Our farmers had made more syrup than ever before it is made. Syrup barrels are at a premium. —Coffee 8 cents pound at Huggins's. —THE HERALD is now one of the very best papers published in the low country. That is what an intelligent and appreciative subscriber said to us a few days ago. —Pine cigars at Huggins's. —Light frosts are reported, which have painted the foliage of the trees those vividly royal colors of gold and scarlet which make fall landscapes so bewilderingly beautiful. —Calico 4c. per yard at S. S. Karesh. —Among the visitors in town Monday from Denmark we noticed Hon. S. F. Mayfield, Mr. L. Rice, Master E. LaFitte, B. C. Hardwick, Esq., and Mr. I. G. Jennings. —Do you need a nice album? Go to Brooker's. —Mr. M. B. Varn is not a candidate for Magistrate. He only mentioned the matter in the way of a joke, and that is how it became reported that he was an applicant for the position. —Pickles, saucers, catsup, olives, &c., at Huggins's. Some bargains in large bottles. —The interesting twelve-year-old daughter of Mr. R. B. Steedly, of Hartzog, died at that place Tuesday, November 1. She was a member of Hunter's Church, and a faithful church attendant. —Wedding and birthday presents, a magnificent assortment, at Brooker's. —Mr. M. O. Kinard, of Folk's Store, is another honor roll man. His paid-up subscription will not expire until December 15, 1899, but he came in last Monday and paid up to December 15, 1900, remarking at the time that it was a pleasure to pay for an article that gave him so much satisfaction as THE HERALD. —WANTED—First-class beef cattle on hoof. Will pay best prices. —J. A. VERNON. —Rev. T. C. O'Dell, pastor of the Methodist church, is busy looking after the collections ordered by the conference, and reports encouraging success so far. Let all the members do their duty by these claims, and rejoice together over a full report, at the meeting next Monday which meets in Orangeburg, December 6. —Another lot of fine plush capes just received at S. S. Karesh. —We would repeat that the rapidly increasing interest in the Sunday-school and the large congregations that attend the Methodist church, call loudly for a modern and handsome church building with apartments for classes, etc. Nothing speaks more forcibly of the enterprise of a town and renders it more desirable as a home than good churches and schools. —Beautiful albums and toilet cases, all prices, at Brooker's. —At the regular drill last Thursday night the Bamberg Guards were photographed by "Dowling, the Baby Taker," of Charleston, and it is said, a fine picture was obtained. Interest in the Guards, contrary to the prediction of many, did not die out after the murder of the "Baby Taker," but is turning out for drills, and it will be larger when the State uniforms the balance of the men and furnishes the command with guns. —A full line of skirts, worsteds and silks, just received at S. S. Karesh. —New subscribers continue to roll in these days. We are greatly surprised in the matter of new subscribers to THE HERALD, getting a great many more than we thought for. They are all accompanied by the cash, too. Now, if those owing us would pay up as well, we would have no reason to complain. A great many have paid, however, and to them we extend our thanks. We want those who are now owing to come up at once. —When you need anything on wheels, go to G. Frank Bamberg. He has the largest and best assorted stock, and can please you. —M. A. E. H. Simmons was a paid-up-advance subscriber when we took charge of THE HERALD, and his date was November 1st, 1899. On November 24, 1899, he walked into our office and handed us a dollar for another year's subscription in advance. He always pays up a year in advance. If every subscriber would do like this we could make THE HERALD the best paper in the State. Mr. Simmons shows the kind of appreciation we like to see.

