SHORT LOCALS.

Brief Items of Interest Throughout the Town and County.

Call at G. A. Ducker's new novelty store, opposite post office.

See the new ad. of Mr. J. W. McCue, the grocery man, in this issue.

All summer goods are now going at cost at C. R. Brabham's Sons. They have big bargains to offer.

Lost.—On Fitting School campus one gold cuff button with initial "R. M. B." engraved on it. Reward if returned to this office.

Mr. Francis Marion Moye has accepted a position with the Peoples Drug Company, where he will be glad to serve his many friends.

At the reunion last Thursday at Bethesda the ladies of the church sold ice cream to raise funds to pay for a new organ for the church and about thirty dollars was realized.

There will be a game of base ball here to-morrow (Friday) afternoon between Bamberg and Oak Grove. Next Tuesday afternoon a game will be played here between Bamberg and Ehrhardt.

Nothing doing in politics in this county. Our people somehow don't seem to enthuse much over the candidacy of anybody. We have never seen so little interest taken in political affairs.

The first boll of open cotton for this season was brought to this office last Thursday morning by Mr. C. J. S. Brooker. It came from one of his farms, cultivated by William Walker, a negro.

Bro. O. J. Frier is being greatly blessed in his work as pastor at Bamberg. Bro. Frier is a splendid organizer and has unusual energy. It is a pleasure to us to hear of his good work.—Baptist Courier.

The reunion of Company G at Bethesda church last Thursday was well attended, and there was plenty to eat as usual. Addresses were made by Col. Mortimer Glover, of Orangeburg, and J. Aldrich Wyman, Esq., of this city.

Bamberg and Sumter played two games of base ball here last Thursday and Friday afternoons. The first game was stopped by rain, with the score something like 5 to 1 in favor of Sumter, with only two innings played. Sumter won the second game Friday afternoon by a score of 7 to 2.

Realizing the disadvantage the people of Bamberg county have had in buying trunks and suit cases, especially in the summer, C. R. Brabham's Sons have acted wise and had their line (which sure is a peach) shipped out. Their store looks as full now as most stores look in the fall of the year.

The Herald Book Store has begun to receive its fall line of stationery, office supplies, etc. We would be pleased to serve you. Patronize a store which carries the line and thereby enable us to serve you better. Don't patronize a store which carries stationery as a side line and has only a little handful of goods.

Rev. T. E. Morris, pastor of the Denmark Methodist church, will preach at Trinity Methodist church in this city next Sunday morning at eleven o'clock. The evening service will be in charge of the Epworth League. Rev. T. G. Herbert is assisting Mr. Morris in a meeting at Denmark this week, and will preach there next Sunday.

Rev. W. C. Baxley requests us to change his paper from Olar to Blackville, and says: "Bro. Frier, of Bamberg, and I held a meeting with Olar Baptist church last week, of which I am pastor. The Lord was with us; there was great interest on the part of the church from the first service. There were seventeen members received; fourteen were baptized. Bro. Frier did the preaching and did it well."—Baptist Courier.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Max Walker will leave Bamberg about the 15th of this month and will go to Ehrhardt, where they will live in future. Mr. Walker has been book-keeper at the cotton mill here for the past year or more, and the many friends of himself and wife will regret to have them leave. Mr. Walker will keep books at Ehrhardt for the Conrad Ehrhardt Co., taking the place made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Jacob E. Felder, who is going into business at Young's Island. It is not known who will take Mr. Walker's place at the cotton mill.

PEARLSTINE WINS OUT.

Extradition Denied by Governor of New York.

Hon. S. G. Mayfield received a letter yesterday afternoon from the private secretary of Governor Chas. E. Hughes, of New York, notifying him that the warrant against A. Shep Pearlstine had been vacated, and this means that Governor Hughes takes the same view of the case that Governor Ansel did, viz: that Mr. Pearlstine was not and had not been a fugitive from justice.

It will be remembered that Palmer Bros., of Tennessee, swore out a warrant for Mr. Pearlstine alleging embezzlement, and wanted to carry him to Tennessee for trial. To this end extradition was granted by Governor Hughes in New York, and Governor Ansel, of this State, was also asked to honor a requisition. Mr. Pearlstine won out at the hearing before Governor Ansel, and now he has secured a favorable decision from Governor Hughes. Mr. Pearlstine is perfectly willing to be tried in South Carolina where the alleged transaction took place, and it is now up to Palmer Bros. to proceed against him in this State if they want to make good on their charges. Mr. Pearlstine's friends in this city will be pleased at the successful outcome of the matter.

The Misses Black Entertain.

Misses Pearl and Alma Black entertained charmingly on Thursday evening last in honor of their guest, Miss Clara Johnson, of Ocala, Fla. At about 7:30 p. m. the young ladies gathered at the home of the Misses Blacks' parents, and were greeted at the door by Mesdames Josephine Beach, Thomas Black and Thomas Johnson; Mrs. Johnson, Miss Clara Johnson's mother, being also a guest at the Black home.

Soon after all had arrived supper was announced and the guests were ushered into the dining room, where a delightful salad course was served. The dining room was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and cut-flowers and added zest and relish to the salad course which possessed nice preception of excellence.

