MANNING S. C., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1920

The fellow who thinks the world owes him a living is generally too lazy to collect it.

Woman came into politics with a whoop, but let's hope she doesn't go out with a scream.

Of course dead men tell no tales. Live ones need no aid from the dead in this pleasing occupation.

When we mortals reach the jumping off point of life we immediately decide that it is not time to jump.

"F. O. B." now has a new significance. It is tacked onto invitations in high society and means "fetch your own booze."

Some men are so pure of mind and heart they can find nothing to talk about but the faults of others.

Newspaper dispatches tell us that "coal is in sight." But that's a devil of a long way from being in the furnace.

Many a man can see a wart on a neck in the pew ahead of him when he can't see the collection plate as it passes in front of him.

Soon, now, the pre-election agony will be over. But then, begosh, comes the rejoicing and the weeping. We just can't get from under.

"Lucky is the woman who can tell a lie when she hears it," says an exchange. But some don't wait to hear it, and neither do some men.

The last census was a difficult one to take. Most of the population was counted twice—at home, and then again at Los Angeles, Newport or Palm Beach.

It is better to be a year ahead of your time than a day behind. The fellow who lags behind seldom catches up, but the man in the lead can always drop back when advisable.

If this internal warfare over the merits and demerits of the league of nations doesn't subside soon we fear it will eclipse even the baseball scandal and the booze runner revelations. And that would be "some eclipse."

Not satisfied with grabbing off nearly all of the presidential nominees. Ohio now boasts a child that was born with an extra finger on each hand and an extra toe on each foot, all perfectly formed. And perhaps some day it, too, will be a presidential nominee—of the feminine persuasion.

A Chicago school teacher recently gave up his job and opened up a beauty shop. He remarked, in substance, that in these days the man who dispenses knowledge has nothing before him but the poor house, while wealth and fame awaits the fellow who can hang artificial beauty onto an ugly mug.

MR. WIDEMAN LIKED IT?
October 19, 1920.
Editor of The Manning Times,
Manning, S. C.
Dear Sir:
Several weeks ago the colored people of Manning, in their graded school auditorium, gave a cantata, the title of which was "Saul, King of Israel." I was among the white people present, so I have been requested to call to the attention of the white people of Manning the merits of the performance.
All of the characters were local with the exception of one man and I think all of those present will agree with me when I say that the manner in which this cantata was rendered was simply remarkable. For at least two hours the characters sang and acted their parts without the sign of a hitch or interruption. They certainly exhibited wonderful memories and besides this some of them had splendid voices.

The cantata was given in order to raise funds for repairing the school building, which is badly in need of repair and those of us who were present were so struck with the worthiness of the cause as well as the talent of the

WORN NERVES

Nervous troubles, with backache, dizzy spells, queer pains and irregular kidneys, give reason to suspect kidney weakness and to try the remedy that has helped your neighbors. Ask your neighbor.

Mrs. B. F. Louder, Dinken St., Manning, says: "I had a slight attack of kidney trouble about three years ago which started with smart pains through the small of my back. Headaches bothered me a good deal, and sometimes I was so nervous I couldn't hold anything in my hand. I was bothered with dizzy spells, too, and black specks often came before me, in fact, I was feeling all out of fix. A friend told me about Doan's Kidney Pills and I got some. Doan's not only helped me but cured me entirely of the trouble as I haven't been bothered since."

actors that in addition to contributing a small amount on the outside, advised that they repeat the performance.

So on Friday night, October 22, 1920, this cantata "Saul, King of Israel," will again be rendered in the graded school auditorium (colored). I understand that half of the auditorium will be set off to the white people and I wish to assure all of the lovers of music and acting that they will get their money's worth by attending.

Yours very truly,
J. W. Wideman.

HAVE GOOD CHEER

Whether sailing a chartered sea or unknown waters, the mariner keeps his eyes on the horizon. Somewhere below that dark blue line lies the harbor he must reach. It may be one he already knows or it may be a new unguessed port.

To the sailor on uncharted seas the harbor is as important as the horizon. The cry "land!" which first echoed over the water of America, did not solve the final difficulties of the intrepid explorers. For hours or days after sighting land, boats must skirt the rugged or sand-bound coast for a harbor, but always the harbor is found.

Rheumatism Comes From Tiny Pain Germs

First of all, get it firmly fixed in your mind that all the liniments in the world have no effect whatever on Rheumatism.
A very common form of Rheumatism is caused by millions of tiny disease germs which infect the blood. The one and only sensible treatment, therefore, is one which cleanses the blood of these germs, and routs them entirely out of the circulation.
This is why S.S.S., the greatest known blood purifier is so successful in the treatment of Rheumatism. It is a powerful cleanser of the blood, and will remove the disease germs that cause your Rheumatism, affording relief that is genuine.
S.S.S. is sold by all druggists. Free literature and medical advice can be had by writing to Chief Medical Advisor, 154 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

WEAK, NERVOUS

Mr. Enoch Moore, of Oconee, S. C., tells how Ziron helped him: "I was nervous, and my limbs seemed to ache as though I was scared—or some such feeling. I can hardly describe it. I would have weak "trembles." I was sallow, had a draggy, worn feeling; didn't rest well at night. I read of Ziron and thought if it had helped others it might do the same for me. I knew I could at least try it. I began using and very shortly I felt better, ate and slept more, and the weak, nervous feeling gradually left me. It was a tonic—a builder—I needed, and Ziron seemed to hit the spot.

If Mr. Moore had not benefited by the first bottle of Ziron he took, he could have gotten his money back, for Ziron is sold by reliable druggists everywhere on a money-back guarantee.
Insist upon Ziron Iron Tonic. When you need Ziron, there's nothing else as good, so refuse imitations and substitutes.
Ask your druggist for Ziron. Accept no substitutes. ZJ.3