Soda 4 cents at Huggins's. Court this week in the mother county of Bamwell. Lots of our people are attending the State Fair in Columbia this week. Mr. T. H. Jackson and family have moved back to town from Ehrhardt. Large Florida oranges, 30c. per dozen, at M. Moye's, next to A. A. Spann's. THE HERALD is the biggest and best paper published in Bamberg county, and it costs one dollar per year in advance. 5 bars soap ten cents at Huggins's. R. Pearlstone & Sons, of Branchville, will have a full page advertisement in THE HERALD next week. Look out for it. Attention is directed to the ad. of store for rent by Mr. S. W. Johnson. The store is situated under his hotel, and is a fine business stand. Deputy Sheriff J. F. Hunter went to Columbia Tuesday to carry April Dowling, a crazy negro, to the asylum. He returned Wednesday. D. Dowling, Bamberg, S. C., having overstocked in solid gold and 90-cent silver watches (Elgin and Waltham), will sell them at rare bargains from now until November 20th. Come and see. Among the visitors to the State Fair yesterday were General and Mrs. F. M. Bamberg, Miss Lilia Bamberg, Major Havelock Eaves, Master Machinist Sam B. Rice, Miss Alice Jennings, Mr. George A. Jennings, Mr. Cliff Johnson, Mr. Clyde O'Neal, Miss Lillian Bellinger, and Mrs. Jno. R. Bellinger. Fresh mackerel at Huggins's. Attorney B. W. Miley went to Barnwell Monday and made application before Judge Townsend for bail for Henry Crum and Henry Hartzog, unless same who are charged with the murder of Cornelius Wroton near Denmark a short time ago. Judge Townsend granted bail for Crum in the sum of $1,000, and Hartzog's bond was made $500. WANTED—Ten good families to work in cotton mill. None but those of good character need apply. —BAMBERG COTTON MILL. The passenger trains over the South Carolina division of the Southern, no longer stop at the old South Carolina yards, in Augusta, going in or coming out of the city, to let off or take on passengers, as has been the custom so long. Those who cannot step from the train as it passes through the city, will have to go through to the Union depot in the western part of the city. Bear this in mind when you go to Augusta. If you would not jostle the curls of your sweet hair, get a New South buggy from G. Frank Bamberg; one of those ideal springs. —The Cotton Market. Cotton is selling at 7 1/2 cents to-day in Bamberg. Receipts of the week, 250 bales. —New Advertisements. —J. A. SPANN. Attention is called to his ad., fixing the date of another cut-rate special sale. Mr. Spann appreciates the benefits to be derived from advertising in THE HERALD, and he has good goods at low prices. Note his prices for work. —DECANIA DOWLING. He is one of the most progressive of our business men, and his ad. in to-day's paper enumerates some of the rare bargains to be had at his cozy little store. Christmas is near, and you should examine his superb stock before selecting your gifts. When you say you saw his ad. in THE HERALD. —G. FRANK BAMBERG. Read Bamberg's new advertisement, and when in need of anything in his line, give him a call. He guarantees everything he sells, and you get your money back if you want it. —B. W. MILEY, Probate Judge.—Citation notice of estate of W. H. Carter. —T. J. Counts, Master—Master's Sale. Fincken, Jordan & Co.—Mortgagee's sale. —New Methodist Church Organized. Rev. T. C. O'Dell preached to a good congregation in the graded school building on Sunday afternoon, and at the close of the services called for a fising vote by all present who desired a church for the benefit of those living on the west side of town, whereupon almost the entire congregation arose, and thus expressed their wish for it. A neat chapel somewhere in the neighborhood of the graded school would furnish a convenient place of worship for the operatives in the cotton mill, and people living in that locality, and would no doubt be a great benefit to the mill, as people desire a convenient place of worship wherever they may be. We hope to see this much needed enterprise carried to completion, and if every one will lend a helping hand, it may be done without much strain on any. —Messrs. Sam B. Rice and C. R. Day, of the cotton mill, were added to the committee recently appointed by the quarterly conference to look after this matter, and no doubt a neat little church will soon be the result of their efforts. —Salesday. A good crowd was in town last Monday, and we were gratified at the number who called in and squared up with THE HERALD. There was no drunkenness, and the day was a quiet one. —There were no sales by the Clerk or Sheriff. The property advertised in the Youman vs. Bennett case was not sold on account of a restraining order by Judge Popa. It is possible that the case will be heard in the Supreme Court after all. —The Master sold two pieces of property, the first being 257 acres near the town of Denmark in the case of F. M. Bamberg vs. J. C. Tant and others. It was bought by Mr. H. C. Folk for $3,890. The bidding was lively, and all conceded that the land brought a good price. —The other tract was fifty acres, in the case of Augusta Kirkland vs. W. W. Hutto, bid in by H. P. Rice, Esq., for plaintiff's attorney, for fifty dollars. —Then She Called the Dog. Miss Surface (to tramp)—Did you ever have a romance in your life? —Tramp—Yes, mum; I had a sweet heart outed that looked like you. —Miss Surface (setting out another piece of pie)—And did she die? —Tramp—No, mum. Me fadder wanted me to marry her, so I runned away from home.—Baltimore American.

