

Not what you pay for Coffee, but what
 Coffee pays you.

There are two values to every article—what it costs and what it's worth.
 Cork costs 8 cents a pound, but if you are drowning half a mile from shore, its value would be "not what you pay for cork but what cork pays you."
 You are not drowning, but you are using up strength and vitality in your daily work. You are getting back that strength and vitality in part from your morning cup of coffee.
 It makes little difference what you pay for it; the important question is "What does it pay you?" You can see the strength you have, but you can't see the increased strength you would get if you drank

A PROCLAMATION.

For Arbor Day as Issued By Governor Barnes.

Governor C. M. Barnes yesterday evening announced the following proclamation, naming Friday, March 23, as Arbor Day:

"Heaven and earth helps him who plants a tree,
 And his work his own reward shall be."

The people of Oklahoma are justly proud of the beauty of the natural scenery in the territory—of the sparkling streams, rolling prairies and wooded parks—and take great comfort and pleasure in the many natural advantages of their flourishing young commonwealth of the territory.

Therefore, in accordance with the time honored custom, now observed in most of the states of the union,

And while nature has bestowed beauty and variety upon our landscape, there is much to be done by our citizens which will add to the beauty and comfort and wealth of our territory.

I, C. M. Barnes, governor of the Territory of Oklahoma, do hereby proclaim Friday, March 23, 1900, as Arbor Day. I recommend that the day be observed in the planting of trees, shrubs and vines, in the adornment of public and private grounds, parks and private grounds, parks and ways, thus rendering the homes of our people and our entire territory more beautiful and attractive.

I also recommend that the day be made a festival occasion in the schools and educational institutions of the territory, with exercises of such a character as will impress its beneficent object upon the minds of the pupils and instill therein a greater love of the beautiful.

In testimony whereof I have set my hand and caused the seal of the territory to be affixed, this, the 2nd day of March, 1900. C. M. BARNES, Governor.

W. M. JENKINS, Secretary of the Territory.

My Experience

is that most men's hearts is located a heap sight nearer their britches pockets than their breast pockets. And in these days when a dollar costs one-hundred cents, it is well to remember that there are one-hundred doses in a bottle of Orloff's Russian Grippe, Cough and Croup Cure, price 50c, and that 20 drops is a dose, instead of a teaspoonful, as in the style remedial.

FROM GUTHRIE OKLAHOMA.

Too much praise cannot be given Orloff's Russian Grippe Cough and Croup Cure. I have never used anything that would cure a cough or cold and what is now commonly called the "GRIPPE," as it does.

H. C. R. Brodboll, of Ponca City, vice president of Oklahoma, realizing the importance of the session of the Trans-Mississippi Commercial congress at Houston, has undertaken to organize a representative delegation from the territory. He has asked for special rates on the railroads and has received assurances that very low rates will be offered. He has begun the work of creating interest by writing letters extensively to the numerous towns of Oklahoma and has assurances that many Oklahomans will attend.

In 1893 three Irishmen agreed to undertake a journey around the earth on foot for a jackpot of $150,000. Each one of the party deposited one-third of this sum in the Bank of Dublin, and it was agreed that whoever survived the trip and returned should receive the whole amount. In case all died a Dublin hospital was to become the beneficiary. On Dec. 24, 1895, they started east across Europe and Asia Minor to Egypt, where they took passage for Australia. Their wanderings through the inner wastes of Australia proved the hardest trials of the journey, and the severity of this trip resulted in the death of two of the travelers. The third, Capt. Trevelyan, completed the voyage and won the money. —New York Press.

CHECK

For Six Millions Given W. S. Stratton for a Gold Mine.

Scrapps-McRae League.
 Colorado Springs, March 18.—The largest check issued in payment for an American gold mine has just been received by W. S. Stratton of Colorado Springs. It was executed by the Venture corporation, limited, of London, in final payment for Stratton's Independence mine at Cripple Creek. The mine was sold a year ago for $10,000,000. Stratton says the price was too low. Stock value has added 40 per cent to this price. Dividends aggregating $1,404,000 have been paid in nine months and $8,000,000 dollars in ore is in sight. The mine is not yet 1000 feet deep. [Stratton resided in Norman in 1892-93.]

Trans-Mississippi Congress.

The Transmississippi congress meets in Houston, April 17, 18, 19, 20 and 21, 1900. Last year this congress held in Wichita and all know of its success there.

Houston people are making elaborate preparations for entertaining the delegates, and the congress this year promises to far exceed any of the previous meetings. Many Oklahomans will go and partake of the southern hospitality.

Every county should have a good representation at this congress. Each county may appoint one delegate through its executive officer, every business organization one delegate, with an additional delegate for every fifty members, the mayor of each city appoints one delegate.

Oklahoma should send a strong delegation to Houston and get the congress interested in statehood and free homes. Subjects for discussion taken in anything which is not of a political or local nature, and free homes and statehood would come under that head. Every delegate from Oklahoma should be furnished a badge for free homes and statehood.

Hon. H. C. R. Brodboll, of Ponca City, was chosen at the Wichita meeting as vice-president of the association for Oklahoma, and he may be addressed by anyone desiring information as to furnishing any part of an exhibit of products, or information regarding delegations. Anyone desiring information may also address Tom Richardson, secretary, Houston, Tex.

Great French Disaster.

Twenty-five thousand French prisoners were taken by the German troops at the battle of Sedan, in the Franco-German war, on the 31st of August, 1870, while on the following day, as the result of the German victory, other 83,000 French soldiers surrendered, together with 70 mitrailleuses, 400 field-pieces and 150 fortress guns. About 14,000 French wounded were found lying on the battlefield and about 3,000 escaped into Belgium and laid down their arms. On the 27th of October, in the same year, Marshal Bazaine, after fighting and suffering several defeats in the neighborhood of Metz, surrendered with his army, including Marshals Canrobert and Le Boeuf, 66 generals, about 6,000 officers, and 175,000 men, including the Imperial Guard, 400 pieces of artillery, 100 mitrailleuses, and 53 eagles or standards.
