The campaign for the Y. M. C. A. War Fund was launched Monday night in the school auditorium where about fifty interested men assembled and were addressed by Dr. Roy Z. Thomas, Dr. J. B. Johnson, and W. L. Hughes, of Rock Hill, the latter secretary of the Rock Hill Y. M. C. A. Committees were appointed to solicit subscriptions to the fund which will be concluded during the present week. At the meeting voluntary subscriptions to the amount of about $150 were pledged and it is felt that the quota asked for in this township will be subscribed during the week.

In the absence of the hostess, Mrs. Murray Mack, who was to entertain the members of Kanawha chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, at their November meeting, the meeting was held in the Red Cross work room, when the interesting programme in the year book was carried out. Much of the discussion of the afternoon was devoted to the Thanksgiving season and much entertainment was found in the references to notable Thanksgiving days of the past. Miss Susie White read an interesting paper on food production and conservation in France. The chapter has invested a part of its capital in Liberty Bonds. It was resolved that until further decision was made the meetings of the chapter will be held in the Red Cross work room, the management of each meeting to be in the charge of the hostesses as they appear in the year book.

On December 1, 1858, she was married in Gastonia county to John L. Watson and afterward resided in Ebenezer in this county for a number of years. After the death of her husband she removed to Fort Mill, where she has since resided.

Mrs. Watson is survived by the following children: Miss Anna Watson, Mrs. David Trainer, Dr. S. P. Watson and J. Lyken Watson, all of New York City, and W. A. Watson, of Charlotte. Beard Convicted.

W. P. Beard, formerly editor of The Scimitar, published at Abbeville until suppressed by the United States government, was found guilty on two counts Friday by a jury in the United States district court in Greenwood. The first count charged him with intent to interfere with military and naval forces and the second with attempting to cause mutiny and disloyalty.

There is a magical charm in the story of the fairy tale. Ah, here it is! "Cinderella and the Magic Slipper!" Here is the sweetest heroine of them all—the little cinder-witch—abused by her proud step-sisters, ignored by her proud step-mother, and changed in a twinkling by her fairy god-mother, into the most beautiful princess in the land! No wonder the prince fell in love with her—no wonder the step-sisters fell on their knees and begged her forgiveness, when, by the aid of the "magic slipper," she was changed before their very eyes from the household drudge to the "blushing bride."
