

The Bamberg Herald

Thursday, Jan. 19, 1911.

SHORT LOCALS.

Brief Items of Interest Throughout the Town and County.

See Klauber's half page ad. in this issue.

Read G. Frank Bamberg's ad. and go to him for horses and mules.

Jones Bros. have some beautiful mules and horses on hand, now, and they are selling them, too.

J. J. Smoak has some mighty fine horses and mules on hand, which came from Tennessee and Virginia.

Representative W. L. Riley, of this county, has been appointed as chairman of the house committee on rules.

We want that 1,000 new subscribers this year. If the present increase keeps up we will get them, too.

It will do little good to cut down the shade trees if merchants are allowed to blockade the street and sidewalks with goods.

Regular spring weather we have had for a part of last and this week, but there's plenty of cold weather ahead of us yet this winter.

The new subscribers and renewals are certainly coming our way these days, and it makes one's heart glad to hear the nice things said about The Herald.

We learn that Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barr have decided to make their home in Bamberg and will move here shortly. This will be pleasant news to their many friends.

The Herald office does job printing for people all over Bamberg, Orangeburg, Barnwell, and adjoining counties. We get this work because we do good work at right prices.

Mr. L. B. Fowler has opened a lumber yard on the lot opposite the electric light plant, where he will carry all kinds of rough and dressed lumber and building material.

The board of stewards of Trinity Methodist church held a meeting at the office of Bamberg Banking Company Monday and made the assessments on the members for this year.

Advertising pays. A few days ago Mr. J. T. O'Neal, our real estate man, received an inquiry for a farm from a man in West Congo, Africa. This party wants to settle in South Carolina and wrote Mr. O'Neal about a farm.

Presiding Elder Chas. B. Smith, of the Orangeburg district, will pay his first official visit to the Bamberg churches next Sunday. He will preach at Trinity Methodist church next Sunday evening, and the first quarterly conference will be held Monday morning.

A letter from Mr. A. L. Spann, who is now in Sylvester, Texas, asks that we send him The Herald, as he gets lonely some times out there so far from home. He says, however, that if he gets The Herald every week it will do much to keep his spare moments from being lonely ones.

The applicants for solicitor of the second circuit are getting busy and Governor Bleasie will be besieged by petitions, letters, and personal applications. Mr. Byrnes has not resigned yet, therefore the appointment will be in the hands of the new governor. May the best man win.

The town has presented a busy appearance for the past week or so. Numbers of people from this county, as well as Orangeburg, Colleton, and Barnwell have been in the city buying horses and mules and making other purchases. The new year starts off well, from a business standpoint, for Bamberg's business men.

Rev. J. H. Vining, of London, Canada, representing the Baptist "World Alliance," will address the people of Bamberg, S. C., at the Baptist church Wednesday evening, the 25th instant, in the interest of his work. Dr. Vining is a speaker of extraordinary ability, and this will be one of the greatest treats on this line our people have had. Don't fail to hear him.

Last Saturday our good friend, Mr. C. R. Clayton, of the Ehrhardt section, was in the city and renewed for The Herald another year. He is one of the oldest subscribers to the paper, in fact he has been taking it ever since it was first issued, twenty-one years ago, and he is proud of its development and progress. That he is always prompt in renewing for another year shows his appreciation of it.

Mr. J. B. O'Neill Holloway, State lecturer of the Farmers Union, who has been making addresses in this county for the past week, will deliver an address at the court house, to-morrow (Thursday) at eleven o'clock in the morning. The meeting will be a public one, and as matters of interest not only to the farmers but to all other classes of business as well will be discussed, every one is invited to be present.

It will be good news to the many friends of Congressman J. O. Patterson in this county to know that his health is very much improved, and that he will no doubt go to Washington in a few days to take up his duties. He has been in bad health for several months, and it is a great pleasure to all his friends to know that he is better.

