SHORT LOCALS.

Brief Items of Interest Throughout the Town and County.

There is a good crowd here this week, attending court.

Work has commenced on the remodeling of Dr. Cleckley's residence.

A large crowd from Bamberg attended the State fair in Columbia last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCue have gone to house-keeping in Mr. I. B. Felder's house on New Bridge street.

Another car load of horses and mules received this week by G. Frank Bamberg. Prices and terms right.

A number of out-of-town visitors were in the city Monday evening to attend the concert of the Chicago Glee Club.

A certain young gentleman, who has been a frequent visitor at the Dowling home lately, is looking just a little lonely.

Don't forget that G. Frank Bamberg has just shipped in another car load of horses and mules and wants to sell them.

One of the best evidences of the growth of Bamberg is the number of new residences now going up and to be erected soon.

Numbers of our subscribers have renewed their subscription recently. Others had best do so at once if they want The Herald to keep on coming.

The hunting season in Bamberg county does not open until the 15th of this month. Better be careful how you shoot birds before this date.

G. Frank Bamberg received another car load of horses and mules this week. He has a fine lot of stock, and can sure fix you right.

Mr. O. B. Kinard, of the Ehrhardt section, has begun the erection of a large residence on North Carlisle street, near the residence of Mrs. Bronson.

There will be marrying and giving in marriage in Bamberg county today (Wednesday.) Two weddings are to take place in Denmark and one in Bamberg.

The ladies of the Civic League served oysters at the court house last Friday afternoon and evening, the purpose being to raise funds for the work of the league.

O, you cut glass! O, thou cut price, at Simmons Hardware Co.

A number of new residences are to be built in Bamberg right away. Let the good work go on. We are always glad to see new houses go up, for it means an increased growth of our city.

Full line sausage mills, stuffers, and lard presses at Simmons Hardware Co.

Presiding Elder C. B. Smith preached at Trinity Methodist church last Sunday morning and at the factory chapel in the evening. The fourth quarterly conference for the Bamberg churches was held Monday morning.

Let us measure you for a famous Racycle bicycle, the best on earth. SIMMONS HARDWARE CO.

A ride around town will show a wonderful improvement in the residence section of the city in the last few years. Numbers of new houses have been erected and other improvements made. The town is growing right along.

Big line of hand-painted china expected daily at Simmons Hardware Company's.

We are requested by President J. W. Stewart to announce that the Bamberg local Farmers' Union will meet at the court house in this city Saturday afternoon, November 13th, a four o'clock. A full attendance of the members is requested.

Mule milliners, that's exactly what we are. Let us trim your mule up with a good set of plow gears. We have the best, and our prices are always such that will cause you to smile. SIMMONS HARDWARE CO.

Ensign D. Graham Copeland and his bride will arrive in the city this (Thursday) evening for a short visit to the family of his father and other relatives. They will leave for New York Saturday, as Ensign Copeland has only a short leave, and must rejoin his ship.

We have just unloaded a car of fine mules and horses. Just the kind to suit everybody. Call and see. SMOAK-MILEY CO., Branchville, S. C.

The voting contest at The Herald Book Store is getting interesting. A handsome doll to some girl and a tool chest to a boy is to be given away Christmas eve. Numbers of ballots have been cast, and next week we will begin to publish the standing of contestants. A vote with every cash purchase of 5 cents. Come in and vote.

In sentencing a negro to life imprisonment for murder, Judge Gage remarked on the increase of crime among the negroes in this county. He said the causes were whiskey, pistols and women in almost every case. That while many white men went armed, most of the negroes carried pistols, which was a fearful condition.

The Chicago Glee Club gave an entertainment at the graded school auditorium in this city Monday evening of this week. There was a good crowd present as these gentlemen had visited Bamberg several years ago and gave a fine program. The quartet pleased their audience Monday evening, although we are of the opinion that their program was not as popular as the one given here on the occasion of their former visit.

