AN INTERESTING CASE

DECISION IN THE PAINE CONTEST CASE. SUIT WHICH INVOLVES A MILLION.

Judge Green Renders a Voluminous Opinion in Favor of East Guthrie Settlers—Paine Takes an Appeal.

In the district court yesterday an important decision was handed down by Judge Green. It was in the long drawn case of Veeder B. Paine versus John Foster, et al, representing the townsites trustees. The decision was against Paine.

The case was begun in the district court February 4, 1892, and it has been dragging its weary length along ever since. The suit is an important and interesting one, in that it involves land worth over $1,000,000, located on the southwest quarter of section nine, and embracing all that portion of East Guthrie lying south of Oklahoma avenue, east of Division street and west of Capitol Hill.

In the rush to this town on April 22, 1889, Paine planted his stake on the above described tract forty-five minutes before the townsites claimants arrived. The tract was quickly settled, and townsites board No. 6 subsequently received a patent to the land. The board contended that Paine had gained possession of the ground for purposes of speculation and not as a genuine homesteader. Paine at once entered suit through his attorneys, Bierer & Cottler, and voluminous testimony was taken in the local land office, where the townsites trustees were upheld. The case then went to the general land commissioner, who handed down an opinion to the effect that Paine's title was straight and that he was the lawful possessor of the tract.

The secretary of the interior next took hold of the now mooted question and reversed the decision of the general land commissioner, holding from the testimony that Paine had not settled on the land for homestead purposes. In the meantime the case had been docketed in the district court, and the decision of yesterday is the result.

In his opinion Judge Green held that the plaintiff had no cause for action, and the points covered by the secretary of the interior were dwelt upon by him at length. The opinion was a masterly and brilliant statement of the case and the court consumed two and one-half hours in delivering it. The attorneys in the case were Bierer & Cottler and Harper S. Canning, home, representing Paine, and Attorney Horace R. Speed appearing for the townsites board. All the attorneys are deserving of great credit for their zealous and untiring work in the suit. Paine, through his attorneys, appealed the case to the territorial supreme court, and the matter is not likely to stop until it has reached the highest tribunal in the country. However, the settlers on the land in dispute, breathe easier since the decision of yesterday, as an adverse decision would naturally cause them much concern, in that they would either have to vacate the premises or purchase their present abodes from the plaintiff in the case.

LYLE'S EXPERIENCE. An Exciting Tilt With a Cowboy Contestant. J. A. Lyle, attorney of Kingfisher county, had an unpleasant experience at Enid night before last. His father has a valuable claim near the townsite but is contested by a cowboy. J. A. went up from Kingfisher day before yesterday to assist his father, and while he was standing on the depot platform waiting for the train south the contesting cowboy came and began to call him vile names. Lyle undertook to resist the abuse, when the fellow whipped out a revolver, and would have killed Lyle if it had not been for a bystander who struck the cowboy's arm. About that time Lyle's father appeared and knocked the cowboy off the platform onto the rails, jumped onto him and took his gun.

SUPERINTENDENT COUNTY P. R. R. Talley Appointed to That Place By Governor Renfrow. Professor R. R. Talley of Norman, was appointed superintendent of instruction for county P yesterday by Governor Renfrow. Mr. Talley is said to be a learned man and will fill the new office with ability. Crimes at Perry. In the criminal division of Judge Edwards' court yesterday a number of cases were disposed of and several warrants issued for new offenders. D. O. Parks was arraigned for maliciously removing property from a lot. W. A. Sturgis, Barton Smith and James Connors were all found guilty of gambling and were fined $25 each. Warrants were issued for the arrest of J. V. Darling and Will Chandler, charged with carrying concealed weapons. New Indian Lands. The lands of the reservations of the Comanche, Kiowa and Apache tribes and of the Wichita reservation will add 2,000,000 acres more to the new and rapidly growing territory. The holding of the Comanches and Kiowas is in the southwestern part of the territory and directly south of the Cheyenne and Arapahoe country, and includes something like 1,600,000 acres. The Wichitas have 600,000 acres in the same vicinity. This land is richer

WOODWARD'S CHARGE.

Woodward will have backing enough to make a good town. It is the end of a division of the Santa Fe, is the shipping point to Fort Supply, is a land office and county seat town, and is an important shipping point for cattle from the western part of the strip.

Was Not Enthusiastic. The mass meeting called to be held in the court house last evening for the purpose of selecting delegates to the Purcell convention, was not a shining success. Major McNamara and three darbies were the only persons present.

Grand Jury's Report. The grand jury reported seven indictments to the district court yesterday. Another batch of indictments will be handed in today.

Will be Sacra To-Day. Chief Justice Dale and Associate Justice Scott will be sworn in this afternoon and Clerk Edgar Jones will receive his commission.

Supreme Court Reports. Bound copies of the first volume of Oklahoma Supreme Court reports can be had upon application to Edgar Jones, territorial librarian.

Rev. West Exhausted. Rev. West of Stillwater occupied the pulpit of the West side Congregational church last evening and delivered an interesting and able sermon.
