BAILEY, OF PENNSYLVANIA, DECLARES CONGRESS WILL OPPOSE PRUSSIANIZATION

Washington, D. C., Nov. 15.—Representative Warren Worth Bailey, of Pennsylvania, who has been active in sounding out sentiment among democratic members of the house on the issue of preparedness, has returned to the capital, and is preparing to aid Bryan in his campaign against the administration's program, which, Mr. Bailey declares, is a menace, not merely to the future of the democratic party, but to the welfare of the country. He said today:

"While I am not positively advised that all of the democratic members with whom I have been in correspondence and who assured me some weeks ago that they were opposed to increased expenditures on army and navy are of the same mind today, letters which have reached me recently lead me to believe that those who were antagonistic to military and naval expansion a month or so ago are still unfavorably disposed toward a program which contemplates the Prussification of this republic."

This statement was made by Mr. Bailey soon after arriving in Washington from his home in Johnstown, Pa.

"The people out my way do not take kindly to the plan of spending $450,000,000 on the army and navy next year," continued the Pennsylvanian. "The attitude they held in September, when I traversed the district thoroughly, appears to be the attitude they hold now."

"The leading democratic papers of the district are flat-footedly hostile to military and naval expansion. The republican papers seem to be hoping that the extravagant program which has been framed up by the war trust for presentation to congress will split the democratic party, and thus open the way for a return of the republican party to power. Very few, if any, of these papers are outspoken for a larger army or a more formidable navy. Their expressions on the subject are, in the main, so guarded as to suggest that they fear overtly to endorse a program which the people they serve do not look upon with favor. Great glee possesses them, however, in contemplating the possible division this issue will create in the party now in power."

Mr. Bailey declined to confirm the from a number of democratic members in addition to those whom he originally addressed, all of them signed.

GIVES REPORT OF G. A. R. MEET AT WASHINGTON

MRS. FURROW ADDS INTEREST TO REGULAR CIRCLE MEET

Mrs. E. H. Furrow entertained the Ladies of the G. A. R. Circle last Saturday at the Carnegie library by a splendid report of the grand national convention of the Grand Army of the Republic, the Ladies of the G. A. R. Circle and the Women of the Relief Corps. Mrs. Furrow was delegate to the Ladies of the G. A. R. Circle and has always been prominent in local and state work, is officially connected with both, and always promoting the spirit of patriotism among the children of the public schools.

This was Mrs. Furrow's first trip to Washington, so that the trip had an added charm, besides the historical significance of the national pageant and the personal interest as the wife of a veteran of the Civil War. For Mr. Furrow was one of the comrades who marched in that great historic parade and review when the grandest army that the world ever saw, was mustered out of grim visaged war to take up the arts of peace; so it was almost a holy pilgrimage to all the women and ladies auxiliary, as well as to the comrades and old veteran survivors who again took up the march with Old Glory there to wave until time shall be no more.

A Carranza army is on the way to this city, which has been under the control of Pancho Villa ever since the revolution against Huerta began.

Villa's men have charged the race track management $100 a day for the privilege, but they have permitted a large poolroom to run in the town, and that has hurt the attendance at the track. This room was owned by a young man who once helped Villa escape from jail in Chihuahua. As a reward he was given the best gambling privilege in the city. Should Carranza take Juarez there is little doubt that Villa's gambling friend will have to get out. That is why the race track men believe this will be the most successful meet in the history of the track.

REXALL DRUGGISTS TO MEET IN TULSA

A. E. Gray, proprietor of Gray's Rexall Drug store, has returned from Oklahoma City where he attended the 5th annual convention of the Oklahoma Rexall stores, of which there are nearly 200 in the state. The next meeting of the club will be held in Tulsa, that city being chosen on motion made by Mr. Gray. Since the organization of the club five years ago the meeting place has been in Oklahoma City.

Were the ballot boxes opened and the ballots fixed after the precinct election officers made their returns to the county board?

MIZE CONTEST CASE NOW IN JURY'S HANDS

LARGE NUMBER WITNESSES EXAMINED IN SHERIFF ELECTION CONTENTION

That is the theory advanced by counsel for Wm. Sherwood, who is being contested for the office of sheriff of Logan county by Claude Mize, of Crescent City, who opposed Sherwood in the election a year ago.

The case is now up to the jury to determine.

Taking of testimony in the contest case began Thursday last.

