

STOMACH MISERY GAS, INDIGESTION

"Pape's Diapepsin" fixes sick, sour, gassy stomachs in five minutes.

Time it! In five minutes all stomach distresses will go. No indigestion, heartburn, sourness or belching of gas, acid, or eructations of undigested food, no dizziness, bloating, or foul breath.

Pape's Diapepsin is noted for its speed in regulating upset stomachs. It is the surest, quickest and most certain indigestion remedy in the whole world, and besides it is harmless.

Please for your sake, get a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any store and put your stomach right. Don't keep on being miserable—life is too short—you are not here long, so make your stay agreeable. Eat what you like and digest it; enjoy it, without dread of rebellion in the stomach.

Pape's Diapepsin belongs in your home anyway. Should one of the family eat something which don't agree with them, or in case of an attack of indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis or stomach derangement at daytime or during the night, it is handy to give the quickest relief known. Adv.

Was It Force of Habit?

An amused smile fluttered over the features of Congressman Samuel J. Tribble of Georgia the other night when the talk topic in the lobby of a Washington hotel turned to the wonderful sayings of the kiddies. He said he was reminded of a recent incident.

A fond father was taking his little six-year-old daughter to town in a motor car, and on stopping in front of a store he noticed that the drive against the strong wind had made the youngster's eyes water.

"Just a minute, Jessie," said father, wrapping a corner of his handkerchief around one finger and dabbing the little girl's eye. "Let me wipe that tear away."

"Say," was the rather amazing exclamation of Jessie, "what do you think that is—a push button?"

A GRATEFUL OLD MAN.

Mr. W. D. Smith, Ethel, Ky., writes: "I have been using Dodd's Kidney Pills for ten or twelve years and they have done me a great deal of good. I do not think I would be alive today if it were not for Dodd's Kidney Pills. I strained my back about forty years ago, which left it very weak. I was troubled with inflammation of the bladder. Dodd's Kidney Pills cured me of that and the Kidney Trouble. I take Dodd's Kidney Pills now to keep from having Backache. I am 77 years old and a farmer. You are at liberty to publish this testimonial, and you may use my picture in connection with it." Correspond with Mr. Smith about this wonderful remedy.

Enemies of Household Pest.

Among the enemies of the house fly, including fungus diseases, protozoa, nematodes, mites, spiders, the house centipede, parasitic insects, birds, and fly-catching rats, Mr. H. E. Ewing of Corvallis, Ore., describes in Entomological News a strange parasite which attaches itself to the ventral body wall of the fly. It belongs to the gamasid family, and as it feeds it hangs on in a manner nicely calculated not to throw the fly out of balance in flying.

A Soldier Friend.

"I saw your father taking you to the woodshed yesterday morning, Willie. What had you been doing?"
"Nothing. He just took me out there to meet a soldier friend of his."
"A soldier. Who was he?"
"That feller Corporal Punishment he's always talking about."

Deadly Insult.

"You and Mr. Puffins don't speak?"
"No. He referred to my automobile as antique rolling stock."

MAKE HOUSEHOLD WORK EASY

Main Thing is to Have the Articles Most Required Always Convenient for Use.

Sometimes it is the very little things, the things that appear most insignificant, that count for most in the making of household duties easy. To have things handy, right where they are within easy reach, is one of the things that should be the aim of every woman who must use certain utensils at every meal time.

A clever woman has devised a plan by which she avoids drying the plates. Over the sink rack, high enough so it will not interfere with anyone, has been built a plate cage, just a skeleton affair of chestnut, that has been stained to match the woodwork in the kitchen. The plates are slipped in between bars that permit them to stand upright, and as soon as they are washed and rinsed, they are placed in the cage where they drain and dry. This shortens the time of "doing" the dishes considerably. She tells me that other "cages" are to be made for other pieces of china that will help in the dish-washing problem.

If you have a rack in which the knives, forks, and spoons that are in daily use can be slipped, and place up over the kitchen table, you will wonder how you ever could get along when they were stowed away in the dresser drawer. Three strips of one-half inch chestnut lumber, have square holes cut in them at intervals, and then they are glued together so that the holes will be opposite. These are screwed to shaped ends that in turn are fastened to the wall, and the knives, etc., are slipped in their place as soon as they come from the dish pan. One one-half inch chestnut or oak board with auger holes bored into it will do as well.

MAKE THE KITCHEN PRETTY

No Reason Why Most-Used Room in House Should Be Allowed to Look Neglected.