We have just received a card from State Lecturer Holloway, in which he states that he wants to wind up his work in this county with a big meeting here to-morrow (Thursday) in the court house at 11 o'clock a. m. Go out and hear him. He will interest you. He writes that he had good crowds at his various appointments in the county, and believes that success will attend his efforts.

There will be a number of changes made in the schedules of the trains on the Southern Railway between Charleston and Augusta and Charleston and Columbia on the 22nd instant. The trains from Augusta will then run through to Charleston instead of stopping at Branchville. We are not advised as to how these changes will effect the passenger service from this city, but we trust it will be an improvement.

We have received a note from Mrs. J. W. Barnes, in which she asks that we send The Herald to Mr. Barnes, who is now at the Johns Hopkins Hospital Baltimore, Md., for treatment. It will be remembered that Mr. Barnes had his ankle broken some months ago by a fall from a buggy. Mrs. Barnes writes that he is getting along very well, and while he will be there some time yet, the physicians think they can put him on his feet again. His friends here hope he will have a speedy recovery.

Mrs. E. Paul Allen Entertains.

A delightful social feature of last week was a reception given at the home of Mrs. E. Paul Allen, which consisted of the faculty of the graded school, including a few friends. The drawing room was given a decorative touch, where tables for the game were placed. The interesting game of hearts was played followed by a tempting salad course.

Miss Roberta Johnson won first prize and Miss Franke Folk the consolation.

G. Frank Bamberg is selling lots of fine mules and horses these days. He has some of the prettiest mules you ever saw, and when you buy from Bamberg with his guarantee back of them there is no "morning after."

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Peoples Drug Company was held Tuesday afternoon. The report of the past year's business was very satisfactory. The following were elected directors for the ensuing year: J. A. Byrd, J. A. Wyman, Dr. J. J. Cleckley, F. B. McCrackin, W. G. Hoffman, J. W. Hill, H. N. Belling. The directors elected officers as follows: J. A. Byrd, president; J. A. Wyman, vice president; F. B. McCrackin, secretary and treasurer and general manager.

New Paper at Ridgeland.

We have received the first number of the Jasper Herald, a newspaper just started at Ridgeland, Beaufort county. There is a movement on foot to establish a new county known as Jasper from portions of Beaufort and Hampton, with Ridgeland as the county seat, and The Herald was established to boom the new county idea.

Girl Coming Home.

Letter Carrier O. D. Cain received a telegram Monday morning from Lizzie M. Lewis, supposed to be his sister, saying she had left Sapulba, Okla., Sunday afternoon at four o'clock. She ought to reach Orangeburg this evening or to-morrow morning, when the mystery as to whether she is Lizzie M. Cain, the little five-year-old girl who was stolen from Orangeburg thirty years ago, will be solved.—Orangeburg Times and Democrat.

The census cotton report, issued Tuesday, shows the number of bales ginned from the growth of 1910 to Jan. 1st to be 11,087,442, as compared with 9,647,327 from the growth of 1909 and 12,465,298 for 1908. The per centage of the last two crops ginned to Jan. 1st is for 1909, 95.8 and for 1908, 85.3. The price advanced considerably when the report was published, as the amount was less than had been expected.

New Meat Market.

Bamberg, S. C., Jan. 9, 1911. To The Public: This will inform you that I have opened a meat market in this city. I will endeavor to give my patrons first-class meats and prompt service. I ask your patronage, promising you that you will find me ready at all times to give you satisfactory service and will gladly adjust all reasonable claims. Thanking you in advance for whatever favors you can and will show me, I am, very respectfully yours,
H. G. DELK.

Death of a Little Child.

Little Helen Wilkerson, the three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wilkerson, was laid to rest Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Great Salkehatchie cemetery. She was sick only a few days with some throat trouble, but all that loving hands could do for her could not save her, as God saw fit to take the dear little blossom that was budded on earth to bloom in heaven.

Chapter Celebrates Lee's Birthday by Entertaining Veterans at Dinner and Presenting Crosses of Honor.

