERE ARRIVED AGAINST COLE L. BLEASE, NOT ONLY SO, BUT THERE WERE MEN GOING OVER THE STATE ATTEMPTING WITH THE FORKED TONGUE OF SLANDER TO BLACKEN THE MAN'S CHARACTER, THE SACREDNESS OF HIS PRIVATE AFFAIRS WERE DISREGARDED, THESE THINGS AND OTHERS HAD THEIR INFLUENCE UPON THE MASSES AND THEY PUT THEIR STAMP OF DISAPPROVAL UPON THE METHODS EMPLOYED BY THE OPPOSITION TO BLEASE. IT IS OUR OPINION THE PROHIBITIONISTS MADE A GRAVE MISTAKE WHEN THEY THROUGH THEIR LEADERS, GAVE OUT BETWEEN THE FIRST AND SECOND PRIMARIES THAT THE LIQUOR QUESTION WAS ELIMINATED, AND THE FIGHT HAD RESOLVED ITSELF TO A QUESTION OF MEN, THIS HAD THE EFFECT OF DRIVING FROM MR. FEATHERSTONE MANY WHO WERE SUPPORTING HIM ON THE PROHIBITION PLATFORM, AND IT CREATED A DISTRUST AMONG THOSE WHO FAVORED LOCAL OPTION; THE LOCAL OPTIONISTS COULD NOT SEE HOW IT WAS POSSIBLE FOR PROHIBITION FROM A MORAL STANDPOINT COULD DESERVE TO COMPROMISE A MORAL PRINCIPLE FOR VOTES FOR THE ELEVATION OF ANY MAN TO PUBLIC OFFICE, THE MASSES REGARDING THE ACTION OF THE PROHIBITIONISTS AS CONFIRMING THEIR BELIEF THAT THE PROHIBITION MOVEMENT IS NOT A MORAL ISSUE BUT A POLITICAL ONE WITH ITS LEADERS CLAMORING TO GET INTO OFFICE—HUNGERING AFTER THE FLESH POTS.

IT IS CLEARLY DEMONSTRATED THE NEWSPAPERS CAN ONLY BE A POTENT FORCE IN THE POLITICS IN THE STATE WHEN THEY CAN GIVE SUCH EDITORIAL EXPRESSIONS AS WILL APPEAL TO THE JUDGMENT OF THE PEOPLE; WHILE THE PRESS IS A MOULDER OF SENTIMENT, AND HAS A POWERFUL INFLUENCE, IT CAN ONLY EXERT THAT INFLUENCE WHEN IT IS JUST, AND RIGHT. THE PEOPLE ARE VERY DISCERNING, THEY GRASP A SITUATION QUICKLY, IT IS EASY FOR THEM TO SEE THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN AN HONEST EXPRESSION OF THE PRESS, AND AN EXPRESSION PROMPTED BY PERSONAL SPIES; IN THE RECENT ELECTION THERE IS NO DOUBT IN OUR MIND THAT MUCH OF THE OPPOSITION TO BLEASE WAS PROMPTED BY THE PERSONAL HATRED OF THE STATE'S EDITOR, HIS VIEWS WERE ACCEPTED AND FOLLOWED BY MANY OF THE WEEKLIES (WEEKLIES) THAT NEVER HAD AN ORIGINAL IDEA, BUT WHO ARE DEPENDENT ON THE STATE FOR AN EDITORIAL CUE. THE STATE IS THEIR PROMPTER, AND HENCE, THEY FOLLOWED IT MUCH LIKE FEE FOLLOW THE YELP OF THE LEAD HOUND IN A CHASE. WE REGARD THE LESSON TAUGHT THE NEWSPAPERS OF SOUTH CAROLINA ONE OF THE BEST AND MOST PROFITABLE THEY HAVE HAD IN MANY YEARS, AND PREDICT, IN THE FUTURE THERE WILL BE MORE JUSTICE, ACCURACY AND CONSERVATISM IN THE PRESS OF THIS STATE.

THE PEOPLE READ THE NEWSPAPERS, THEN THEY THINK FOR THEMSELVES HOW THEY SHALL ACT, THE DAY HAS GONE BY WHEN THEY REGARD EVERY EDITORIAL EXPRESSION AS AN INCONVERTIBLE FACT, THEY READ, AND THEY REASON, OFTEN REACHING THE SAME CONCLUSION AS THE EDITOR, BUT FREQUENTLY ARRIVING AT OPPOSITE CONCLUSIONS, THEREFORE, IT BEHOVES THE PRESS OF THE STATE TO BE FAIR, AND TO REMEMBER THAT ABUSE, AND MISREPRESENTATION IS NOT AN INFLUENCING FACTOR IN THIS DAY OF UNIVERSAL INTELLIGENCE. THE RECENT ELECTION HAS DEMONSTRATED CLEARLY TO OUR MIND THAT THE PROHIBITION CAUSE IS ON THE WANE, AND THE LEADERSHIP OF THAT CAUSE IS MOST RESPONSIBLE FOR IT. UNDER THE LAW AS IT IS NOW THAT CAUSE MADE WONDERFUL PROGRESS, THE PROHIBITIONISTS NOT SATISFIED WITH A GRADUAL ELIMINATION OF THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC, TO GO STEP BY STEP AS THE SENTIMENT JUSTIFIES EACH MOVE, BUT THEY GOT HUNGRY FOR OFFICE, AND DROPPED THE BOMB FOR THE SHADOW BY TRYING TO FORCE FROM THE PEOPLE THE PRINCIPLE OF LOCAL SELF GOVERNMENT, AND, IF THEY DO NOT HAVE A CARE, THEIR CONDUCT IN THIS LAST ELECTION WILL BRING ON THE SWING OF THE PENDULUM THE OTHER WAY, AND POSSIBLE THE OTHER EXTREME.

