TRUSTEE'S SALE.—WHEREAS Peter Springston and Landonia B. Springston, his wife, by their deed of trust dated February 7, 1867, and recorded in the recorder's office of the county of Lincoln, State of Missouri, in book No. 2, page 208, did convey to A. V. McKee the real estate hereinafter described, to secure the payment of a certain promissory note therein described, and whereas said note is due and unpaid, now therefore, at the request of the legal holder of said note, and by virtue and authority in said deed contained, notice is hereby given that I, the undersigned trustee, will, on Wednesday, July 17, 1874, between the hours of ten o'clock in the forenoon and four o'clock in the afternoon of said day, at the court house door in the town of Troy, in said county and state, sell at public vendue to the highest bidder for cash the following described real estate, situate in Lincoln county, Missouri, and within the corporate limits of the town of Troy, to-wit: A piece or parcel of land adjoining a piece sold by Fred Cottle to Wm. A. Jackson by deed dated the 10th day of September, 1858, and described by metes and bounds and calls as follows: Beginning at the southeast corner of said Jackson's land and running east on a line and parallel with the Troy and Cap au Gris road one hundred yards, thence northwardly to a piece of land formerly owned by H. B. Wing and Fred W. Wenz, (now by J. D. Brown), said line running northwestwardly from said road, being the same width and distance from said Jackson's line across the whole piece from the road to where it joins (or intersects) the Wing land, thence westwardly on a line with said Wing land to said Jackson's northeast corner, thence southwardly on a line with said Jackson's to the place of beginning; also a piece of land described as follows: Commencing at Wm. M. Welch's (now Wm. Colbert's) southeast corner running eastwardly from said Welch's line fifty-seven yards, one foot and nine inches to a corner, thence north to the Cap au Gris road one hundred and fifty-seven yards and four inches, thence west to said Welch's northeast corner one hundred and thirty-one yards, thence south on said Welch's line one hundred and ninety-seven yards and four inches to the place of beginning, and containing in both the above described tracts about seven acres, and being the same premises on which said Springston now resides.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.—WHEREAS Duncan Ellis and his wife Mary Ellis, by their deed of trust, dated January 1, 1873, and recorded in book 2 on page 211 in the recorder's office of Lincoln county, Missouri, did convey to the undersigned the real estate hereinafter described in trust to secure the payment of a certain promissory note therein described, and whereas said note is due and unpaid, now therefore at the request of the legal holder of said note, and by virtue and authority and power in said deed contained, notice is hereby given that on Tuesday, June 23, 1874, between the hours of nine o'clock in the forenoon and five o'clock in the afternoon of that day at the court house door in Troy, Lincoln county, Missouri, I will sell at public vendue to the highest bidder for cash in hand, the following described real estate, to-wit: Beginning at a stake on the western line of land known as the home tract of land a part of which is now owned by John C. Downing, and being the northeast corner of a tract of land sold by John P. Ellis to Henry Price, from which stake an elm, 12 inches in diameter, bears north 79 degrees east, 1 link and a black oak 12 inches in diameter bears south 61 degrees west 25 links; thence south 70 degrees west 24 chains and 62 links to a stake from which a white oak 9 inches in diameter bears south 58 degrees east 21 links and a white oak 7 inches in diameter bears north 87 degrees west 28 links; thence north 24 degrees west 10 chains and 63 links to a rock at the root of a sugar tree 14 inches in diameter; thence north 68 degrees east 24 chains and 30 links to rock from which a sugar tree 12 inches in diameter bears south 15 degrees east 20 links and a mulberry 10 inches in diameter bears north 33 degrees east 8 links; thence south 24 degrees east 11 chains and 68 links to the place of beginning; containing 27 2/100 acres being in survey No. 1767, in township 31 range 1 west.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.—WHEREAS

Elas J. Fisher and Elizabeth E. Fisher his wife, by their deed of trust dated on the 12th day of September, 1860, and duly recorded in the Recorder's office of Lincoln county, Missouri, in book T on pages 278 and 280, conveyed to L. H. Paxton, trustee, the following described real estate, situate in the county of Lincoln and State of Missouri, to-wit: The southwest quarter of section nine, township fifty-one of range two west, excepting and reserving ten acres of the southwest corner of the east half thereof, divided by Nicholas Wells to James Brown, which said deed of trust was made to said L. H. Paxton in trust to secure the payment of a certain promissory note therein described, and whereas the said L. H. Paxton is now dead, and no provision exists in said conveyance for the execution thereof in case of the death of said trustee, L. H. Paxton, and whereas the circuit court of said county, at the March term thereof for 1874, made an order, duly of record, appointing the undersigned, sheriff of said county, as trustee to execute the said trust, and whereas said note is due and wholly unpaid, now, therefore, at the request of the legal holder of said note, and in pursuance of the provisions of said deed of trust and of the appointment by said court, I, the undersigned sheriff of said county and trustee by said appointment, will,

On Saturday, May 30, 1874, between the hours of ten o'clock in the forenoon and five o'clock in the afternoon of that day, in the town of Louisville, Lincoln county, Mo., expose to sale at public vendue for cash the above described real estate for the purposes mentioned in said deed of trust.

T. M. CARTER, Sheriff and Trustee.
