137 Bushels in Marlboro.

The reports of the results obtained by the several contestants participating in the State Cereal Growers' contest are beginning to reach the office of the department of agriculture, and the showing that is being made indicates that wonderful results have been obtained in the matter of intelligent corn-growing during this past year. The State commission in arranging its prizes provided for a prize for boys and permitted the boys participating in the State contest to also participate in Dr. Knapp's United States farm demonstration work contests for school boys with a free trip to Washington as one of the prizes. The first boys report to reach Commissioner Watson has delighted him beyond all measure, as it comes from a Marlboro lad residing in Brightsville Township, in Marlboro County, and shows a production of 152 1-2 bushels on one acre, which is far better than any result obtained by any grown up farmer in last year's State contest. The first prize then having gone to production of 137 3-8 bushels. Not alone is the total result one of value, but the report shows that the lad used seed that he obtained from the winner of last year's State contest. Furthermore the manual showing every step of cultivation, application of fertilizer, etc., has been kept in the most creditable manner and the boy obtained his result at a total expense of $55 and sold his crop including seed and fodder for $335, all of the seed being sold for seed purposes.

The boy's name is A. Bascom Usher. Commissioner Watson states that a bushel of this corn in the ear will be placed on exhibit at the State Fair in the field crops department.

It is interesting to note in this regard that the Drake world's record of 1889 on a single was 255 bushels, and the Tindal 1906 world's prize yield was 182, the second prize being won with 131 bushels. It is also interesting to note that the Tindal crop was raised at a total expense of $56 25, and his total receipts from the crop were $423.

LIFE INSURANCE THE SURE PROTECTION.

Occasionally one runs across a man who declines to protect those dependent upon him by insuring his life. He thinks insurance on his residence and other personal property is necessary—but insure his life, never! This illogical and unwise man proudly boasts of his health and strength and of his ability to care for his family under any and all circumstances. Apparently he is unmindful of the fact that so often death comes without warning and that even a hard earned competence may fade away in a night.

It is the insurance policy alone that endures: it is the only sure barrier against the encroachments of poverty and want. No man in moderate circumstances can afford to ignore this stern fact. Self-reliance is a fine thing in life, but it is not a tangible asset in the hour of death.

THE BEST IN LIFE INSURANCE.

The best life insurance policy is that one which gives the greatest amount of protection for the money expended. Any agent can figure out an estimate showing that his company PROMISES the most, but any intelligent person can see for himself that the policies of the Greensboro Life Insurance Company GUARANTEE MORE than the policies of the other company.
