THE NERVOUS MAN.

His Complaint and How the Noisy Nuisance Was Remedied.

He was a nervous man, and he had just moved into a new boarding house. "Isn't there any way to stop those people across the street from having their coal delivered at 5 o'clock every morning? They seem to get about a dozen tons a day and to have it poured into the cellar at that unearthly hour."

"I don't see how I can very well control the neighbors," replied his landlady, "but I will see if anything can be done."

About ten days later the new boarder had occasion to thank her for her efforts.

"I'm glad you succeeded in having that noise stopped," he said, "it is a great relief to me. Have they got their coal all in or do they have it delivered at some other time?"

"Neither," said the landlady, "they deliver it every morning at 5 o'clock, just the same as usual."

"You don't mean—why—well, how do they get it down without making any sound?"

"They don't. It sounds just the same, but you have grown accustomed to it."

"I find it hard to believe that."

"Set your alarm clock at 5 for a few mornings and satisfy yourself. I've rented that room before."—New York Sun.

Feeling the Fox. The expression "as cunning as a fox" has passed into the language, but as is the case with most extra cute gentlemen, there are occasions when Master Reynard overreaches himself. Any visitor to the country who has ever examined a chicken house in the middle of a field has probably noticed two or three short pieces of chain hanging over the hole by which the fowls enter. Although they form no obstacle to the birds, who push their way in without the faintest difficulty, they will infallibly prevent a fox from raiding the house. The latter in his superior wisdom takes them to be a trap for his own side hungrily "heking his chops" outside will induce him to put his head through the chains, truly a case of a little learning being a dangerous thing.—Peas' Weekly.

SIX, SEVEN AND EIGHT.

His Horses, His Carriages and His Reserve Fund. Townsend Percy, speculator and promoter, who made and lost more than one fortune in the course of his life, used to be fond of repeating some of his mother's witticisms at his expense, generally brought about by his extravagances during his periods of prosperity. Once Percy had driven four-in-hand for a year, when an unfortunate deal made it necessary for him to reduce his expenditures and sell his horses, on which occasion she said to him:

"Townsend, don't you think it would be better to drive one horse four years instead of four horses one year?"

Another time, when on the verge of financial crash, Percy still owned a considerable stable and gave no outward sign of pecuniary embarrassment. His mother met an old friend of the family about this period, who congratulated her on her son's success in life. "I am glad that Townsend is doing so well," said the friend.

"Yes, indeed," remarked the old lady, "Townsend has six horses and seven carriages and $8."—Harper's Weekly.

Checking a Husband.

A well known after dinner speaker in New York said the other day: "Choosing a husband is like choosing mushrooms. If it is a mushroom you live; if it is a toadstool you die."

When the Stomach, Heart, or Kidney nerves get weak then these organs always fail. Don't drug the Stomach, nor stimulate the Heart or Kidneys. That is simply a makeshift. Get a prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The Restorative is prepared expressly for these weak inside nerves.

Strengthen these nerves, build them up with Dr. Shoop's Restorative—tablets or liquid—and see how quickly help will come. Free sample sent on request by Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Your health is surely worth this simple test. All Dealers.

"He Never Said Turkey to Me Once." This saying was more familiar to the former than to the present generation, but comparatively few people know its origin.

An Indian and a white man who were hunting together killed a crow and a turkey.

The white man said to the Indian, "You may take the crow and I'll take the turkey, or I'll take the turkey and you may have the crow."

The Indian replied, "May be all right, but you don't say turkey to me once."—St. Louis Republic.

The finest Coffee Substitute ever made, has recently been produced by Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis. You don't have to boil it twenty or thirty minutes. "Made in a minute," says the doctor. "Health Coffee" is really the closest Coffee Imitation ever yet produced. Not a grain of real Coffee in it. Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure roasted cereals or grains, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—were he to unknowingly drink it for Coffee. Bank Grocery.

Have you seen the Pensacola movement? Works out all in. Watson is pairing also. W. P. Powers, 118 East Oklahoma Ave.

The Ground Hog's Sleep. The woodchuck is a curious shift, a case of nature outdoing herself. Winter presses far and fast, and woodchuck, in order to keep ahead of danger, would need wings. Must he perish then? Winter spreads far, but does not go deep—down only about four feet, and woodchuck, if he cannot escape overhead, can perhaps go under land. So down he goes through the winter, down into a mild and even temperature. For long feet away—about 48 ft. away from the snow and cold as bobolink among the reeds of the distant Orinoco. Indeed woodchuck's is a farther journey and even more wonderful than bobolink's, for these feet carry him beyond the bounds of time and space into the mysterious realms of sleep, of suspended life, to the very gates of death. That he will return with bobolink, that he will come up alive with the spring out of this dark way, is very strange.—Dallas Sharp in Atlantic.

A tickling cough, from any cause, is quickly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe that Dr. Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation, even to very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a long-healing mountainous shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough, and heals the sore, and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Simply a resinous plant extract, that helps to heal the aching lungs. The Specialists call this shrub which the Doctor uses, "The Sacred Herb." Always demand Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. All Dealers.

New Oliver No. 5

Sets Swiftest Pace Ever Known in Typewriter Selling

The wonderful new model, Oliver No. 5, has taken the market by storm. Its reception by the public has exceeded in enthusiasm anything we had dared to anticipate.

Employers and stenographers alike have welcomed it as the one machine that answers the multiplied needs of the hour.

The cry is for Speed! Speed! Speed!—and the Oliver responds. The demand for Durability is filled by the sturdy, steel-cleaved Oliver. To a call for a writing machine that will do many things and do each of them equally well, the Oliver answers with its unexampled versatility.

Its visible writing saves the strain on eye and brain.

Its legibility lends beauty to its work. The letters that bear the Oliver imprint are the letters that mean in work.

Oliver No. 5 fairly bristles with new and exclusive time and money saving features. We have space to mention only a few of the more important ones.

—Disappearing indicator shows exact printing point.

—Balance Shifting Mechanism saves operative effort.

—Line Ruling Device is fine for tabulated work.

—Double Release doubles convenience.

—Non-Vibrating Base insures stability. Yet with all these added improvements, we have still further simplified the Oliver—by fusing brass with metal.

Oliver No. 5 is a dream come true. The dream of Thomas Oliver crystallized into this wonderful mechanism of shining steel that embodies every possible requirement of a perfect writing machine.

Ask the nearest Oliver agent for a Free Demonstration of Oliver No. 5. Or send for The Oliver Book—yours for a postal.
