COAL STRIKE SPREADING.

MINERS SLOWLY CUTTING OFF THE SUPPLY.

PRICES UP 150 PER CENT.

Settlement by Arbitration in the West—Majority of the Operators Ready to Agree to This Plan—Strikers Expect the West Virginia Men to Do the Same.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 13.—The miners' strike is causing the price of coal to still advance, and it was selling at $1.50, an increase of 75 per cent since the commencement of the struggle. The feature yesterday in matters relating to the strike was the presence in the city of the joint arbitration board, who are endeavoring by every means possible to bring a reasonable conclusion to the strike now in progress. The board held informal sessions, and in the intervals interviewed quite a number of operators, the big majority of whom are in favor of arbitration, provided all the operators will abide by the decision rendered. One of the dissenters is W. P. DeArmitt, president of the New York & Cleveland Gas Coal company. He declares he has nothing to arbitrate, and says the strike is the result of the machinations of politicians.

The strikers made further advances in getting out practically every miner in the district outside of DeArmitt's men, who still remain loyal to their employers.

At a mass meeting held at West Newton Vice President McKay of the miners' association said he believed the West Virginia miners would be closed down within two weeks. If they are not, he said the railroad men would be called on to bring work to a standstill in that state.

The operators claim the railroad will supply coal sufficient to carry the entire output of the West Virginia fields.

Beyond the strengthening of the miners' lines along the rivers, there was little change in the strike situation yesterday. The ironclad contracts which were in force at several mines in the Monongahela valley were swept out of existence, and the strike was made general in the fourth pool. The Chammond, Apple, Jack Jones and O'Neill's Fayette City mines, which had been running with a light force of men under ironclads, are idle. The men at the Chammond mine were the last to lay down their tools. The miners along the river are re-joining over this victory. The only mine reported in operation in the region is the Legitimate, at Webster. It is a stock company, comprising about seventy-five stockholders, and they are mining their own coal.

There is a strong indication of a coal famine confronting the country within the next ten days. It is claimed by conservative operators that the market supply at present, which is placed at 7,000,000 bushels, would be only able to meet the demands of the market for about a month, under ordinary conditions. With the scarcity of coal already prevailing at the lake ports, it is claimed the supply will not last over two weeks at the longest.

There has been a marked increase in the price of coal within the past few days, and it is claimed that a 10-cent rate per bushel in boatload lots will be reached within the present week. The retail dealers, as well as the operators in general, concede that famine is imminent, and look for prices to advance beyond the limit reached during the previous general strike of the miners in 1891.

Miners' Wages Advanced.
FAIRMOUNT, W. Va., July 13.—The operators of seventeen mines in this county, which constitute the Fairmount coal region, on which the result of the great miners' strike rests, gave an advance of 5 cents a ton today to all the men. This increase in wages, with the 5 cents given the men on Wednesday, brings the price to 40 cents a ton, running coal, which is 13 cents more on the ton than the Pennsylvania and Ohio miners are striking for, when the difference of railroad rates and screening are taken into consideration. Notwithstanding this advance, the sympathies of many are with the strikers, and, although the operators, four of which are already in this region, will have a hard battle if they succeed in getting the men out, that may be the final result.

Governor Atkinson and Adjutant General Appleton of West Virginia are preparing for trouble. Within the week 500 stands of arms have been secured from the government for the militia with 500,000 rounds of ammunition, including Gatling cartridges. The militia will be used as soon as there is any reason for it. All the commanders have been communicated with and ordered to be ready.

50,000 Orangemen in Procession.
BELFAST, July 13.—The usual celebrations in commemoration of the battle of the Boyne took place today. Twenty thousand Orangemen marched in procession, and great crowds filled the streets. Everything passed off in the most orderly fashion.

Conductor Copeland Got of Danger.
MORRIS, Mo., July 13.—Conductor Copeland, who was at first reported killed in the Missouri City wreck a fortnight ago, is now out of danger, though still at the Washburn hospital.

ENDEAVORERS IN A ROW.

ILLINOIS DELEGATION DIVIDES AND ENGAGES IN OPEN WAR.

PRICES UP 150 PER CENT.

San Francisco, July 13.—The rivalries which have existed between two coteries of Chicago Endeavorers since the inception of the California excursion has culminated in open agitation. One faction was headed by the Rev. C. S. Bullock, editor of "The Christian Endeavorer," the other by E. A. Ransom, who represented "The Golden Rule" followers. En route to San Francisco the Chicagoans split at Denver on the Sunday traveling question, the Bullock party arriving at Salt Lake City on Saturday evening and the Ransom party on Sunday evening. At this point the banners, "Illinois Endeavorers," hung from the Bullock coaches, were taken by the Ransom people with the plea that the former did not officially represent the Illinois delegation. The Bullock passengers were all Illinois Endeavorers and maintained their right to organize a separate California excursion and to so designate themselves on their coaches. The banners, however, were not recovered.

