COUNTY FAIR MEETING.

On Monday afternoon the stockholders of the Dillon County Fair Association held a meeting at the Courthouse and elected officers to take charge of and run the fair for this year. A large number was present and a splendid spirit of enthusiasm was manifested by all present and if the people of the County will give their moral support and assist the officers elected, Dillon County will have a fair this fall second to none in the state.

The Fair will be held on the 19th, 20th and 21st of October, the week preceding the Columbia Fair. A contract has already been made with the Grouse Greater Shows, one of the leading carnivals, and Dillon was fortunate in getting the same contract that the State Fair has with this company. There will be races each day during the fair and either Friday or Saturday will be turned over to the colored people.

RACING NEWS.

During the past week horses have been working well at the track here, and from reports received from the other three tracks in the county the horses at these tracks have likewise been working satisfactorily and some fast work-outs have been shown. Great enthusiasm prevails among the owners and their friends, and all the racing fans will be here on Thursday the 27th. There is no question about having horses here to fill the races. The only fear we have is that they will be too crowded, each race will undoubtedly have seven or more entries in it.

The management expects to turn off these races fast and only ten minutes will be allowed between each heat and the spectators will not be required to suffer the delay which has prevailed at our races in the past. If the horse is not out in ten minutes after the last heat closes the race will be started without such horse going.

Another feature that will cause great interest in these races is that practically all of the horses will be driven by their owners. The flag will be up and there will be no laying up or jockeying. As we have no professional trainers here the public will be given an opportunity to see some high class amateur racing, which after all is the most interesting. It is the purpose of the management to have good clean sport free from petty bickering. A good sport is a good loser, and as all cannot win you will see some good sports here on the 27th. Let everybody be on hand at two o'clock as the races will start at that time.

Warehouse Company Wants Site.

Very truly,
L. Cottingham,
Sec.-Treas.

The public is invited to attend the closing exercises of the Kemper school on Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock, May 6.

PROMINENT WILLIAMS. BURG CITIZEN DIES

Senator Hugh McCutcheon Passes After Lingering Illness.

Senator Hugh McCutcheon, one of leading citizens of Eastern Carolina, who died at Kingstree Friday, was a brother of Mrs. L. Cottingham of Dillon and has visited in Dillon many times. In writing of his death the Kingstree correspondent of The State says:

"Hugh McCutcheon died at his home in Kingstree this morning at 5 o'clock after an illness of three months. In his death Williamsburg county loses one of its best and most universally beloved and respected citizens. He possessed a genial and social disposition making him a general favorite with old and young and his noble Christian character won for him a high place in the estimation of his fellow men.

"Mr. McCutcheon was born in the old Indian town section of Williamsburg county on December 11, 1859, and was the son of Col. and Mrs. James McCutcheon, the latter of whom was prior to her marriage Miss Mary Jane Gilland. In 1886 he was married at the Indian town Presbyterian church to Miss Louisa Dobbins of Clinton, N. C. He succeeded his father as superintendent of the Indian town Sunday school, and at the time of his death was an elder in the Indian town Presbyterian church, which honor he held for 35 years.

For about 15 years after his marriage Mr. McCutcheon made his home on his plantation in the Indian town neighborhood, until he moved to Kingstree 20 years ago. He continued his farming operations and always took a keen interest in the agricultural enterprises of his county.

At the time of his death he was state senator for Williamsburg county and was president of the following local concerns: Wee Nee bank, Williamsburg Live Stock company, Farmers' Supply company, Fidelity Development and Ginnyery company.

Besides his widow, he is survived by the following brothers and sisters: J. G. McCutcheon and Thomas McCutcheon, Kingstree; Mrs. J. P. Russell, Lumberton, N. C.; Mrs. J. F. Cooper, Fowler; Mrs. L. Cottingham, Dillon; D. E. McCutcheon, Indian town; Prof. George McCutcheon, University of South Carolina, and Dr. W. L. McCutcheon, Sumter.

PERFECT HARMONY PREVAILED AT COUNTY CONVENTION

Democrats Meet, Elect Officers and Delegates and Quietly Adjourn.