After supper the gentlemen arrived and all played well their part in a pleasure seeker's drama. Mrs. Johnson sang and several of the guests added to the pleasure of the occasion, but the feature of the evening was a cute little song called "taffy" which Miss Johnson sang. A delightful fruit punch with nabiscos was served before the guests said good-bye, one and all expressing their enjoyment of the evening. Those invited were:

Misses Belle Cooner, Flossie Murdaugh, Ethel Black, Urna Black, Ruth Riley, Linnie Riley, Elise Rantz, Clara Johnson, Wilhelmina Folk, Louise Folk, Mell Kearse, Annie Laurie Rice; Mesdames Josephine Beach and Thomas Johnson; Messrs. Glenn Cope, H. N. Folk, B. Laurence Summerlyn, O. S. Munnerlyn, Clarence Black, Jr., Bissell Beach, Eugene Stokes, Carl Kirsch, Hollis Frier, Nat Felder, Jr., Olar Ayer, Thos. Black, Jr., Phaton Moore, of Sumter, Frank Starr, of Olar.

For Railroad Commissioner.

Mr. O. C. Scarborough, of Clarendon, candidate for railroad commissioner, is making a fine impression all over the State, and his chances of election appear to be good. He will no doubt poll a large vote in Bamberg county, and deservedly so, for he is by long odds the best man in the race for this position. Bamberg county voters will make no mistake in casting their ballots for him.

Picnic and Barbecue.

The annual picnic and barbecue of the Baldco Farmers' Club will come off at their pavilion on Wednesday, August 10th. The public is requested to attend with well filled baskets. There will be dancing.

J. H. HEWLETT,
Secretary.

Crocketville Annual Picnic.

The Crocketville annual picnic will be held Thursday, August 11th. Everybody invited, good pavilion, music by Bearden's band, dancing from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. Ball in the evening. The committee will spare no pains to make the occasion an enjoyable one for both old and young.

The following distinguished speakers have been secured to deliver addresses on agriculture and farm demonstration work: Hon. J. E. Watson, commissioner of agriculture for South Carolina; Hon. Ira W. Williams, State agent for co-operative demonstration farm work.

Also a representative from Clemson College, and other distinguished speakers. This meeting will be non-political and will be held in connection with the local Farmers' Unions. Remember the date, Thursday, August 11th. Come and bring your families and friends.

THE COMMITTEE.

BAMBERG BOY'S SUCCESS.

Ensign D. Graham Copeland Wins Merited Promotion in the Navy.

Only a few weeks ago we noted the fact that Lieut. J. Wilson Riley had been promoted in the army service, he having been assigned as instructor in mathematics at West Point, which was a high honor. Now comes the news that Ensign D. Graham Copeland, of the navy, who has been aide to the commanding officer of the U. S. S. Dixie, has been promoted. He has been detached from duty as aide to the commanding officer of the Dixie, which by the way, is the flagship of the Atlantic torpedo fleet, and ordered to special duty with the bureau of yards and docks at Washington, D. C. This means that on reporting to the secretary of the navy in Washington he will receive his commission as civil engineer in the navy with the rank of Lieutenant of the line.

This is a most desirable appointment, for it not only carries with it an increase in salary to $3,000 a year, but he will also have a three years' course of instruction at the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute at Troy, N. Y., the leading engineering university of the world, and everything absolutely at the expense of the government. The many friends of Mr. Copeland in his old home will learn with delight of his deserved promotion, and congratulate him on his success in his chosen profession.

While Mr. Copeland's record entitled him to this promotion, he owes this rise in rank and salary to the efforts of Congressman J. O. Patterson, who, although Mr. Copeland was not an appointee of his in the navy, learned that he had been recommended for the place. Mr. Patterson thereupon secured Mr. Copeland's record at the Citadel, at the Navy Academy, and in the active service, and personally appeared before the secretary of the navy and Admiral Holliday to urge his appointment. That he was successful shows what influence Mr. Patterson has with the departments as well as the high standing of Mr. Copeland, for as the appointment is a most desirable one, there were a number of officers from Northern States who were applicants, and they were supported by some very influential Republican Senators. It is high tribute to Mr. Patterson's ability and influence that he was able to win out against such odds, and both he and Mr. Copeland are to be warmly congratulated on the assignment.

Bamberg boys always make a fine record wherever placed. Riley in the army and Copeland in the navy are giving their home folks reason to be very proud of them.

Cotton Average on July 25th.

Washington, August 2.—The average condition of the cotton crop on July 25 was 75.5 per cent. of a normal, according to a bulletin of the crop reporting board of the department of agriculture, issued at noon to-day. The average condition was 80.7 on June 25; 71.9 on July 25 last year; 83.0 in 1908; 75.0 in 1907; and 79.4 the ten-year average.