The second chapter of this religious war has been written on the Pacific slope. The Bullock party, which arrived two days ahead of the Ransom party, planned, under the leadership of Mr. Bullock, who had been officially assigned to stum meetings in connection with the convention, a series of gospel meetings in Chinatown and similar districts. When the Ransom people arrived they promptly had Mr. Bullock turned down as leader of stum meetings and also ignored him in the Illinois rally Saturday evening.

WILL BEAT JAPAN TO IT.

Men-of-War Sent to Hawaii to Prevent Any Outbreak.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—The administration has taken steps to keep its grip on Hawaii. An aggressive interference on the part of Japan will result in the landing of marines and the hoisting of the American flag, with or without the ratification of the annexation treaty. Rear Admiral Beardsley will have, when the next steamer arrives in Honolulu, instructions giving him power to act at the first sign of aggression on the part of Japan, or trouble of any kind with which the local authorities are not able to cope.

Rear Admiral Beardsley will be given sufficient force to carry out the program that events may force upon him. The battleship Oregon, now en route to San Francisco from Seattle, will be dispatched to Hawaii as soon as she can be prepared for the voyage. This will give Admiral Beardsley three vessels—the Oregon, Philadelphia, and Marston, Japan has at present but one vessel in the harbor at Honolulu.

Rebellion in Hazara.

HAZARA, Island of Japan, Northwest Coast of Honno, July 13.—Matsuloy, the rebel leader, with sixty followers, attacked and burned the government station at Gaya at daybreak yesterday. He looted the town, sacked the treasury of about $10,000, imprisoned the officers in charge and others, and killed a corporal of police. The British resident here has gone to Gaya with a small force of dyakals.

Samuel W. Case Appointed.

HITCHCOCK, Kan., July 13.—Samuel W. Case, of Ottawa, was appointed by the board of managers yesterday to the office of superintendent of the state reformatory, and will take charge of the institution on August 15. He is an old-time reformer and was formerly with the Greenbackers. He was for two terms probate judge of Franklin county and later was a real estate agent. J. C. Little, of Columbia, was appointed clerk.

The Rush-Vandivert Feud.

LARNED, Kan., July 13.—The old feud between J. W. Rush and ex-Judge Vandivert has broken out again, and the citizens of Larned are lining up on the side on which their respective sympathies lead. The latest phase is a suit brought by J. W. Rush against Judge Vandivert for $25,000 for false imprisonment, permanent injury and impairment to health, injury of reputation and standing in the community.

THE YOUNGER CASE HEARD.

THE MINNESOTA PARDON BOARD IN SESSION.

DECISION IS RESERVED.

Protests From Lawrence, Kan., and From Iowa—Hints of Dark Secrets—Against the Two Prisoners—Hoodie Cry Is Started by a St. Paul Paper—The Hearing.

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 13.—The state board of pardons met yesterday afternoon and began consideration of a large number of applications for their official clemency. The one of most prominence is that of Cole and Jim Younger, who have served twenty-one years of their life sentence for complicity in the attempted raid of the Northfield bank. The Younger's application was taken up at once and the presentation of the case and arguments for its support filled the afternoon, being unfinished when adjournment was taken for the day. Much pressure is being brought to bear to secure the pardon of the two surviving Younger boys.

All of the objection does not, however, come from Minnesota. The Youngers have enemies in Missouri and in Kansas. Several letters are on file in the governor's office from men in Lawrence, Kan., which was the scene of Quantrell's raid, in which Cole Younger is accused of participating. Governor Clough received a letter from Lawrence this morning in which the writer declared that it would be an infamous outrage to pardon Cole Younger. Such protests as these are looked upon as the outgrowth of prejudice which antedates any business the state of Minnesota ever had with the Youngers.

In many letters which the governor and the pardon board receives guerrillaism and war spirit is revived. One Iowa man wrote the governor saying that the pardon would again precipitate border if not civil warfare. This individual admonished the governor thus: "We've got those damned out-throat bushwhackers where they belong. Let's keep them there."

It is generally believed that the chances for pardoning the Youngers were injured by a cry of hoodie which was set up by one of the papers here. It was declared that money was about to be used and this is said to have had an effect among Governor Clough's many political enemies in his own party.

It is darkly hinted that there are documents in the archives of the state which always have and always will prevent the pardon of the Youngers. State officials and ex-officials all declare that they have inside facts concerning the depositions of the Youngers that the public knows nothing of. When ex-Governor Merriam was asked to pardon Bob Younger when he was dying in prison he said that there were papers in the vaults of the capitol that would keep the Youngers there until they died.