Perfect harmony prevailed at the County Democratic Convention Monday. It was almost a love feast. Not that conventions in the past have been the opposite, but heretofore there has been some little 'pep' out into the proceedings by the introduction of some kind of resolution on which sentiment was divided, or some question has come up which brought delegates to their feet in a lively battle of words. But there was nothing of the kind at Monday's meeting. Several resolutions were passed without a dissenting vote and the only election in which there was a contest—in the selection of the delegates to the state convention—was rather a tame affair in which no one seemed to be particularly interested. One delegate who has attended many county conventions said you could not attribute this apparent lack of interest to indifference. He said the people so busy they did not have time to let their minds dwell on matters political like in the days of old when the average man didn't have much to do except talk politics. Wait until times get normal again, continued this gentleman, and a pretty hot contest comes on for some important office and then you'll see the people get interested.

The Convention was opened with prayer by Rev. W. C. Allen, and A. B. Jordan was elected temporary secretary with A. P. Bethea as temporary secretary. The temporary organization was made permanent.

A. B. Jordan was reelected County Chairman and A. P. Bethea was reelected Secretary and Treasurer.

The following delegates were elected to the state convention: P. L. Bethea, J. H. Manning, J. W. Hamer, E. R. Ellerbe, J. H. David and C. L. Wheeler. Alternates: H. McRae, E. R. Hamer, E. L. Moore, A. V. Bethea, L. M. Rogers and L. Cottingham.

T. W. Berry was reelected state executive committee by acclamation.

J. B. Gibson offered a resolution endorsing the administration, the peace treaty and the league of nations which was unanimously adopted.

Dr. J. H. David was unanimously endorsed as a delegate to the national convention from this district.

The Convention adjourned and those present heard a splendid talk by Col. Monroe Johnson of Marion in behalf of the Memorial Campaign for Dillon county.

THE WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS.

Mrs. J. Monroe Rogers was hostess to the Woman's Club on Monday afternoon.

The members and a large number of guests assembled at four o'clock, and were greeted by the hostess, who conducted them to a beautifully appointed punch table in the hall, where they were served by Misses Effie Ramsey and Beatrice Rogers. A number of hands of progressive rook were played, and then Mrs. Rogers assisted by Mesdames Pierce Rogers and Jas. Rowland served delicious block cream and cake, in a color scheme of pink and white, which was also the colors used in the vases of carnations and roses which effectively adorned the rooms.

KILLS MANY WIVES.

The modern bluebeard J. B. Watson, of Los Angeles, Calif., whose own admission of horrible crimes make the bluebeard of story books a tame and anemic person, will spend the rest of his life, apparently, in San Quentin prison to atone for the murder of four of his wives, at least.

He confessed to District Attorney Thomas Lee Woolwine, on condition that the death penalty not be asked. William H. Doran, deputy district attorney, today announced that when Watson, alias Harvey, pleads guilty here to the murder of Nina Doloney the prosecutor's office will ask for life imprisonment. Perhaps the reason for his move is the belief of all officials here that were the case to come to trial an insanity plea might prove effective.

While confession, covering sixty typewritten pages, was being transcribed today, Mr. Woolwine, with a number of deputy sheriffs and newspapermen were on way to Borneo Valley where they hoped to discover the buried body of the Doloney woman. They were following instructions given by the bigamist.

In his confession Watson told of an insatiable desire constantly to marry women and then make away with them. He said he had always felt relieved when he had killed a wife, five of whom he remembers having killed, and believed that he had done his duty.

In answer to a direct question he said that he had never had a desire to kill a man, but could not resist the "urge" to marry and make away with women of all descriptions and strata of life.

Watson made two attempts to kill himself when arrested in San Diego some weeks ago, apparently realizing that his game was up. If the district attorney's party does not find the body of the Doloney woman tomorrow Mr. Woolwine will wait until the "bluebeard" has recovered sufficiently to make the valley trip himself, when he will be taken to his private grave yard and made to show the location of the body.

WAREHOUSE CO. ORGANIZES

Elects Officers and Arranges for the Erection of Building.

On Saturday morning, the subscribers to the stock of the Dillon County Warehouse and Marketing Corporation held a meeting at the courthouse and paid in 20 per cent. of the amounts subscribed. The capital stock of the company is $50,000 and the shares are of the par value of $100 each. The stock is scattered over the county and in no case does any one person own over 10 shares. A board of directors was elected at this meeting as follows: W. W. Evans, T. L. Manning, R. S. Rogers, J. R. Regan, W. H. Smith, H. W. Rogers, M. V. Bethea, Dr. J. H. David, and L. Cottingham. The board of Directors met this morning for the purpose of organizing and getting things going. The following officers were elected: T. L. Manning, president; Dr. J. H. David, V-Pres.; L. Cottingham, Secretary-Treasurer.