Comparison of conditions by States follows:

State	1910	10-year-av.
Virginia	80	81
North Carolina	71	80
South Carolina	70	80
Georgia	70	81
Florida	70	83
Alabama	71	78
Mississippi	71	78
Louisiana	69	78
Texas	82	79
Arkansas	73	80
Tennessee	76	82
Missouri	72	84
Oklahoma	87	81
California	98

While the average condition in the cotton crop fell below the average for June, when it was 80.7, the decrease did not surprise experts who have kept informed of the conditions that have prevailed in the cotton belt. Heavy rains which occurred east of the Mississippi during the month of July were known to be detrimental to the crop so that the decrease in the average of the condition was not unexpected.

STRUCK BY MONSTER RATTLER.

Lexington County Man Probably Dying from Reptile's Bite.

Lexington, July 30.—J. A. Lucas, a prominent farmer of Edmund, is at his home in a precarious condition to-night, as a result of a rattlesnake bite, received to-day while he was in the act of clearing out a spring at Bethel church, where a singing school was being conducted. The reptile sprang upon Mr. Lucas without warning, sinking his teeth deep into the left knee.

Mr. Lucas was operated on by Dr. J. J. Wingard, of Lexington, late this afternoon. The snake was killed by J. A. Kyser, who happened to be near, and measured five feet in length and carried seven rattles and a button.

NIGHT-TIME.

Reunion of Co. G, Hagood's Regiment, Near Bamberg.

The annual reunion of Co. G, Hagood's 1st Regiment of South Carolina volunteers, was celebrated yesterday with a big picnic held at Bethesda church about 11 miles from Bamberg. There were about 500 people present and all had a jolly good time. Of the 103 members of this historic company there were only 13 present yesterday, nearly all of the others having died. The gathering was attended by Col. Mortimer Glover and Mr. J. F. Hunter, of this city. Col. Glover, who was adjutant of the regiment, was invited to make an address. Sheriff J. B. Hunter, of Bamberg, presided at the meeting, and the time was most pleasantly spent.—Orangeburg Evening News.

Miss Simmons Entertains.

On the evening of July 22, 1910, Miss Mabel Simmons, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Simmons, of Branchville, delightfully entertained in honor of her guests, Misses Oattie and Marian Simmons, of Bamberg; Mr. Shuler, of Bowman; Miss Dantzer and Mr. Smith, of Autaugaville, Ala.

Refreshments were served on the lawn, which was beautifully lighted with drop lights. Those present were: Misses Marian and Lizzie Heape, Eva and Ray Karesh, Ida Fairey, Nettie Berry, Jennie Conner, Mary Carroll and Jennie Stokes, Irene Rumphly, Oattie and Marian Simmons, of Bamberg; Mabel Simmons and Rosa Dantzer, of Ala.; Mesdames Wimberly and Simmons; Messrs. Wimberly, Simmons, Bennie and Joe Williams, Norman Byrd, Solmie Byrd, Earle Dukes, Clifton Dukes, Sammie Karesh, Stokes Connor, Artman, of Anderson, Benjamin Bellinger, Shields McElhaney, Tiltler McElhaney, Fairey, Kenzie Shuler, and Mr. Smoth, of Ala.

Civic League.

The Civic League held a very important meeting at the home of Mrs. W. P. Jones last Wednesday afternoon. Matters of vital interest were discussed, and the League decided to use the money on hand to employ a temporary health officer to look after the unhealthy and unkept places about town and to put a force of hands to work to put all such places to rights. It is the purpose of the League to pay this officer and put this matter into the hands of some man who will see that the work is properly done.

Now is the time to prevent sickness in the fall.

The children are requested to save the disks of the sunflowers and take them to their different schools on the opening day when the committee will award the prizes.

Plans were made for a series of entertainments to be held in the near future, and other plans for raising money discussed.

The League is still begging a place for a park. Won't some one come to the rescue?

After the business was over the hostess served sherbert and cake, which was very much enjoyed.

There will be no meeting in August.

The time and place of the September meeting will be announced later. MAY C. McCUE.

Death in Bamberg.

Mr. D. M. Hooton died at his home here Tuesday afternoon, August 2nd, after being confined to his bed for the past few weeks, in his 29th year. Mr. Hooton was the second son of the late Mr. A. B. Hooton.

He was born in the town of Bamberg, where he lived until he was fifteen years of age. Since that time he has lived in North Carolina and Georgia, until about one year ago, when he began work in Denmark, S. C., where he was working when ill health forced him to give up his position. He then returned to Bamberg, his old home.

He leaves a mother, one sister, Miss Kittie Hooton, and two brothers, Messrs. C. R. and A. B. Hooton.

The funeral services were conducted at Restland cemetery yesterday afternoon at four o'clock, by Rev. T. G. Herbert.

Those acting as pall bearers were: Messrs. E. A. Hooton, J. M. Felder, Jr., Clarence Free, Frank Starr, E. D. Felder, and G. E. Bamberg.

Night Watchman Murdered.

Andalusia, Ala., July 31.—Night Watchman Sewell, at a lumber mill here, was killed last night and Tom Hayes, a negro, against whom Sewell had testified in a whiskey selling case, is charged with the crime. Sewell's head was cut almost off and the body dragged a short distance and hidden. When it was discovered this morning Hayes was arrested and the officers, fearing mob violence, rushed their prisoner in an automobile to Gantt station and from there by train to Troy, where he was lodged in jail.
