RUMORS THAT WAR MAY OCCUR AT ANY TIME.

MAKING PREPARATIONS

Both Nations are Getting Ready for a Conflict That May Break Forth at Any Moment.—"Fighting Man" Appointed.

Yokohama, Jap., Oct. 21.—A ministerial conference was held here today at which some naval preparation was made, notably by the appointment of "Fighting Man," to command the standing squadron. These preparations have led to renewal of the anticipation of trouble and some decided developments are expected. A crisis is expected shortly. The steamship and railroad companies have been ordered, it is reported, to be ready for an emergency.

Tokio, Jap., Oct. 21.—Russian military activity on the Korean frontier is unabated. Important news papers are inclined to believe that Russia does not intend to fulfill her promises and it is incumbent on Japan to take decisive steps for the sake of her very existence.

London, Oct. 21.—Report was in circulation on the stock exchange today that negotiations between Russia and Japan had been broken off, but the officials here said they had not heard anything confirmatory of the rumor. They added that Russian advices were contrary to the general trend of the rumor.

WILL NOT

Re-open Case of Marshal Field of Vermont.

Washington, Oct. 21.—Attorney General Knox today advised not to re-open the case of U. S. Marshal Field of Vermont, recently dismissed for neglect of duty in connection with liberating Chinese who were being deported.

BURIED TO-DAY.

Arch Bishop John J. Kain at St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 21.—Funeral services over the body of the late Arch Bishop John J. Kain were held today at the old Cathedral, which was filled to overflowing. Cardinal Gibbons celebrated high requiem mass and was assisted by five arch bishops and a bishop and performed the rite of absolution.

NATIONAL BANK CLOSES.

A Receiver Appointed for One of Pittsburg's Big Institutions. Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 21.—The doors of the Federal National Bank did not open for business this morning. On the doors was posted the following notice:

"Closed by authority of the Comptroller of Currency.—John B. Cunningham, Receiver."

The closing of the bank was decided on at a meeting of the directors last night which did not break up until two o'clock this morning. The bank is a United States depository and in September reported seventy thousand dollars of United States deposit.

Receiver Cunningham thinks that it may be two or three days before he can make any statement as to the bank's condition.

The bank was chartered in 1901 with a capital of two millions. Its last statement to the comptroller gave its resources as $7,693,982. Deposits were nearly two millions.

President J. A. Langwith signed a statement attributing the failure of the bank to business depression which caused the stockholders to throw stock upon the market. This in turn aroused anxiety among the depositors who drew out their money until the bank found it impossible to meet its demands.

CONSOLIDATE INTERESTS.

Baptists are in State Convention in the Breakfast Food Town.

Battle Creek, Mich., Oct. 21.—Many delegates and visitors are here for the sixty-seventh annual Baptist state convention, which will be in session during the next three days. One of the matters of special interest to come before the present convention for consideration and action is the report of a committee of fifteen, appointed to consider methods whereby the various interests of the church may be brought into closer harmony.

TROUBLE IN WACO.

Union Men and Non-Union Men Indulge in a Street Battle.

Waco, Tex., Oct. 21.—A battle occurred here last night between the union men and the non-union men that are now employed on the street car line. In the fight Henry Hayes, a motorman from Bridgeport, Conn., and a non-union man, was fatally shot. The volley was fired from ambush, and returned by the guards. Two men have been arrested on suspicion of shooting the motorman.

MISSIONS REPORT.

Indians Wealthiest People on Face of the Earth.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 21.—The chief feature of today's session of the American Missionary Association was the report of the Indian and Alaskan missions, presented by Rev. Robt. W. McLaughlin of Grand Rapids, Michigan. He emphasized the fact that the Indians, relatively few in numbers—"the negroes number forty times as many as the Indians"—if the money the Indians have in vaults in U. S. Government should be divided equally among them and they should give up separate reservations, as a nation they would constitute the wealthiest people, per capita, upon the face of the globe. The standing problem is to do less for the Indian and how to give him appreciation of his possessions based upon his character. In this respect, the Christian church can do more for him than the government.

MONUMENT TO A HORSE.

A Horse's Memory is Perpetuated by a Monument.

Hagerstown, Ind., Oct. 21.—In honor of his victories on the turf might be perpetuated a monument was unveiled on a well known breeding farm near here today to the memory of Black Frank, a famous trotting horse that died nearly twenty years ago. Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 21.—S. E. Morris, owner of the Indianapolis Evening Sentinel fell from the third story of the Sentinel building this morning and was instantly killed. He had been in poor health for some time. Morris was born in Ft. Wayne in 1852 and was for eleven years a newspaper correspondent. He was one of the founders of the Kansas City Star. From 1893 to 1897 he was U. S. Consul at Paris.