The Cotton Market. Cotton is selling in Bamberg today at 14 cents the pound. The receipts have been heavy this season, but they are getting a little light now. Receipts for the past week, about 500 bales; for the season, about 9,000 bales.

Goes to Orangeburg.

Mr. N. C. Kline, who has been manager of the Pondea Farm for Mr. C. W. Rentz for the past few years, moved his family to Orangeburg last week, where he will live in future. Mr. Kline has accepted the position of manager of a truck farm and dairy for Mr. W. E. Atkinson, of Orangeburg, and they will go into the business on a large scale. Mr. Kline is an experienced truck and dairy man, and while his many friends in Bamberg regret his departure, they wish him success in his new home. Mr. Herndon, of the Hunter's Chapel section, has accepted the position of manager of Pondea Farm for Mr. Rentz.

Sydney Hartzog to Wed.

The engagement of Miss Mattie Abney and Mr. A. Sydney Hartzog is announced, the wedding to take place Wednesday, December the first. Both are very popular young people with a host of friends here and elsewhere in the State and this announcement will be of great interest to them.—Greenwood Index.

Quarterly Conference.

The fourth quarterly conference of the Bamberg Methodist churches, which was held Monday morning of this week, made a good financial showing. All claims will no doubt be paid in full, while the church has expended nearly $2,000 on the parsonage the past year. The home mission society has also raised several hundred dollars, which went to help to support the pastor of the mill chapel and for other benevolent purposes. Rev. Jno. P. Simpson, who has been pastor of the mill chapel for several months, and Rev. J. H. Daner were recommended for admission to the conference.

The conference passed a resolution urging the local board of control of the Fitting School to appoint two members of the board, who with Presiding Elder Smith, chairman of the board, should attend the meeting of the annual conference in Abbeville and request the board of education to recommend to the conference an appropriation for the school, and to take such steps as would secure the continuance of the school. The board adopted the suggestion and elected Messrs. H. C. Folk and W. D. Rhoad, who with Mr. Smith, will appear before the board at conference and endeavor to secure the co-operation of the church in continuing the school as a Methodist institution.

Marriage in Denmark.

The marriage of Miss Inez Zorn, of Denmark, South Carolina, to Mr. Nathaniel LeMaster, of Augusta, will occur in Denmark Wednesday morning, November the tenth, at half after ten o'clock, at the home of the bride. The Reverend Mr. Morris will unite the two in the bonds of holy wedlock.

The wedding will be a very beautiful one, though very quiet. Miss Zorn will wear a handsome traveling suit of wistaria, with gloves and hat to match, fashioned in the latest styles of to-day.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. LeMaster will leave for a trip North, and will return to Augusta. They will make their home at ten hundred and twenty-one Ellis street.

Two Car Loads at Olar.

Rizer is sure selling the horses and mules this season. High priced cotton makes the people generally want to buy new stock, and Rizer is supplying the demand. He will receive next Tuesday, November 16th, two car loads of fine horses and mules, direct from the West. These two loads were selected especially to suit the people of this section, and were bought by an experienced buyer. If you want a first-class driving horse or a good work mule, Rizer can supply your wants, and the price will be most reasonable. The sooner you buy the better selection he will have, and it is to your interest to give him an early call.

Barn and Stables Burned.

Last Sunday night about eleven o'clock the corn house, barn and stables of Mr. G. W. Hunter, who lives in the Hunter's Chapel section of this county, was totally destroyed by fire, with the contents. Mr. Hunter lost 225 bushels of corn, 400 pounds of fodder, his wagons, harness, plows and other farming implements. He had two head of stock in the stables—a horse and mule, and both of these were badly burned in getting them out, and they may die. When the fire was discovered it was impossible to do anything more than get the stock out of the burning building. There was no insurance on anything, and the loss falls heavily on Mr. Hunter, who is an industrious young farmer. He is a son of Sheriff J. B. Hunter.

Judge Criticises.

