Go to the polls next Tuesday and vote for the man of your choice, no matter who he is.

The price of cotton is going down, down every day. Wonder if this is because E. D. Smith is spending his time running for the Senate and not looking after the interests of the farmers?

We hope the voters of Bamberg county will give good majorities next Tuesday to Ansel for Governor and Henry T. Thompson for adjutant and inspector general.

The State railroad commission has rendered a decision that they cannot interfere with the present mileage book rule of the railroads.

POLITICAL "FAIRNESS."

In an article in the Newberry Herald and News of August 7th, the editor of this newspaper is charged with having taxed a candidate for governor $6.00 for correcting a mistake made in our editorial columns.

AGED COUPLE'S ROMANCE.

Quarreled Forty Years Ago, But Meet Again and Marry.

The marriage in Kingston, N. Y., Monday night of George Faulkner, 62 years old, and Mrs. Sarah E. Seymour, 61 years old, both of Schuyler, Neb., was the culmination of a romance began in Ulster county more than 40 years ago.

A CANDIDATE'S REASONS.

The Card of a Missourian Who Wants to be Secretary of State.

The old time candidate for a county office always took particular pains to kiss all the babies he saw.

But in the decadent days of the twentieth century conventions of physicians have condemned the kisser of babies, and the politician can never tell whether he will lose or win one using the old system.

To a Missouri Democrat from Jasper county belongs the prize for the most advanced and scientific method of using it. His campaign cards on one side is like all other cards: "Your kind remembrance is requested at the primary election August 4.

But the other side! Above a half-tone picture of nine small children is the catchword: "Say, Mister!"

Now, how is any man with the spark of life in him going to resist an appeal like that?—Kansas City Star.

J. Q. Marshall Passes Away.

Columbia, Aug. 11.—News was received here to-night that J. Q. Marshall, one of the most prominent citizens of the State died suddenly at Buffalo Springs, Va.

Col. Marshall was at present chairman of the street commission and chairman of the commission on the erection of the Confederate home and his death will prove a loss and a shock to the entire State.

NEGROES HORRIBLY BURNED.

Rabbit's Foot Company, Negro Theatrical Troupe, Meets Disaster.

Charlotte, N. C., Aug. 14.—Seven male members of the Rabbit's Foot company, a negro travelling organization, were horribly burned this morning at Shelby, near here.

NEAR MURDER AT AUGUSTA.

Man Shoots Wife in Abdomen and Himself Through a Lung.

Augusta, Ga., August 14.—N. S. Usher, a man of middle age, walked into the Sibley Mill to-day about 12:50 o'clock, where his wife was at work in the spool room, and shot her through the abdomen with a 22-calibre revolver.

Usher was arrested a few minutes later by a bicycle policeman and taken to the City Hospital, where an operation will be performed.

The man's motive is thought to have been jealousy. He had not lived with his wife for several months. They had no children and he is said to have received company to some extent since they separated.

SWEET SINGER SILENT.

Writer of the "Gospel Hymns" Passes Into Eternal Rest.

New York, Aug. 14.—Ira D. Sankey, known as an evangelist throughout the Christian world, died last night at his home in Brooklyn, but the news of his passing did not become generally known until today.

Sankey, it might be said, wrote the Gospel hymns of the world. In China, Egypt, India, Japan, in almost every language known to man, Sankey's hymns are sung.

Sankey first met Moody at Y. M. C. A. convention in Indianapolis.

Some people think they must go to a big city to get a stylish or up-to-date vehicle. They forget that the other chaps have identically the same factories to select from that I do.

CHLOROFORM OR ASSAULT.

A WOMAN PATIENT ACCUSES ROANOKE DENTIST.

Business Men Thrashed Him, But he Declares Patient Suffered from Hallucination.

Roanoke, Va., Aug. 9.—A warrant charging him with an attempt to criminally assault a woman patient on July 28, was served to-day on W. S. Gregory, a prominent Roanoke dentist.

