NATURAL BORN HUNTERS.

Brazilian Natives Are Only Rivalled by Those of Australia.

If you want to find a thoroughbred sportsman you must look among the natives of the Brazilian forests. Especially among the Borocudo, to whom tracking game is the chief business of his life. He does it with such skill that he fills the white man with awe and wonder.

However enthusiastic a huntsman you are you will feel yourself a poor sportsman after watching him for a little while. The Borocudo hunter glides stealthily through the forest. He understands every sign and habit of bird and beast. He knows how high up an armadillo displaces the leaves of a tree in passing. He can distinguish the tracks of the snake and the tortoise. He can follow the tortoise to its burrow by the scratches of its scaly armor on the mud. His sense of smell is so keen that it helps him a great deal in hunting. Hidden behind the trunk of a tree he can imitate the cries of birds and beasts to bring them within range of his deadly poisoned arrow. He can even entice the alligator by making her rough eggs grate together where they lie under leaves on the river bank. If he shoots at an ape and the animal does not fall he will climb up after the animal by a hanging creeper where no white man would climb. However dark the forest, he is indifferent to this darkness. Laden with his bag of game he finds his way back to his hut by the sun and the lay of the ground.

His only rival is the Australian native. He will lie in wait behind a screen of boughs. He waits until the kangaroo comes to drink, or he will track him for days in the open. He will camp by his fire to be ready for his pursuit at early dawn. He keeps unseen to leeward.

When a number hunt together they will put up a brush fence in two long wings, converging toward a pit, and so drive the kangaroo into it. They also form great hunting parties for a bushland, and with shouts and clatter they drive all the game to the center, where they can close round and dispatch them with spears and waddies. In following they show the same adroitness. A native will swim under water, breathing through a reed. He merely covers his head with water weed till he gets among a flock of ducks, which one by one he pulls under and tucks into his belt. They rarely need to make use of dogs in hunting, though they had learned this way of hunting long before the white man knew anything about it. They used the dingoo or native dog.—Chicago Herald.

WOMEN WHO ARE ALWAYS TIRED

May Find Help in This Letter.

Swan Creek, Mich.—"I cannot speak too highly of your medicine. When through neglect or overwork I get run down and my appetite is poor and I have that weak, languid, always tired feeling, I get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it builds me up, gives me strength, and restores me to perfect health again. It is truly a great blessing to women, and I cannot speak too highly of it. I take pleasure in recommending it to others."—Mrs. ANNIE CAMERON, R.F.D., No. 1, Swan Creek, Michigan.

Another Sufferer Relieved.

Hebron, Me.—"Before taking your remedies I was all run down, discouraged and had female weakness. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used the Smatvie Wash, and find today that I am an entirely new woman, ready and willing to do my housework now, where before taking your medicine it was a dread. I try to impress upon the minds of all ailing women I meet the benefits they can derive from your medicines."—Mrs. CHARLES ROWE, Kennebago, Maine.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

A Faux Pas.

"You certainly put your foot in it when you told Mrs. Flurry that the fact you were arguing was as plain as the nose on her face."

"Why did I put my foot in it?"

"Because she is considered to have a pretty nose."—Baltimore American.

During the Argument.

"And you tell me that several men proposed marriage to you?" he said savagely.

"Yes; several," the wife replied.

"Well, I only wish you had married the first one who proposed."

"I did."—Yonkers Statesman.

Red Devil Lye EATS UP FILTH

Stop the Fly Route

FILTH MAKES FLIES, AND OUT-HOUSES ARE FLY FACTORIES

Make Your Out-House Sanitary

The odors arising from privies are sickening and unbearable, particularly in summer. They are also the breeding place for flies and other vermin. Flies carry disease germs direct from the privy to the baby's milk, the meat, the vegetables, pies and other foodstuffs. Typhoid fever is invariably transmitted from germs that originate in out-houses and such breeding places, and these germs are usually carried to the house and kitchen by flies that take an air route.

RED DEVIL LYE, plentifully sprinkled in privies every two or three days, will cut up the filth deposits, keep such places sanitary, and wipe out the pestiferous fly.

The cost is trifling, while the benefits can not be measured in dollars and cents.

Use Red Devil Lye for this important purpose, you will be amazed to find how it actually eats up the filth. Do it at once, and get rid of the filth, flies and odors.

Army Rations.

The average daily field ration of the United States army is made up as follows: Bacon, 12 ounces or fresh meat, 20 ounces; bread, 18 ounces; beans, 24 ounces; potatoes, 20 ounces; prunes or preserves, 1.28 ounces; coffee, 1.12 ounces; sugar, 3.2 ounces; evaporated milk, 3 ounces; vinegar, 16 gill salt, .64 ounce; pepper (black), .04 ounce; lard, .04 ounce; butter, .5 ounce. Of this ration just a portion is carried individually by the soldier; the rest, such as butter, lard, pepper, sirup, etc., are given in bulk to the companies and then distributed to the men at meal-time.—Argonaut.

Mock Marriages In India.

A third marriage is considered unlucky in certain parts of India. A fourth marriage is not. So when a man wishes to become a benefactor after two previous trials and still evade superstition, he evokes a very clever scheme. Mr. Man of India goes through a ceremony with a bird or animal or flower as the bride in order that his next wife will be the fourth and not the third venture.

When Turtles Were Big.

Of the turtles it may be said that they represent the most ancient type of all vertebrates, resembling closely as they do the reptiles of their kind which existed so far back as the mesozoic era. There were sea turtles during that epoch which measured twenty feet in spread of flippers, while some tertiary tortoises were not less big in body, measuring twelve feet from head to tail.

One View of Love.

"Do you think there is anything remarkable in love at first sight?" asked the romantic youth.

"Not at all," answered the cynic.

"It's when people have been looking at each other for four or five years that it becomes remarkable."—Pearson's Weekly.

A Popular Verdict.

Based on Evidence of Manning People.

Grateful thousands tell it—Of weak backs made strong—Of weak kidneys made well—Urinary disorders corrected. Manning people add their testimony. They praise Doan's Kidney Pills. Manning evidence is now complete. Manning testimony is confirmed. Reports of early relief substantiated. Merit doubly proved by test of time. Let a Manning citizen speak.

Mrs. H. P. Jenkinson, Church St., Manning, S. C., says: "I suffered from pains in my back. I used Doan's Kidney Pills as directed and they helped me wonderfully, regulating the action of my kidneys and relieving the misery in my back." (Statement given January 30th, 1911.) Over three years later Mrs. Jenkinson said: "I use Doan's Kidney Pills occasionally when my kidneys trouble me and they never fail to give me relief."
