LORIMER MAKES STRONG DENIAL OF USING BRIBERY

Washington, May 28.—A strenuous denial of the charge that he had obtained his seat in the United States senate through bribery and corruption was made before that body today by William Lorimer, of Illinois. His statement had been eagerly awaited by his colleagues and the senate was crowded. In concluding Mr. Lorimer offered a resolution calling for a senatorial investigation of the charges against him.

Mr. Lorimer detailed the facts of the publication in the Chicago Tribune of April 1st, of a story over the signature of Charles A. White, a member of the Illinois legislature, in which it was alleged that Mr. Lorimer had secured his seat in the senate through bribery and corruption.

"The story was timed and published with the deliberate purpose of destroying a new banking association in Chicago which had been organized by some of my friends," said Mr. Lorimer.

Mr. Lorimer defended Lee O'Neil Browne, the Democratic leader of the Illinois house of representatives, through whom it was alleged the bribes had been passed, as entirely above such a proceeding. He declared that Medill McCormick, of the Chicago Tribune, had declared that his bank should never open and also asserted that White did not write the story published, but that "it was the work of a trained newspaper hand, skilled in the art of creating scandal out of lies when it is thought necessary to blacken the character of one of the newspaper cannot control."

He asserted that Representatives Link and Beckmeyer had not made a confession, as has been charged, but on the contrary said the charges stand as they stood on April thirty, the uncorroborated lies of the Tribune, supported only by the bought signature of their weak tool, White.

Senator Lorimer, with increasing vehemence, asserted the Chicago paper "lied and knew that it lied," in charging that money was used to purchase his election.

"Not one dollar was paid a single member of the general assembly to vote for me," he declared.

Mr. Lorimer traced his breach with Governor Benson, whom he charged with personally advising in the preparation of the White story, largely to a difference of opinion between the two as to the wisdom of spending independently of the government the twenty millions pledged by the state towards the deep waterway to the gulf project, which the governor favored and he opposed. He said "the governor joined in this campaign of slander because he saw an opportunity to throw dust in the eyes of the people, to use the conspiracy to defeat those who stood for federal cooperation in expending the twenty million dollars and to secure control of the next legislature. Why he persists in his efforts to get control of the twenty million dollars, when he well knows that in itself it is not sufficient to construct the waterway is a mystery I cannot fathom."

Senator Lorimer's resolution for an investigation of his election was referred, under the rules, to the committee on contingent expenses.

WORK ON THE BIG ENGLE DAM TO BEGIN JULY, 1911.

Washington, May 28.—Preliminary work in connection with the Rio Grande irrigation project will be inaugurated at once by the reclamation service in accordance with the instructions of the Secretary of the Interior. The plan contemplates that actual construction of the foundation of the great Engle dam, the most important engineering feature of the project, shall be begun by July, 1911.

The Rio Grande project will provide for the reclamation of 180,000 acres of land lying in New Mexico, Texas and Mexico. It is estimated that the entire project will cost nine million dollars.

The Engle Dam will be one of the most remarkable structures of its kind in the world. It will have a maximum height of 265 feet and the length of the crest will be fourteen hundred feet. The reservoir created will be the largest artificial body of water in the world.

VERTREES ARGUES IN DEFENSE OF BALLINGER.

Washington, May 28.—Attorney Vertrees, representing Secretary Ballinger, made his argument before the investigating committee today. He referred at length to the land laws of Alaska and said Mr. Ballinger had come into office when the Cuninghame cases had been advanced nearly to completion. He had no interest directly or indirectly in any of these claims. He entered office with the single idea to discharge his duty. If the committee should decide against Secretary Ballinger, asserted Mr. Vertrees, they would have to cast imputations upon every man in the Interior Department who had anything to do with the Cuninghame claims.

against the Secretary. "Guggenheims seems to be the bogey of the West," said Vertrees with emphasis. "I assume he is like other men; he has his virtues and his faults. He built the Alaskan railroad without any stock or bond issue and with his own money and that seems to me to be a good thing."

Washington, May 28.—Oscar Lawler, Assistant Attorney General of the Department of the Interior, today said he had sent to the Ballinger-Pinchot investigating committee and to Christopher H. Connolly and J. R. Connolly, letters disavowing any intention of doing Messrs. Connolly any injustice in his testimony before the committee and withdrawing his remarks, with an apology.