Praise from Sir Rupert. In an editorial advocating the erection of a spinning mill to work up into yarn our famous long staple cotton, which would increase the value of that product, if every pound grown was thus utilized, from $600,000 to $12,000,000 yearly, the Charleston News and Courier of November 2 pays the following high compliment to President W. G. Smith, and the high grade of goods made in the Bamberg Cotton Mill: "We may note, finally, that there was placed on public exhibition in this office two or three years ago a pair of as fine and beautiful 'lace curtains' as are usually seen for sale in our stores, which were woven in one of the Northern mills, and the thread of which was spun in the little mill at Bamberg, under the direction of its manager, Mr. W. G. Smith, who was trained in another South Carolina mill at Spartanburg. He is doubtless still engaged in making such 'yarns' and can doubtless still exhibit the very fine fabrics made from them to all who desire to see them. If our white labor suffices, with proper direction and machinery, for spinning such yarn from short staple cotton it ought to suffice, under like conditions, for like work with long staple cotton." —Arbor Day. The third Friday in November of each year has been designated by the legislature of South Carolina as Arbor Day, and County Superintendent Sease has received the following communication from State Superintendent McMahon, who is endeavoring to have a general observance of the day: "The legislature, by an act approved February 16, 1898, has directed 'that the free public schools of this State shall observe the third Friday in November of each year as Arbor Day, and on that day the school officers and teachers shall conduct such exercises and engage in the planting of such shrubs, plants, and trees as will impress on the minds of the pupils the proper value and appreciation to be placed on flowers, ornamental shrubbery, and shade trees.' "Until the observance of this day in our schools has become an established custom, it may be overlooked, unless specially brought to the attention of the teachers. You will, therefore, urge upon all the teachers of your county to celebrate the day in their schools. —Our New Press. This is probably the last issue of THE HERALD that will be printed on the detestable "Prouty Press," which caused so much trouble to the Devil, the Printer, and the Boss, in that newspaperial serial, "The Passing of the Quarto Herald." We have worn out our remaining stock of patience on this old bunch of scrap iron, or will have done so when the last sheet of this issue is printed, and we have purchased a sure-enough printing machine, of the reliable make of O. B. Cottrell & Son. We believe it will do good work and enable us to greatly improve the typographical appearance of our paper. This press is here and will be set up immediately, while the doubly-d-d-able Prouty will be cast into outer darkness. We shall at the same time install our electric plant, and all of our presses will be run by the suble fluid which slid down the string of old Ben Franklin's kite. All these improvements, which are as much for the benefit of our readers as our own, cost money, and the outlay has made us short. Those that are owing us can help in this emergency—every dollar will count. Come in and pay up, keep paid up, and we'll continue to improve your paper until it is the best weekly in South Carolina. —Real Estate Transfers. The following are the transfers of real estate for Bamberg county for the month of October: —Susanna Morris to Ervanah Chitty, one lot in Buford's Bridge township, for $35. —A. F. Warren to T. D. J. D. LaFitte, one lot in town of Denmark, for $100. —Guards at the Fair. About one-half of the members of the Bamberg Guards went up to Columbia yesterday to take in the State Fair, commanded by Second Lieutenant D. Dowling. A portion of the command left on the morning train and the balance went up in the afternoon. They will return to night. —Chief Price Married. Mr. L. C. Price and Miss Florine Dickinson, daughter of County Treasurer Joseph Dickinson, were quietly married at the home of the bride Monday evening at half past eight, the Rev. W. D. Rice, D. D., officiating. The