Thursday afternoon, the 19th, at 2 o'clock, at the Mayflower Inn the Francis Marion Bamberg chapter U. D. C. will entertain the veterans of the county at dinner, and present crosses of honor to those veterans who have applied for them. It is hoped that they will all be present to receive the crosses and that the other veterans who wish them will be present and apply for blanks. The chapter desires that as many veterans as are able be present at the meeting, to enjoy a short program on Lee, previous to the dinner. A full attendance of the chapter members is desired, and will all note the hour.

The Small Pox Scare.

Considerable apprehension was felt in town Sunday when it became known that a white man who lived near the graded school building had a well developed case of small pox. He was immediately quarantined and every precaution was taken to prevent a spread of the disease. The graded school held no exercises Monday, and the day was given over to vaccinating the school children. The trustees wisely decided to enforce the State law which requires that every pupil shall have been successfully vaccinated. This, however, should have been done long ago, and not wait until there was a case of small pox in town. No child should be allowed to enter a school who has not been vaccinated, and this the State law requires. The trustees of every school should enforce it. However, the children in both the white and colored schools will be vaccinated at this time, and numbers of other people are also having themselves vaccinated.

Death of Mrs. Matheny.

Bamberg, S. C., Jan. 16, 1911. Forty-eight years and eleven months ago to-day the spirit of John Walker Matheny went back to God who gave it. To-day the spirit of his beloved wife, Eliza Rush Matheny, took its flight to join him in the spirit land, to be with God and the angels for ever more. On December 26th, 1910, Mrs. Matheny was eighty-three years old. Although she lived in Blackville, in Charleston, in Holly Hill, and Shreveport, La., she came back to the home of her son, D. R. Matheny, and died in two miles of the plantation on which she was born, now owned by W. E. Spann, but then owned by her father, the late John William Rush, of Barnwell county.

This is the first time the original or immediate family circle has been broken in nearly forty-nine years. How thankful we should be that we have all been spared so long. Mrs. Matheny is survived by four sons and one daughter, as follows: W. H. Matheny, of Ridgeville, S. C.; D. R. Matheny, Bamberg, S. C.; J. W. Matheny, of Holly Hill; Mrs. J. P. O'Neill, of Kingsville, Texas, and S. E. Matheny, of Charleston, S. C. They were all at her bedside to the last except the dear daughter, who has been with her for several months and suffered a nervous breakdown and left for her Texas home last Thursday.

Mrs. Matheny was buried at Springtown beside her husband Tuesday, the 17th instant, Rev. O. J. Frier, her pastor, conducting the funeral service.

Senator Wharton, of Laurens, has introduced a bill providing for a license of $50,000 on all circuses who want to give exhibitions in this State. This to be a State license, and in addition to the license imposed by counties and municipalities. The bill is not likely to pass. About all the fun a poor man gets is going to a circus occasionally, and yet Mr. Wharton wants to take this away from him.

Go to Hunter's hardware store for stalk cutters, disc harrows, single and double plows, in fact everything in the hardware line at very low prices.

NEWS AND NOTICES.

Our Sunday-school had over one hundred in attendance Sunday morning and the collection amounted to over $4.00.

Very good congregations attended both morning and evening services. Pastor Frier's theme at the morning service was the "Foreknowledge of God and his eternal purposes of grace," showing the vital importance of these great truths and their practical value.

At night he used as a theme the practical lessons growing out of the prophecy against Jeroboam's altar by the unnamed prophet of God in 1 Kings, 13th chapter.

There were about 35 in attendance at the B. Y. P. U. Sunday afternoon. The theme of study was "The Ideal Life."

The Sunbeam Band had a special meeting Monday afternoon. They contemplate having a special and interesting program the fifth Sunday night of this month. Don't forget this; it will be worth seeing and hearing.