THE STATE DEMOCRATIC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE DECLARED THE NOMINATIONS LAST NIGHT, HEADING THE STATE TICKET WITH COLE L. BLEASE FOR GOVERNOR. LOW LET ALL WORK TO MAKE HIS ADMINISTRATION A SUCCESS.

THE COLUMBIA STATE IS NOW AFFLICTED WITH A BAD CASE OF BILLIONAISSM, AND UNLESS IT GETS ITS SYSTEM CLEANED UP SOON WE FEAR IT WILL POISON EVERYTHING IT COMES IN CONTACT WITH. THE EDITORIAL PARAGRAPHS WHICH HAVE BEEN APPEARING IN THAT NEWSPAPER SINCE THE ELECTION ARE VIOLENT, AND TO SAY THE LEAST OF THEM, IT LOOKS TOO MUCH LIKE THE CONDUCT OF A BOY WHO HAS BEEN THROTTLED FOR HIS MEANNESS, AND NOW GETS HIS SPITE BY MAKING UGLY FACES AND SAYING NASTY THINGS ABOUT THE FELLOW WHO GAVE HIM THE THROTTLE.

THE CHARLOTTE PEOPLE HAVE A RIGHT TO BOAST OF THEIR TOWN FOR THERE IS SOMETHING TO BOAST OF. IT IS A WELL KEPT CITY, ABOUNDING IN BEAUTIFUL HOMES, FINE BUSINESS HOUSES, AND A GENERAL AIR OF PROGRESS. THEY ARE SICK OF A FARSE. There is being circulated in Darlington a petition for an election to re-establish the county dispensary, there is a special Act which permits Darlington to have an election without waiting the four years. Whether the effort will succeed or not we do not know, but there is much certain, the illicit traffic in liquor must stop and there must be a greater curtailment in the consumption of liquor or the State will, in self-defense, be compelled to devise some plan by which liquor can be lawfully sold. The people are tired of the conditions that exist. It does not surprise us to see that Greenville has voted back the dispensary, and if it does Anderson, Spartanburg, and other up-country counties will follow, and then it will be general all over the State. So far as Clarendon is concerned there will be no special Act for an election at the coming or the session following, the voters of this county voted out the dispensary for four years and they must stand to the rack, then, when the four years has expired they can petition for an election but not until the people themselves vote in the sale of liquor will Clarendon have a legalized sale, at least, while it is being represented by the present Senator.

ALREADY THEY ARE LEGGING FOR THE minor positions to be filled by the general assembly. The clerkship for the House promises to be hotly contested for by the entry of J. Wilson Gibbs who will oppose James A. Hoyt for re-election. Mr. Hoyt is the editor of the Columbia Record and has served most acceptably the position of clerk of the House for one term, and we regard him so well qualified for this position that did the writer have a vote in that body he would gladly cast it for him. The effort on the part of Mr. Gibbs' friends to draw partisan lines on Mr. Hoyt, we hope will not succeed. What the House should want in such an important position is a man of intelligence and above all, the highest integrity, this characteristic James A. Hoyt possesses, and we sincerely hope he will be re-elected.

A WINTER COVER CROP. The farmer who does not try to get all he can out of his land annually and yet leave it in condition to yield more the following season has mistaken his vocation. One way to do this is to plant cowpeas in the corn at the time of the last cultivation, harvest the corn in September, and pasture the cowpeas in October. Early in November drop seeds and plant to rice, using about one bushel per acre. Our reasons for preferring rice are the following: 1. It is hungry. It will germinate and make a stand when other grains fail. Oats and barley will winter kill when rice will remain practically unimpaired by the frost. It stands tramping and grazing better than other grains. 2. It takes kindly to poor soils which is an important factor on most lands. Where heavy water will show the addition of a peck of cowpea seed to a bushel of rice is an improvement. Where there is no fall, wood in station, eye or eye and to be planted between the rows of cotton in October, and not later than the first of November. It is better to plant than to plant in planting but where farmers do not have this the seed may be sown by hand and cultivated or harrowed in the spring.

ON LABELS ADAPTED TO THE cotton cover sown in the corn at the last working has given excellent results. About 15 pounds to the acre is generally used, and by the first of the following April it furnishes a cutting of 1 1/2 to 2 tons of cured hay or turned under, adds a great body of manure to the soil. The territory in which the crimson clover thrives best appears to

IT IS OFTEN THE CASE WHEN A fellow realizes that he was the cause of another's destruction he becomes sour, surly and mean. The State contributed to the defeat of Col. Featherstone, and now it is trying to get relief from its punishing conscience by spitting out the most vicious and contemptible insinuations. That Cole L. Blease should have given undignified expression of his opinion of the editor of The State the night of the election is to be deplored but he had the greatest prosecution for the remarks he made, but now that the war is over, and Mr. Blease is the democracy's standard bearer, for The State to continue its nasty temper is indecent, and will only hurt that newspaper.
