Mr. W. S. Floyd, who has been with Watkins & Moore the past two tobacco seasons left Tuesday for Henderson N. C., to accept a position with the J. P. Taylor Tob. Co., who represents the Japanese government.

Mr. P. B. Rogers of High Point is spending a few days in this section looking after his farming interests. Mr. Rogers, although long since past the allotted three-score-and-ten, is still enjoying excellent health and is full of life and vigor. Mr. Rogers attributes his excellent health to plenty of out-door exercise which, he says, is necessary to longevity.

Mr. J. M. Stevens, who lives on the State line, is the happy father of two healthy boys who arrived at his home yesterday.
As the state line runs through the Stevens home Dr. W. B. Smith, the family physician who was in attendance upon the mother, conceived the happy idea of naming one of the boys Ansel and the other Kitchen, the governors of North and South Carolina. Dr.
Smith has written each of the governors a letter notifying them of the happy circumstance.

Civic League Notes

The Civic League held a called meeting on Friday afternoon and there were twelve members present.
Some business of importance was transacted and much enthusiasm manifested, though the late hour of the meeting cut short the program.

The Treasurer, Mrs. D. M. Micheaux, reported that the funds are getting low and requested all members to pay their dues promptly, as the money is needed to carry out some of our plans.

The well committee, Mrs. A. J.
Evans, Mrs. E. T. Elliott and Mrs.
Claude Browne, then gave their report and with the money on hand it was decided to have the well bored near the station without further delay.

A report was also heard from the committee in charge of the work at the cemetery, Mrs. P. B.
Sellers and Mrs. L. C. Braddy.

Two other members, Mesdames Hattie David and W. T. Bethea were added to this committee to suggest plans for beautifying the cemetery, &c.

The next business of importance was the appointment of Mrs. Hen-slee Sec. pro tem to fill Mrs. Taber's place and she was also unanimously elected by the Civic League as regular correspondent to the State from Dillon.

The proposed Chrysanthemum show to be held in November was discussed and Misses Nina David and Annie Alford were appointed a committee to find out what material we have for the show before any definite plans are decided upon.

The next regular meeting will be held on the fourth Friday as usual, Oct. 22nd, and all members are urged to come with new ideas for civic improvement and greater enthusiasm for the work.

Myers-Johnson

Last Sunday at 6 o'clock P. M. the wedding Bells of old Marion rang out a merry refrain as Mr.
Charlie H. Myers of Dillon and the charming Miss Mollie Johnson of Marion approached the Baptist parsonage where the preacher was in waiting to make two happy hearts beat as one. The solemn ceremony was performed by Rev.
Rufus Ford, that made them man and wife. After receiving the pastor's kind benedictions the happy couple returned to the home of the bride's Mother, Mrs.
Thomas Johnson. They arrived in Dillon on the 9 P. M. train the same night where Mr. and Mrs.
Myers will make their future home.
The Herald extends best wishes.

A negro boy on Mr. Arch Mc-Callum's plantation near Hamer drank a quart of whiskey one night last week and died shortly afterwards. The whiskey it is alleged, was brought from a blind tiger somewhere in the community. The boy was not addicted to the liquor habit, but he drank too much of the stuff at one time and it paralyzed the action of the heart. He was found dead in a cotton seed house whither he had gone to sleep. He was a hard-working, industrious, boy.