Mother Matheny, who had been sick for a long time, died last Monday, and was buried at Springtown, Tuesday, Pastor Frier conducting the funeral services. We extend Christian sympathy to the bereaved relatives.

We are glad to learn that Mrs. Garland who has been quite ill is improving. Mrs. W. E. Free also, who has been sick for several days.

Mrs. Williams Entertains.

Mrs. Jones Angus Williams entertained with a heart dice party, last Wednesday afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs. J. Norman Walker, who has recently returned from a long stay in Asheville.

The beautiful reception hall and parlor were very attractive under the soft lights, with here and there a cut glass holder of shaded carnations.

The guests made merry for quite a while over the game, which they seemed to thoroughly enjoy if shouts and peals of laughter were indicative.

At the close of the game it was found that Mrs. H. W. Johnson had made the highest score, and was thus entitled to the first prize which was a most unique and extraordinary bit of china—an elk's head, forming a lemonade pitcher of unusual beauty.

Quite a number cut for the consolation, this falling to the share of Mrs. Julia Reynolds—a great bunch of carnations.

A delightful salad course was served, followed by another of ambrosia, whipped cream, fruit cake and punch.

Mrs. Williams was most daintily attired in an embroidered gown of white, with carnations in her sash.

Mrs. Walker, the guest of honor, wore an exquisite costume of dark red silk harmonizing so perfectly with her brunette beauty.

As on many other occasions Mrs. Williams proved herself a most charming hostess, and each one left her lovely home assuring her of being in debt to her for another delightfully spent afternoon.

Following were those present:

Mesdames H. W. Johnson, H. H. Copeland, W. A. Klauber, Joe Frank Brabham, J. C. Moye, J. W. McCue, W. P. Riley, G. F. Hair, Susie Counts, John Cooner, C. R. Brabham, J. W. Price, J. W. Lovejoy, J. A. Wyman, C. J. S. Brooker, J. Norman Walker, R. L. Risher, Julia Reynolds, F. W. Free, A. W. Knight, M. J. Black, W. D. Rhoad, H. F. Bamberg, G. Frank Bamberg, G. Moye Dickinson, L. C. Price, J. J. Brabham, Jr., Ed. Kirkland, Joe McGhee, H. F. Hoover, M. W. Brabham, J. C. Guilds, Misses Olive Lee Dobson, Lola Wannamaker, Frankie Folk, Annie Lou Byrd, Myra Hooton, Nina Riley, Llewellyn Cleckley, Bessie Lee Black, Bernice Counts Pearl Counts.

Wash Hunter Loses Appeal.

Washington, Jan. 16.—The Supreme Court of the United States today dismissed for want of jurisdiction the appeal of G. Wash Hunter, from his conviction of manslaughter in South Carolina.

Hunter was sentenced to the penitentiary for eight years. He was accused of having killed Elbert F. Copeland, near their homes in Laurens county, S. C., in 1906, while the two were playing cards.

Hunter entered a plea of self-defense. The cause was brought to the Supreme court on the claim that several technical errors were committed during the trial.

A Mother's Gratitude

Many a Mother in Bamberg Will Appreciate the Following.

Many a strong man and many a healthy woman has much for which to thank mother. The care taken during their childhood brought them past the danger point and made them healthy men and women. Children are generally bothered at some period with incontinence of urine, and inability to retain it is oftentimes called a habit. It is not the children's fault—the difficulty lies with the kidneys, and can be readily righted if taken in the proper way. A Bamberg mother shows you how.

Mrs. L. B. Fowler, Bamberg, S. C., says: "My daughter suffered from weak kidneys for several years due to an attack of fever. She had but little control over the kidney secretions and often said that her back pained her. Another member of the family had used Doan's Kidney Pills several years previous with great benefit, so I finally went to the Peoples Drug Co. and procured a box. In a few weeks after my daughter began using Doan's Kidney Pills she ceased to complain and now she has no trouble from her kidneys whatever. We never fail to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills with the best of our ability."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