No one saw Morris fall, and his secretary said he probably opened a window for a moment and was overcome by heart trouble. It is said that financial troubles had been working on him of late.

A BIG LAND GRAFT.

Governor Nash Thinks He has Unearthed a Stupendous Ring.

Portland, Ore., Oct. 21.—The Oregonian today says that Governor Nash has unearthed a stupendous land graft ring. The men in this ring have been carrying on business in several well timbered sections on the Pacific slope. The ring has debauched the state land office, and has maintained in the general land office at Washington agents, whose duty it was to "leak" and give out confidential official information, as to proposed reserves and other profitable matters. It is said that the principal figures of the conspiracy live in San Francisco.

NATIONAL BASEBALL MEETING.

Baseball Magnates at the Bat.—Meet Behind Closed Doors.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 21.—Pursuant to the call of August Herrman, chairman of the National Baseball Commission, the chief officials of the major and minor leagues gathered in conference today at the St. Nicholas hotel. The principal work of the meeting is to decide a number of cases of importance, involving players. The magnates met behind closed doors and no statement of the proceedings was issued during the day.

CHASE TRIAL.

Evidence Was Taken This Morning. No Perjury.

Denver, Oct. 21.—The general court martial, which is at present hearing charges against Brig. Gen. Chase of the National Guard of Colorado, spent most of its time this morning in executive session, considering the question of what constitutes a legal oath. F. W. McElroy, the notary of Cripple Creek, whose name appears on the habeas corpus return made by Gen. Chase, which forms the basis of the perjury charge against him, testified that the General admitted the signature to return was his, but also stated that there was no ceremony of swearing to the signature, although Gen. Chase raised his hand and asked McElroy if he wished to swear him. McElroy, however, according to his own evidence, waived this requirement. The attorneys for General Chase took oath, such as perjury could be predicated upon, was lacking. Recess was taken with the matter pending.

This is the Anniversary of Nelson's Great Victory.

London, Oct. 21.—Trafalgar Day, the anniversary of Nelson's great naval victory fought off Trafalgar Oct. 21 1805, was celebrated today in the customary manner. The Nelson monument on Trafalgar Square was decked with wreaths sent from various parts of the world. Nelson's flagship, the Victory, was hung with wreaths at Portsmouth.

ELECTROCUTION AT COLUMBUS.

Ben Wade Pays the Death Penalty for Murder of Kate Sullivan.

Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 21.—With his brother confined in a cell a few yards away awaiting a similar fate, Ben Wade goes to the electric chair in the penitentiary annex today to pay the penalty for one of the foulest crimes committed in Ohio in recent years. Wade has been under sentence of death for more than a year and he entertained hopes to the last that he might escape the chair. His hopes were finally dashed to pieces last week when the Circuit Court refused to grant a stay of execution.

The Wade brothers were convicted of the murder of Kate Sullivan, who lived in a lonely house near Toledo. She and her sister, Johanna Sullivan, were alone in the house on the evening of April 14, 1900, when masked men entered for the purpose of robbery. Before they left, however, Kate Sullivan was clubbed to death and her sister badly injured. Not long after a man named Landon was sent to the penitentiary for some offense, and upon his release he became talkative and gave information which led to the belief that he and the Wade brothers were guilty of the Sullivan murder. All were arrested and all were found guilty of murder in the first degree, but with Landon's verdict there was a recommendation for mercy, and he was sent to prison for life. He was the main witness in the prosecution of the brothers. The date for Albert Wade's execution was set for last June, but a motion for a new trial acted as a stay of execution.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Oct. 21.—The monument erected by the state of Ohio to the soldiers from that state who fought and fell in the battle of Missionary Ridge was formally dedicated today in the presence of a large and distinguished delegation from the Buckeye state. The principal oration was delivered by Gen. Charles F. Manderson, former United States Senator from Nebraska.

The monument occupies a conspicuous site in full view from Chattanooga, Orchard Knob and Lookout mountain. It consists of a colossal obelisk, 80 feet in height, with four bronze figures at the base representing the infantry, artillery and cavalry branches and a drummer boy.

AMERICAN BANKERS

Condemn Over Capitalization.—Good Address.

San Francisco, Calif., Oct. 21.—The American Bankers' Association assembled today in the California Theatre. Prof. Harry Caldwell in his address said over-sanguine people and some probably not over scrupulous had been capitalizing and re-capitalizing schemes of all kinds and inducing people with paper profits to undertake the flotations which they were unable to carry. The boom had gone too far, natural reaction had set in, and a general house cleaning was done where most needed in weeding out over capitalization and inflated securities.

BANK CLOSED.

An Illinois Bank Closes its Doors To-Day.

Joliet, Oct. 21.—The Exchange Bank of Lockport, closed its doors today. The bank was capitalized at $25,000 and deposits were in the neighborhood of $40,000.