In his remarks to the grand jury Judge Gage called the attention of that body to the condition of the court house in strong terms. As a result the grand jury made a report on the matter. The judge and the grand jury seem to be stirring things up generally, for all magistrates are summoned to meet the grand jury next Monday morning, and the judge also issued an order for the judge of probate to appear before him at the same time, his action being taken on account of the report of the grand jury that the office of the probate judge was closed and they were not able to examine same. Upon inquiry of the judge, the foreman stating that the same state of affairs existed at the last term of court.

Sold Diseased Meat.

Cordele, Ga., Nov. 8.—Lucius McCrary and William Cross, negroes, were lodged in the county jail yesterday on the charge of selling the flesh of a diseased animal to a butcher. A fine cow belonging to J. R. Kelley died and these negroes were employed to carry the carcass off to the bone yard. It is charged they dragged the cow into the country, dressed and sold the meat. An investigation led to the arrest of the negroes.

Marriage This Evening.

Miss Willie Meriwether and Dr. F. B. McCrackin will be married this (Wednesday) evening at 8.30 o'clock at Trinity Methodist church in this city. Rev. M. M. Brabham officiating. This wedding will be one of the society events of the season. There will be a number of attendants, and the ceremony will be a beautiful one. There are a number of visitors in the city for the marriage. After the ceremony a reception will be held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. McB. Speaks. As The Herald goes to press Wednesday afternoon, an account of the wedding cannot appear until our next issue.

Linen Shower.

Friday afternoon a most enjoyable linen shower was given Miss Willie Meriwether at the home of Mrs. G. Moye Dickinson by Mrs. J. W. Price. There were present a great many maid and matron friends of the lovely bride-to-be, and the afternoon was one to be remembered by all who were there.

Mrs. Dickinson and Mrs. Price were assisted in receiving and serving the punch by Mrs. Janie Lewis and Mrs. W. A. Klauber.

A novel and most attractive form of entertainment was the reading of a set of twelve commands for the government of the bride and groom respectively.

A salad and sweet course was served, and this little feast gave the guests the opportunity of toasting the bride-to-be in many witty and effective couplets.

Altogether, the occasion was a most enjoyable one, and the many beautiful, dainty and lacy linen gifts were worthy of the admiration accorded them.

Among those present were: Mesdames D. F. Hooton, C. R. Brabham, Sr., A. W. Knight, C. R. Brabham, Jr., M. W. Brabham, W. Max Walker, E. A. Hooton, H. F. Hoover, J. Clarence Moye, W. P. Jones, W. P. NEWS AND NOTICES.

We had a fine Sunday-school Sunday morning. The attendance was over one hundred and the collection averaged nearly five cents per member.

A monthly teachers' conference and training class was started Sunday afternoon in the parlor of the pastorium. There was an encouraging attendance for the first meeting. Matters of general practical interest with regard to teaching methods and teacher' problems were discussed, helpfully.

The pastor gave a talk on the true work and aim of the Sunday-school teacher. The true work of the teacher, he defined as helping the young mind to know something about them. He stressed the following points under this head: (1) Memorizing the Scriptures; (2) Explaining the Scripture meaning; (3) Training in familiarity with the Bible as a book. Under the second head, he defined the central aim of the teacher, as making the unsaved pupil wise unto salvation, and helping the young Christian to grow in grace, and the knowledge of our Lord.

The pastor preached to good congregations Sunday morning and evening. His subject Sunday morning was, The Printing Press as a Force in Christian and Denominational Life. A evening, the Influence of Companionships.

The pastor announced that a strong effort was being made this month to relieve our State board of missions of a debt hanging over it before the convention, first of December; and urged every branch of our church work to lend a helping hand.

He also announced that this month was Baptist Courier month. Let us renew our subscription for our denominational paper, as an efficient pastor's assistant in our work.

Primary in Colleton.

Walterboro, Nov. 9.—In the primary election for member of the house of representatives, held in this county to-day, 23 out of 30 boxes gives: D. H. Towles 341; H. L. Smith 349; W. C. Brant 221. The other seven boxes cannot alter the result and Messrs. Towles and Smith will run over.

The election was held to fill the unexpired term of the late C. D. Sanders.