groom is Bamberg's efficient chief of police, which position he has held for several years, to the terror of evil doers and the betterment of the morals of the town. The "chief" is a very modest man, and not given to blowing his own horn. This, then, is a good opportunity to commend him for the excellent work he has done upon our city's streets since they have been under his charge, and for the very able manner in which he has discharged his sometimes disagreeable and at all times onerous police duties. —The bride is one of our brightest and most charming young ladies, and her host of friends will join THE HERALD in wishing her and "hers" long life and unbounded felicity. For the present Mr. and Mrs. Price will make their home with Mr. Joseph Dickinson. —A Gift. of beauty is a joy forever to give and receiver. Why throw your money away on cheap, trashy stuff? The statement has been made in the daily papers that Bamberg county is to receive from the dispensary fund the sum of $302.60, which amount makes up the deficiency of $3 per capita for school children. The State of Tuesday is authority for the statement that checks had been sent to twenty-nine counties receiving a portion of this fund, but Treasurer Dickinson has not yet received the check for this county, nor is he in possession of any authentic information that such a check has been sent. Monday night County Superintendent Sease did send a circular letter asking him to send the total enrollment of school children in the county, so that some dispensary money at the disposal of the Comptroller General might be disbursed on the basis of this enrollment. That's the story in a nutshell. —Spain's Greatest Need. Mr. R. P. Olivia of Barcelona, Spain, spends his winters at Aikn, S. C. Weak nerves had caused severe pains in the back of his head. On using Electric Bitters, America's greatest Blood and Nerve Remedy, all pain soon left him. He says this great remedy is what his country needs. All America knows that it cures liver and kidney trouble, purifies the blood, tones up the stomach, strengthens the nerves, puts vim, vigor and new life into every muscle, nerve and organ of the body. If weak, tired or ailing you need it. Every bottle guaranteed, only 50 cents. Sold by Thos Black and Bamberg Pharmacy. —Brilliant Church Wedding. There was a brilliant wedding celebrated in the Denmark Baptist Church, last Tuesday, at 3 o'clock p. m., the contracting parties being Miss Ida May Guess, daughter of Mr. Joseph Guess, and Rev. Wm. Haynsworth, formerly pastor of the church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Thomas H. Edwards, of Williston, the wedding march—Mendelssohn's—being played by Miss May Sally, of Sally. The church was crowded by friends and relatives of the bride and groom, the ushers being Messrs. Edgar Haynsworth, F. V. James, and C. E. Tyler. State Superintendent of Education J. J. McMahon, a cousin of the groom, was the best man, the bride of honor being Miss Carrie Pringle, of Sumter. The other attendants were Mr. Hugh Haynsworth, a brother of the groom, and Miss Estelle Guess, a sister of the bride. The bridal party entered the church with the groom upon the arm of his brother, Mr. J. K. Haynsworth, the bride being escorted by her brother, Mr. Julian Guess. The bride was gowned in a beautifully fitting travelling suit of gray broadcloth. Under a canopy of dual hearts covered with white crystalline, the bridal party took their places, surrounded by high banks of ferns and hothouse plants, and the solemn words were pronounced which made them one. Maj. W. F. B. Haynsworth, father of the groom, his three brothers, Edgar, John, and Hugh, and his two sisters, the Misses Fannie and Lula, came down from Sumter to witness the ceremony. Among the visitors from here were Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Rice, Mrs. H. Spann Dowling, and Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Johnson. The presents were numerous and handsome. Mr. Haynsworth was for five years pastor of the church in which he was married, and his resignation a short time since was regretfully accepted by the congregation. He is a man of scholarly attainments, a polished orator, and governed in his daily