Many witnesses were examined. All precinct election officers have testified and all have sworn that there was no friction during the day of the election and that an honest effort was made to conduct a fair count.

On the race of the returns last November, Claude Mize, democrat, was defeated by Wm. Sherwood, republican, by the close margin of 14 votes. Later Mize began a contest. The hearing was put off from time to time until a year, almost to a day, had elapsed. Then Judge Huston decided that the ballots should be re-counted in eight precincts and this was done in open court. The result gave Mize a lead of 38 over Sherwood. The case was closed today and is in the hands of the jury. The question is, according to the theory advanced by counsel for Wm. Sherwood, who is being contested for the office of sheriff of Logan county by Claude Mize, of Crescent City, who opposed Sherwood in the election a year ago.

The well is said to be nearly as large as the monster flow brought in a week ago on the Myers tract, northwest of 5-28-1. Gas was struck by the Jones drillers at a depth of 1,900 feet. The well is located thirteen and one-half miles from Newkirk, fourteen miles from Blackwell and sixteen miles from Arkansas City.

MURDERER MUST SERVE LONG SENTENCE

Conviction of Crockett Taylor in the district court of Pottawatomie county on a charge of killing Mrs. Harrison and his sentence of 10 years in the penitentiary was affirmed in the criminal court of Pottawatomie county by Presiding Judge E. Doyle Friday afternoon. He reserves clemency from Governor Dagg, who will now have to sign his sentence.

The killing of Mrs. Harrison took place during a free-for-all fight at a dance near Ada on the night of February 18, 1911. She was shot through the head, dying instantly. Her husband and two small children were with her at the time. Two others were accused with Dagg. Their cases are still pending.

GIVES GOOD ADVICE FOR SCHOOL RALLIES

In a letter to her teachers concerning the educational rallies to be held in Logan county, Miss Margaret Doolittle, county superintendent, said: "I should go to see Mr. Smith, who always talks in public, and get him to talk on the extravagant habits of children and how we can correct such habits. If this subject does not suit let him select his own subject. I should then secure another speaker to discuss 'Thrift.' I should see Mrs. Jones, a former school teacher, and have her contrast present schools with those of twenty years ago. The Rev. Mr. Wood would be asked to attend and give a short general talk on benefits of good schools. I would have some choice readings from magazines and some good music. I would make a speech myself, outlining the things we have already accomplished and telling what we hoped and expected to do."

Rev. Proctor is a Guthrie booster and now says he knows Guthrie is the best place in the state to live and his congregation, though small, is like gold money.

WILSON GOES TO RESCUE OF POSTAL CLERK

ASKS THAT BURKITT BE REINSTATED AT WINNETKA OFFICE

HOWEVER, OTHER CHARGES PREVENT

POSTOFFICE DEPARTMENT SAYS ACCUSATIONS MUST BE INVESTIGATED

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, Nov. 16.—President Wilson today instructed Postmaster General Burleson to reinstate George Burkitt, who was removed as assistant postmaster at Winnetka, Ill., because he criticized the president for his engagement to be married. The president qualified his instructions by telling Postmaster General Burleson that Burkitt should be restored to his position if there were no other charges against him.

Investigation First.
Washington, Nov. 15.—Later the postoffice department announced that it would not restore Burkitt until an investigation was held. It is alleged there are other charges against him.

Purely Political Says Burkitt.
Chicago, Nov. 15.—Burkitt said: "I am a hold over from previous administration. Winnetka citizens will testify that my inefficiency is purely political."

Washington, Nov. 16.—A statement was issued at the white house Sunday night saying that the action of Postmaster A. M. Kloefer of Winnetka, Ill., in removing his assistant from office because he criticized President Wilson's engagement to be married was taken "without the authority or knowledge of the president."

Published reports thought the incident to the attention of the white house officials Sunday and at the same time it was learned that the dismissed assistant postmaster, Geo. Burkitt, has vainly appealed to the postoffice department to overrule his superior.

Postmaster Kloefer, according to published correspondence, called upon Burkitt to explain a remark credited to him that the president should "wait at least a year before remarrying." Burkitt admitted making the statement in the course of a general conversation in the postoffice but he denied that he meant any disrespect.

The postmaster then charged him with disloyalty and calling attention to demerits placed against his record for "unsatisfactory service," asked for his resignation.

In appealing to the postoffice department Burkitt protested that his removal had been irregular; that no formal charges had been filed against him and that he had been given no opportunity to reply. Daniel C. Roper third assistant postmaster general, is