A woman who believes that a kitchen should be a pretty room wonders why most people do not hold the same opinion.

Of original tastes, she has devised this scheme of color and decoration for her kitchen. The walls she has had painted a bright sunshiny yellow, the woodwork and chairs a deep Prussian blue, the color of the pattern in her kitchen crockery and the cornflower pattern of her white tiled stove, which has a shining metal top.

"We are slaves to the view that a stove must be black and ugly," she says. "I got rid of this view in a visit to Holland, where I bought my pretty stove."

The windows of her kitchen are hung with sash curtains made of glass toweling barred in blue. At the center of their sills a little square bracket shelf has been attached, upon which stands a gay geranium.

Frozen Custard With Almonds.

Heat one quart of milk in double boiler. Add to this four well-beaten eggs. Stir constantly with wire egg beater until this thickens. Sweeten to taste and set aside to cool.

Take one pound of almonds, shell and blanch. Spread over a pan, add one teaspoonful of olive oil, place in a hot oven and allow them to get very brown. Cool and then put through a meat chopper. Add to custard also one-half teaspoonful of almond extract. When the custard is quite cold, freeze.

To Crisp Cereals.

I find an easy way to crisp the uncooked, ready-to-eat cereals is to place the amount required for one serving in an ordinary cornpopper and shake for a few minutes over a hot stove or lighted oil stove.

Enjoying His Power.

"Don't try to contradict me!" said Mr. Cumrox.
"You're not angry, are you?"
"No. I'm just warning you. This is so time of year to contradict the man who writes the Christmas gift checks."

Quite "Nifty"

That's the way you should look and feel all the time. Nature never intended you to be sickly and run down, with poor appetite, imperfect digestion, clogged bowels and a lazy liver. Stir these organs to healthy action by the daily use of

HOSTETTER'S Stomach Bitters

There are occasions when it is better to wear thick-soled shoes when you toe the mark.

Natural Leanings.

"Did you get the florist to put up those elephants' ears for transportation?"

"No. I thought they would feel more at home in a trunk."

Convenience in Sick Room.

A convenience for a sick person is a good-sized shoe bag with ample pockets fastened with safety pins to the mattress at the side of the bed. In the pockets may be stored books, papers, fancy work, handkerchiefs and various articles that are needed.

Thoughtful Wife.

A woman who had gone to a hospital to be operated upon wrote two postcards.

"Please send whichever one is appropriate afterwards," she told the nurse.

These were the cards:

"My Dear Husband: I have had the operation and am doing nicely. Will be at home in a week or two."

"My Dear Husband: I have had the operation, and am sorry to tell you that I did not survive."—New York Evening Post.

Theory and Practice.

Little Beatrice was taking piano lessons and learning at the same time something of theory. Like many other children, she disliked practicing her finger exercises. One day her mother, who was working in an upstairs room, noticed a sudden lull in the playing. She looked down and saw Beatrice sitting perfectly motionless.

"Beatrice, why don't you practice?" she called down sharply.

"I am practicing, mother," replied the child with perfect self-assurance: "I'm practicing my theory."—New York Evening Post.

SELF DELUSION. Many People Deceived by Coffee.

We like to defend our indulgences and habits even though we may be convinced of their actual harmfulness.

A man can convince himself that whiskey is good for him on a cold morning, or beer on a hot summer day—when he wants the whiskey or beer.

It's the same with coffee. Thousands of people suffer headache and nervousness year after year but try to persuade themselves the cause is not coffee—because they like coffee.

"While yet a child I commenced using coffee and continued it," writes a Wis. man, "until I was a regular coffee fiend. I drank it every morning and in consequence had a blinding headache nearly every afternoon."

"My folks thought it was coffee that ailed me, but I liked it and would not admit it was the cause of my trouble, so I stuck to coffee and the headaches stuck to me."

"Finally, the folks stopped buying coffee and brought home some Postum. They made it right (directions on pkg.) and told me to see what difference it would make with my head, and during that first week on Postum my old affliction did not bother me once. From that day to this we have used nothing but Postum in place of coffee—headaches are a thing of the past and the whole family is in fine health."

"Postum looks good, smells good, tastes good, is good, and does good to the whole body."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

Postum now comes in two forms: Regular Postum—must be well boiled.

Instant Postum—Is a soluble powder. A teaspoonful dissolves quickly in a cup of hot water and, with cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly. Grocers sell both kinds. "There's a Reason" for Postum.
