SUNDAY FIGHT.

Sam Clem and John Allison Engage in a Lively Scrap.

Yesterday afternoon there was a lively scrap on Main street in front of Citizens National Bank between Sam Clem and John Allison. The dispute arose out of an alleged board bill Allison owed Clem's mother. Clem was talking to some friends when Allison approached and made himself familiar. Clem told him that the only thing he wanted him to do was to pay his mother $5 he owed her on a board bill. Clem also told him that he owed everybody in town and Allison replied that he was a liar. The dispute became more heated, and Clem struck Allison. There was a lively fight until they were separated by Marshal Rascoe. A few moments later Policeman Cathey appeared on the scene and took a six-shooter off Allison. He gave bond for his appearance before a justice of the peace.

The Felix Land & Cattle Co.,

Offers to sell to actual settlers about 1500 acres of the FINEST IRRIGATED LAND IN THE PECOS VALLEY. PRICES LOW.