When the alleged victim of Gregory recited her story to E. M. Coulter, president of the National Business College of Roanoke, and Lee Keedick, of New York, a manager of lectures, they went to Gregory's office and thrashed him.

The trial of Coulter and Keedick for assaulting Gregory, occupied the police court two days, and the decision has not been handed down by Judge Bryan.

At the trial Keedick and Coulter recited the story told them by Gregory's alleged victim, and the young lady repeated on the stand what she had recited to Keedick and Coulter.

Physicians testified that women under the influence of chloroform often imagine they have been insulted, but dentists testified that the work Gregory did in this case, in their opinion, was not of a character demanding the use of chloroform.

I cannot help it, if the bargain vehicle you bought did not turn out to be what you paid your money for and the concern you bought it of is out of business.

G. FRANK BAMBERG.

BRIDE SHORT TWO FEET.

Devoted Sweetheart Weds Her as Soon as She Quits Hospital.

The romance and glory of unswerving devotion were shown one day last week in an unusual incident that occurred at the Newport, Ky., court house, when John B. Rapp, big and strong, of Portland, Ind., carried into the clerk's office a frail young woman who had lost both of her legs in a railroad accident.

He said that he and his sweetheart were engaged to be married when she sustained her injuries. As soon as she left the hospital they determined to carry out their intentions, and they were married in Covington by a magistrate.

SLAIN FOR HIS MONEY.

Harry Clark, Who Lived Near Eutaw Springs, Killed While Asleep.

Eloree, August 15.—Early Thursday morning, Harry Clark, white, who lived alone near Eutaw Springs, was shot and killed as he lay asleep in his bed by his son, a young mulatto. The purpose of the slayer was probably robbery. It is supposed that Clark had a considerable sum of money in his house and that the young mulatto, becoming aware of this, planned the brutal murder.

As the old man lay asleep the murderer shot off the top of his head. The assassin then took the blood-stained garments of his victim into the lot and burned them. He put the corpse into a wagon, concealed it with straw and trash and hauled it into a dense thicket, where he dug a hole and buried the body.

He then returned to Eutawville, where he wrote an order to one of the leading merchants of that place, forging the old man's name for a small amount. The merchant, being familiar with Clark's affairs, knew there was something wrong and suspicion was at once aroused.

Terrible indignation was aroused and the slayer was brought here last night and lodged in the guard house for safe keeping. He was carried back to Eutawville this morning, where the inquest was held.

The deceased was 65 years old and was not married. It is not known whether the slayer got any money. Clark is said to have kept most of his money in a bank.

—Miss Julia McKelvey, of Summerville, is visiting Mrs. A. Rice.

—Mrs. G. P. Harmon and little daughter, Marion, have returned home after a month's visit to Wards, Johnston and Ridge Springs.

—Miss Annie Lou Byrd returned home Wednesday after a pleasant visit to school mates and friends at Lancaster.

Those who attended the district meeting Knights of Pythias at Olar Tuesday report a fine time. We will have a full account of the affair next week.

NO REASON FOR IT.

When Bamberg Citizens Show the Certain Way Out.

There can be no just reason why any reader of this will continue to suffer the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the dangers of diabetes of any kidney ills when relief is so near at hand and the most positive proof given that they can be cured. Read what a Bamberg citizen says:

D. J. Cain, Church St., Bamberg, S. C., says: "I suffered from kidney trouble for two or three years and during the past six months my condition became quite serious. I often had spells of backache which were so intense I could not work. For weeks at a time I could not sit down without first grasping something for support and then putting my whole weight on my arms. After lying down it was impossible for me to get up without assistance, and I might say that I was as helpless as a child. The kidney secretions were in a critical condition and at times there was an almost complete retention. All the doctoring I did availed me but little relief. Recently I began using Doan's Kidney Pills which I obtained from the People's Drug Store and I am so much better in every way that I cannot praise them enough."
