NOTES AND PERSONALS OF SOCIETY

Lenore Burke Phone 245
COURAGE.

Be not discouraged with thy doubt, O soul; Perchance the hand of God it is that leads Thy faith to nobler creeds and broader trust.
Part of thy manhood is to doubt and solve And rise to higher things. For comwebs hang
About the intellect as in a court But little used, and we must let the sun Pour in, and conquer mirk and mist and night.
The creed thy father built, where his soul
Did live and move and find its vital joy.
May be but small to thee; then, without fear, Build o'er again the atrium of the soul
So broad that all mankind may feast with them.
—William Ordway Partridge.

Music Recital.
The program given by Miss Ruth Brown, assisted by Miss Ruth Upham, reader, at the Knauess Recital Hall last evening was one deserving much credit. Miss Brown played each of her numbers in such a way as to receive much praise from her audience.
She has studied under Miss Hazel Lee for the past four years and next year

Town Boomer Here.
Conh Sarcnet, the man who put Oilton on the map is here today on business. He is now busy booming Panama.

store leaves Saturday evening, July 3rd for Chicago and other points east, where he will spend a two weeks vacation.

Miss Vesta McNulty of Browns ribbon and lace department is taking her vacation.

The newest and most striking novelty among the stores now is the new Garden skirt. They are made of various colored tapestry fabrics and cretonnes in large floral effects.
Crowns have an exquisite showing of these new materials.

A. B. Baker's wife and son William have returned home from a five weeks' vacation which she spent with her folks in eastern Oklahoma.

LOCAL MOMENT

"It pays to advertise in The Daily Leader" said Cal-Minner today. "Yesterday I put a rent ad in The Leader and the place was rented within three hours."

Oklahoma City police are watching the "high toned" immoral resorts.
Chief of police says all those arrested will be tried under their "true name" no John Doe business will go.

The ladies of the city federation of clubs will give a Home Demonstration luncheon, July 3, when the flou-er show is staged. The luncheon will really be a very fine dinner.

There is a 10 mile speed ordinance in force in Guthrie, but it is not enforced. It will require a tragedy or two before it is finally enforced.

The City Federation will give a Home Products Luncheon in the room formerly occupied by J. J. Abell next Saturday.

Farmers who overlooked the cap sheaf when shocking their wheat are paying for the oversight now. It will be necessary in many cases to re-shock. The continued damp weather and excessive rains has caused the wheat to heat.

CUPID GETS CAPTAIN "PINK" OF WEST POINT

Capt. Francis Clark Harrington. Miss Eleanor Crozier Reysburn.

Captain Francis Clark Harrington, instructor of mathematics at West Point, and during the latter part of the administration of President Taft military attaché at the White House, made up his mind long ago to remain a bachelor. His friends were convinced that his decision was unalterable. His association with mathematics, which is a notoriously cold science, confirmed them in this opin-

DARKEN GRAY HAIR, LOOK YOUNG

By Applying Q-Ban—Not a Dye—Harmless—Changes All Your Gray Hair to a Soft, Beautiful Dark Shade.

Don't look old—look young—so if your hair is wispy, thin, falling, gray, streaked with gray, faded, dry, prematurely gray, to restore to original dark color, simply shampoo hair and scalp a few times with Q-Ban Hair Color Restorer. All your gray hair will then become beautifully darkened, lustrous, soft, fresh, wavy, with that dark lustrous gloss making entire head of hair evenly darkened, fascinating and attractive. Also stops itching scalp, dandruff and falling hair. Q-Ban is not a dye, but acts on the roots, making hair healthful, so that gray hair naturally turns beautifully dark, so evenly that no one can tell it has been used. Q-Ban is not sticky or messy; harmless and is guaranteed to darken gray hair.
Try it at our risk. Big 7-oz bottle only 50 cents. At Eagle Drug Store, 106 W. Harrison, Guthrie. Out-of-town folks supplied by mail. Call or write, asking for Q-Ban Hair Color Restorer.

TOPICS OF THE TOWN AND STATE.
