POLICE COURT.

Five disturbers of the peace of the city appeared in police court this morning and each one received a remembrance from Judge Olmuth. Patrick O'Donald and his partner, D. J. Parker, were arrested for being drunk and using the Santa Fe depot as a lodging place. They were removed from the depot at 10:30 last night and assisted to the jail. Both declared they were not drunk and plead not guilty. The cases were set for 5 o'clock this afternoon. Richard Hamilton and John Finnegan were each assessed $10 for being drunk. Earl Scanlon threw stones at a neighbor's house yesterday and was fined $5.

PILLSBURY'S FLOUR

You may as well try to keep-house without a cook stove as without first class bread and nice bread cannot be made without using the best Flour. It makes no difference what your yeast is, or how good a cook you have, if you have not the right Flour you have poor bread. Probably no one article entering into housekeeping causes more trouble and divides more families than poor bread. About the first question asked of an applicant for the position of cook is "Can you make nice bread?" and the reply generally is, "Yes with nice Flour." Any lady would be amply justified in discharging a cook if she did not make nice bread with