life by the loftiest moral aims and ideals. He is a native of Sumter, his family being one of the oldest and most respected in the State. The bride is one of Bamberg county's most charming daughters, accomplished, witty, and with a sunny disposition and tender, loving heart. THE HERALD extends its hearty congratulations to Rev. and Mrs. Haynsworth. They left on the Coast Line immediately after the ceremony, for Darlington and Sumter, where the honeymoon will be spent. Upon their return to Denmark they will make their home with the bride's father. —Geo. Nolan, Rockland, O., says, "My wife had piles forty years. De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve cured them. The statement has been made in the daily papers that Bamberg county is to receive from the dispensary fund the sum of $302.60, which amount makes up the deficiency of $3 per capita for school children. The State of Tuesday is authority for the statement that checks had been sent to twenty-nine counties receiving a portion of this fund, but Treasurer Dickinson has not yet received the check for this county, nor is he in possession of any authentic information that such a check has been sent. Monday night County Superintendent Sease did send a circular letter asking him to send the total enrollment of school children in the county, so that some dispensary money at the disposal of the Comptroller General might be disbursed on the basis of this enrollment. That's the story in a nutshell. —Spain's Greatest Need. Mr. R. P. Olivia of Barcelona, Spain, spends his winters at Aikn, S. C. Weak nerves had caused severe pains in the back of his head. There was a brilliant wedding celebrated in the Denmark Baptist Church, last Tuesday, at 3 o'clock p. m., the contracting parties being Miss Ida May Guess, daughter of Mr. Joseph Guess, and Rev. Wm. Haynsworth, formerly pastor of the church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Thomas H. Edwards, of Williston, the wedding march—Mendelssohn's—being played by Miss May Sally, of Sally. The church was crowded by friends and relatives of the bride and groom, the ushers being Messrs. Edgar Haynsworth, F. V. James, and C. E. Tyler. State Superintendent of Education J. J. McMahon, a cousin of the groom, was the best man, the bride of honor being Miss Carrie Pringle, of Sumter. The other attendants were Mr. Hugh Haynsworth, a brother of the groom, and Miss Estelle Guess, a sister of the bride. The bridal party entered the church with the groom upon the arm of his brother, Mr. J. K. Haynsworth, the bride being escorted by her brother, Mr. Julian Guess. The bride was gowned in a beautifully fitting travelling suit of gray broadcloth. Under a canopy of dual hearts covered with white crystalline, the bridal party took their places, surrounded by high banks of ferns and hothouse plants, and the solemn words were pronounced which made them one. Maj. W. F. B. Haynsworth, father of the groom, his three brothers, Edgar, John, and Hugh, and his two sisters, the Misses Fannie and Lula, came down from Sumter to witness the ceremony. Among the visitors from here were Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Rice, Mrs. H. Spann Dowling, and Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Johnson. The presents were numerous and handsome. Mr. Haynsworth was for five years pastor of the church in which he was married, and his resignation a short time since was regretfully accepted by the congregation. He is a man of scholarly attainments, a polished orator, and governed in his daily life by the loftiest moral aims and ideals. He is a native of Sumter, his family being one of the oldest and most respected in the State. The bride is one of Bamberg county's most charming daughters, accomplished, witty, and with a sunny disposition and tender, loving heart. THE HERALD extends its hearty congratulations to Rev. and Mrs. Haynsworth. They left on the Coast Line immediately after the ceremony, for Darlington and Sumter, where the honeymoon will be spent. Upon their return to Denmark they will make their home with the bride's father. —Geo. Nolan, Rockland, O., says, "My wife had piles forty years. De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve cured them.
