TO TRADE:—Three hundred head of cattle for city property, also 160 acre farm with crop to trade for cattle. See Richey & DeFreest.

The iris around the dove's neck, the peacock's iridescent beauty and the rainbow tints are all reproduced in the folds of the new novelty suits. We could as easily sketch the shifting beauty of an autumn sunset as describe these loom wonders. Come and see for yourself what art can do.—Jack Porter.

We can sympathize with the little boy who bit his thumb just because it "felt so good when he stopped"—we're in much the same fix on the cloak question. Every time we jab the knife into our cloak profits it hurts, and hurts like fury, too, but our joy will come when we've stopped slashing and our cloak department has been swept clean of its stock.—Jack Porter.

Artesia Racket for a good smoke. tf

My goods are priced to sell quickly.—Artesia Racket store. tf

It whistled itself. That was the little boy's excuse when he accidentally whistled in school. Just so with the serges we told you about—they're selling themselves.—Jack Porter.

Now watch for price tumbling. The harbingers of fall are thickening. Case after case of the prettiest fall wearables are tumbling into our receiving room with price marks that are a revelation. Skill, the power of cash, taste are everywhere visible. Surprises await you in every bundle. Rich, tempting lots come from every box. You'll buy, show to your friends, and they'll in turn send others to secure the prizes that are fast filling counters and shelves.—Jack Porter.

For Sale—40 or 80 Acres.

In the heart of the arbutus belt, about five miles from Roswell, N. M. Convenient to a first class school, a good country road adjoins and runs parallel with the 80 acres of which 40 are under a high state of cultivation, viz., alfalfa, orchard and garden.

The orchard contains the finest and best variety of fruit in this valley, the alfalfa fields are of first class stand and the 40 acres are surrounded by large trees. There is also a five room house, a large cistern, a wind mill and cellar dugout. Stable room for five horses and shedding for carriage, wagons and farming implements. For further information, address O. B. A. P., Care Record office.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

The carriers are paid to deliver your papers regularly and promptly. If at any time there is any fault in the service you should telephone or send word to the office at once, as only in this way can the fault be corrected. You are paying for regular and competent service and should insist that you have it.

Bargain.

Five acres at edge of town, improved, inquire at Record office.

Bargain.

Twenty acres of young orchard near town, artesian water, inquire at Record office.

Joe Bounds will make you a nice fitting suit for very little money.

"Are you a tenderfoot?"—not in the wild western sense, but in the sense of having tender feet. If you are, we want to fit your next pair of shoes for you. There's a great deal in the way a shoe is first put on, and the way the foot settles into it. If it is tight where it should be and loose where it should be there is very little trouble. We make a study of these things.—Jack Porter.

J. G. Betty and F. Pfoff of Hazleton, Kansas, are registered at the Shelby.

Spence Jewell and Alt Moore of Midland, Texas, arrived in the city yesterday.

Messrs. P. M. Meade and A. W. Galbreath of Dallas, are among the new comers.

B. L. Spencer, Mrs. P. Mullins, R. N. Morgan, Bert Roby and J. H. Wise of Portales, are fair visitors.

C. C. Fountaine, who is well known here, is visiting in the city. He makes his home in Amarillo.

Remember the ladies' Presbyterian Society is giving a fine dinner for 35 cents, in the Rufus Smith building.

L. and John Bowman of Cheyenne, Wyo., arrived yesterday and are at the Shelby. They are here on a prospecting trip.

Notwithstanding the large crowd of visitors the city is very orderly and there have been but few arrests. In eastern towns and cities where carnivals are held at the same time the jails have more than they can comfortably handle. Roswell, however is a Territorial town.

L. L. Wells of Henrietta, Texas, is in the city. He is a member of the marble cutting and monument firm of Lea & Wells of this city, being engaged in the same business in Henrietta. Mr. Wells is a son-in-law of Judge Lea, a member of the firm, and will be here for several days.