The corporation is organized for the purpose of storing, grading and selling cotton and other farm products. Its chief attention at the present time will be upon cotton. A grader and stapler will be employed and sales of cotton will be negotiated through the warehouse. A provision is made by which all the warehouses of the county may be member warehouses and receive the service of the system.

A warehouse will now be built as quickly as possible with at least a 10,000 bale capacity and it will be equipped with all modern warehouse facilities for handling cotton. The marketing feature will be studied out and developed along the lines best suited to obtaining the highest possible price for their cotton.

B. L. Stanton Candidate for Auditor.

It affords the boyhood friends of Baldy L. Stanton much pleasure to note the esteem in which he is held in his adopted home. He was raised in the Little Rock community. His friends remember him as a zealous youth and as one to be reckoned with in mathematics and spelling. That he now aspires to the office of Auditor in his adopted county, Marlboro, is no surprise. For several years he was clerk of the county board of commissioners. He is at present Secretary of the Marlboro Fair Association, and treasurer of the Knights of Pythias and actively engaged as deputy clerk of Court. He has numerous friends in Dillon county who will be glad to hear of his election to this office.

"Ghost Beckons" - Whole Town Runs.

Lima, May 3.—The "Guardsmen's Ghost" is lying low and chuckling gleefully at the fuss it has stirred up here.

Spiritualists from Lima and many other Ohio towns are here to speak to the "spook." The Ohio National Guard is greatly riled up over the seeming cowardice of some members of the local company who were completely routed in their encounter with the uncanny spirit.

"Heard Groans." The muss started when V. K. Fries and his family were compelled to occupy a house at Pine and Albert sts or stay in the street all night, because of the house shortage here.

The family declare they heard groans and saw the form of a woman at the head of the stairs beckoning. They requested protection the next night. Several members of the local O. N. G. company volunteered. This is the story one tells:

"A truckload of us went out to the place and all went well until 11 o'clock. Then we heard groans. The men began to worry and to whisper among themselves. We stood the groans till midnight, though, and then—

"We all were standing near the rear of the house when, at the witching hour of 12 a woman's form appeared at an upper window and beckoned us. Three of the men, Captain Ward, Lieutenant Snyder and Lawrence Bresler, fell as if struck down.

"At that, some one let out a yell and we all fled. Fries and his wife and two babies beat it, too. It's no kidding matter when you meet face to face with such things."

Cops on the Job.

Police are taking precautions each night to prevent recurrence of the demonstration when a crowd estimated at 1000 men, women and children engaged in a pitched battle with patrolmen in front of the ghost's abode.

The throng wanted to enter the house and see whether there was a ghost. Police refused. Nightsticks were used freely, and a number of persons were hit by flying bricks. So were most of the windows in the house.

A number of spiritualists from this city and surrounding towns are here trying to talk to the spirit or ghost. So far they wily witch has eluded them. Police are investigating the whole affair.

The house has had the reputation of being haunted. A skeleton is said to have been found in the house years ago. Families have not lived in it for any length of time for years.

Harold Letcher of New York spent the week-end with friends here.

Miss Sarah Barlow spent the week-end in Bennettsville.

WHITE MAN RUNS AMUCK

Will Freeman Seriously Injures Negro and Then Attacks White Man.

Will Freeman, a white man who formerly lived at Dillon, while crazed from drinking moonshine whiskey, struck a negro with a jug at Smithboro station Sunday afternoon, inflicting injuries which may prove fatal. Freeman who lives near Smithboro came to the station in an intoxicated condition. He made the attack upon the negro without warning striking the negro on the head with the jug and felling him like an ox. Mr. Luke Covington, who works with the Dillon Motor Sales Co., was at the station waiting on a train that was to take him to Mullins. When the negro was struck down he went up and asked what was the trouble. Freeman turned on Mr. Covington and made a vicious pass at him with the partly broken jug. The blow landed on Mr. Covington's ear and inflicted painful injuries. Mr. Willie Anderson, of the Rogers Motor Co., was with Mr. Covington and he grabbed Freeman and began choking him. The two men fell to the ground, then struggled to their feet. Freeman made another rush at Mr. Anderson but Mr. Anderson stopped the onrush with a well-directed blow with his fist which caught Freeman in the eye and knocked him down. Freeman arose, pulled himself together and went off down the railroad track. Sheriff Lane arrived on the scene shortly afterward and arrested Freeman who is in jail awaiting a hearing on the charge of assault and battery of a high and aggravated nature. The negro's skull is fractured and his condition is serious.