The state officials will not allow newspaper men or outsiders to see any of the letters protesting against the pardon. They are secretly guarded, as are whatever other documents which are mysteriously mentioned in connection with the talk of pardon.

TURNED UP HIS COAT.

Ned Cheadle's Stories of Hot Weather Too Much.

DECISION IS RESERVED.

A visitor walked into Ned Cheadle's office at the Helm plant the other day, and, wiping his perspiring face, exclaimed: "This is the hottest weather Oklahoma ever experienced."

"Oh, come off," retorted Cheadle. "This is cool to what it was in 1887. I was living at Carthage, Mo., then. Why, it got so hot that the roof of my coal house warped up the wrong way, and all I had to do was to put a couple of end pieces on and convert it into a first-class bath tub."

The visitor looked dazed, but before he could say a word, Ned continued: "It got so hot on July 12th of that year that the sun burned the wood from around a tub of water and left the moisture standing there for three solid hours before it discovered that it could run away. I set tea boiled while it was being carried from the kitchen to the dining room, and the engineer at the four mills saved coal by opening the west door of the engine room every afternoon and letting the sunshine in on the boilers. The only trouble was that he had to keep pouring cold water on the outside of the boiler to keep it from making steam too fast. One afternoon—"

But the visitor turned up his coat collar and fled for the sunny side of the street before Cheadle could tell any more.

President Morrow is an able and impressive speaker, and left many important and helpful "little things" in the minds of his hearers.

UP AGAINST IT.

Queda Springs Whist Contests a Victory for Kansas.

QUEDA SPRINGS, Kan., July 13.—Chief Justice Frank Dale and Attorney General Harper Cunningham, of Oklahoma, came up from Guthrie Sunday morning, as per announcement in the Eagle, to teach the Kansas crowd at Queda a lesson at whist. Those two men have never been beaten at the popular game in Oklahoma. But Oklahoma is Oklahoma, and Kansas is another place with an entirely different crowd of whist players.

When it became known here that the Oklahoma champions were coming up to clean out the Kansas crowd, Judge Dale telephoned County Attorney Amidon, of Wichita, for reinforcements.

Mr. Amidon arrived here Sunday morning with his sleeves rolled up. He and Judge Dale pitched up together and in the language of the immortal Don Quixote, they didn't do a thing to the Oklahoma fellows. Out of six games of duplicate whist the Oklahoma men took one back to Guthrie last night, and the Kansas crowd said that they let the Guthrie officials have this one so they could prove on their return that they had actually been to Kansas.

Kansas 5, Oklahoma 1—and that's the way Dale and Cunningham taught the Kansas crowd to play whist.

COULSON OBJECTS.

Populist Assessor of Woods County on His Part.

ALVA, July 13.—George H. Coulson, Populist assessor for Woods county, attacks the administration for increasing the assessed valuation of property owned by citizens and failing to increase the valuation of railway property. In a newspaper article he says: "The territorial board of railroad and telegraph assessors met and assessed the railway and telegraph property lying in Woods county by reducing the assessment of last year $23,728.80. Our township assessors also made a reduction in the assessment of all other property in the county, and when the county board of equalization met, after much deliberation, wisely decided that in view of the low railroad valuation and the existence of a law which did not allow them to materially change the aggregate valuation of the county, that they would not change the valuation as returned by the assessors. And now I am notified by the territorial board of equalization to add 41 per cent to the valuation of all property in the county except railroad and telegraph property, which remains at the reduced valuation. The corporations are in the saddle, and unless you demand through your ballots that they get off and let you ride a while you may expect to continue legless and footless."

CROPS THE PAST WEEK.

How Observer Widemeyer Sizes Up Conditions.

For the week ending Monday, July 12, 1897.

The weather continued generally hot and dry until Saturday, when the wind changed to the north, bringing much cooler weather and local showers.

With the exception of the western sections, where comparatively heavy rains occurred during the first of the week, drouthy conditions generally prevailed. The local showers during Saturday and Sunday did much good to corn, but the areas over which they fell were limited and the need of a heavy general rain is becoming more apparent every day.

The average temperature for the week, 81.3 degrees, is 1.6 degrees above normal.

Early upland corn is needing rain badly; late corn continues to grow and generally shows healthy color. Cotton is making a fine growth, showing improvement daily. Haymaking and threshing are the principal work being done. Hay is good, but pastures are beginning to show the effect of drouth.

There is some complaint that the heat is affecting unfavorably late peaches and vineyards, causing fruit to wilt and fall, but as the trees and vines are generally overladen, this may in the end prove beneficial.