If you are absent minded don't forget the big mid-way on the lots north of THE RECORD block to-night. Tie a string around your finger. However, this will be hardly necessary as the crowd will remind you that there is something doing. Don't forget Lunette, the flying lady. She arises in mid-air, but we cannot explain it. One word—see Lunette, the wonder.

Rode in From the Fair Grounds.

The order at the fair grounds yesterday was exceptionally good and only one arrest was made and it was only a plain drunk. John Kelly and R. W. Cathey gave a drunken cow boy a free ride and deposited him in jail.

He was doing no particular harm, but the ride and rest was very beneficial.

Has Sailed Already.

R. C. Nisbet received a letter from his wife in which she said she had sailed on the steamer Carpathia, on the 15th, for New York City from Liverpool. The Carpathia is a seven day boat and Mrs. Nisbet's many friends will be pleased to know that she will be in her old place among them in a few days. She will no doubt have many interesting things to tell of her visit to her old Scotland home.

Market Letter.

Kansas City, Mo.,
Sept. 21, 1903.

Special Correspondence to Record.

Cattle receipts at Kansas City last week were 71,400, including 6,000 calves. This was the largest week's receipts of the year, but 22,000 head short of same week last year, which was the record week at Kansas City, Grass cattle, of course, formed most of the supply. Wintered western beef cattle sold 15 to 25 cents lower, and stockers and feeders, owing to the frost scare, and consequent timidity on the part of some of the country buyers, lost 10 to 20 cents. However, the movement was the largest of the year, at 850 cars, and now that the weather has turned warm, and it is plain that corn was affected very little by the frost, dealers expect a larger and more satisfactory business in the immediate future. Fat westerners sold mostly from $4.00 to $4.75, she stuff $2.25 to 3.25 largely, with some sales of heifers on up to $3.55. Western stockers and feeders brought $3.00 to $3.75, with most sales from $3.45 to $3.60. A drove of 936 pound New Mexican feeders sold Wednesday at $3.40, and some Colorado 1,000 pound steers brought $3 75 same day. Choice light veal calves sold higher, and brought up to $6.00. Run to-day is 18,000 head, and market is slow, but prices are mostly steady. The only bear feature to-day was lower reports from Chicago, but with good demand here, and moderate supply for this season, majority of sales were steady.

Sheep run continues less than demand, and market gained 15 to 25 cents last week. The demand from country feeders is extraordinary, but packers were also greedy for supplies, and added a big 25 cents to mutton prices, while feeders are only 10 to 15 cents higher. Western wethers now bring $3.85 for yearlings, and feeding wethers are worth $3.40. Lambs brought $5.00 on various days last week but to day, with a run of 10,000 head, prices are 10 to 15 cents higher, on both sheep and lambs and the latter brought $5.15, top price recently for westerners. Feeding lambs bring around $4, and ewes $2.75 to $3.25, the last price for selected young ewes.

Trade in range horses was limited by the supply, and sales were satisfactory. The season is now getting late for range horses, and dealers advise shippers to figure on lower prices.

Parisian dress stuff novelties crowd the big space set apart for them, a profusion of indescribable beauty. Bars and stripes and pinches of color thrown on with random regularity; loops and knots and tufts and tangles of silky gayness on grounds that bring out every changing tint. An ever varying newness of designs. Odd looks and good looks—never before odder or better. Too full of life and sparkle to fall out of favor.—Jack Porter.

Well! well! well! Where in the world did you get that nice suit of clothes? Why, Joe Bounds ordered it for me.

Big excursion. Date any day this week. Cut rates to all points and on all lines in our great shoe system. Come and procure a cut rate ticket to Solid Comfort, Long Service, Excellent Styles, etc., and all intermediate points.—Jack Porter.

Ask the ladies whence came the beautiful and shapely gloves they wear, and invariably you hear our name. We have made a study of the glove business. We don't sell one kind today and another make tomorrow. We sell always the best.—Jack Porter.

Mrs. E. A. P. Hayes left this morning for her home at Brownfield, Missouri. Her daughters, Misses Florence and Jessie, and son, Frank, will spend the winter in Roswell. They came here for the benefit of her daughters' health, and they have been greatly benefited.
