The administration has proved stronger than the united efforts of the silver cranks and Sherman's followers.

This week will witness the formal closing of the greatest fair ever held in the history of the world.

With the repeal of the Sherman act the strain on the national treasury will be relieved and the way opened for the adoption of a measure for the free coinage of the product of the American silver mines.

A special commission of pension examiners is looking up frauds among the Indian home guards at Fort Gibson.

A BILL IS TO BE introduced in congress placing Judge C. G. Foster, United States circuit judge of Kansas, on the retired list.

THEY are having the warmest campaign in recent history in Iowa this fall. The Republicans are making every effort to elect the man debarred from practicing law in the pension department for fraud.

THE Kansas City Star says: Those critics of the administration who are pleased to characterize Mr. Cleveland as a dictator fall, apparently, to remember that the president's influence and force as a leader are directly attributable to the fact that he is in sympathy with the people and stands for their cause.

WELL, WHAT OF IT.

The grand jury, on the United States side of the district court, has taken a ten days' rest. It worked industriously for nearly two weeks—all the time, presumably, on the investigation of the Perry land office.

hold a position of trust against whom there was a reasonable ground of suspicion. As a party organ it rejoices that the officers have withstood the partisan fire of the enemy's guns.

PAPA HAS GONE HOME.

In yesterday morning's LEADER publication was made of two pathetic letters to Captain LeSurr, from his little girl at San Antonio. They were a plea for the liberty of a man imprisoned in the county jail, and tender enough to melt the coldest heart.

PUSTULOUS VAMPIRES.

LEGITIMATE TRADE BEING KNIFE BY POLTROONS.

Widows and Orphans are Systematically Robbed by Craven Scorpions Through the Means of a Moribund Lottery.

THE LEADER'S timely expose yesterday of the dead rank and villainous lottery shop operating with the coolness of the midnight assassin at 117 Second street had the desired effect, and many citizens who had been shamefully and unmercifully fleeced by the groveling liars steered clear of the virulent den during the day.

Bill Dalton is a hunted man. He is engaged in illegitimate business, but he makes no effort about concealing his dark designs. Wherein lies the difference between this pillaging outlaw and the itinerant mountebank, who with a lot of cheap jewelry and brazen gait, flits from town to town, robs the people and knives legitimate trade?

THE LEADER believes in patronizing home industries. Honest merchants who locate in the city, pay occupation tax, and sell honest goods are the people deserving of recognition.

FIVE THOUSAND WHEELS.

THAT IS WHAT THE JURY GAVE J. R. JOHNSON.

Good Work of Attorney Keaton in the Johnson vs. Santa Fe Suit—Furrow-Baldwin Case Dismissed—District Court Proceedings.

In district court yesterday the jury in the case of J. R. Johnson vs. the Santa Fe railroad company brought in a verdict for $5,000 and costs of the suit in favor of Johnson.

The case was one in which Johnson suffered the loss of a leg in the month of February, 1891, by being jolted from a box car near the depot in this city.

Mr. Johnson's attorney, J. R. Keaton, clung to the case with great tenacity, and is deserving of the highest praise for the manner in which he presented his case to the jury.

THE JURY DISAGREED. In the case of Furrow vs. Baldwin, being a suit growing out of a settlement of accounts, the jury disagreed.

J. D. Decker brought suit against John Deemer for attorney's fees. The jury thought Decker was entitled to his money and returned a verdict in his favor for $97.50.

Joe Buber and Albert Ploeger had a falling out over wages due Buber. The latter claimed that Ploeger owed him $60, but when the money was tendered him he refused it and went to law.

Blas of the Cocktail. The damage suits brought by the various members of the Topeka club against the sheriff for disturbing them in their royal American rights to go behind a door and pour out liquor from a black bottle and drink it amount to something over $400,000 says the Kansas City Star.

THE LEADER'S timely expose yesterday of the dead rank and villainous lottery shop operating with the coolness of the midnight assassin at 117 Second street had the desired effect, and many citizens who had been shamefully and unmercifully fleeced by the groveling liars steered clear of the virulent den during the day.

Must Hold Another Election.

Kingfisher Times: It transpires that school districts which have voted a bond tax for building purposes in excess of 4 per cent of the assessed value of property will be compelled to hold another election, as the levy is illegal.

There is Little Wonder.

The Payton comedy company lost $150 in their week's engagement in Guthrie and give the town a hard name as a poor show town. The Heywood company also played to poor business in that town.

Jail Delivery at Chandler.

Six prisoners confined in the Lincoln county jail overpowered Jailer Lockhart Tuesday morning and made good their escape from the bastille. The fugitives are Henry Redmond, Mc-Duff, Henry Collins, Wyman, Harrington and the Collins boys. All were in for cattle stealing and are tough characters.

Commissioners Adjourn.

The board of county commissioners adjourned yesterday after a fifteen days' session. Much business was disposed of. The board meets again January 15.

Hail for Terrill.

I. N. Terrill succeeded in giving $4,000 bail yesterday for his appearance at trial.
