Wilson to Fight for Colored Men.

Washington, D. C., June 11, 1914—It has leaked out that no trifling issue has arisen between the Southern Democratic senators and the president over the appointment of colored men to Federal office. The president has laid down an ultimatum that he will appoint them, and defies the Southern senators to do their worst. They do not like the war, but are prepared to resist the president in the senate when he makes the nominations.

Be A Booster

The Oklahoma Booster Edition which will be published by the Tulsa Star will be one of the most complete and accurate publications ever published in the state. Much real enthusiasm is being manifested by business men, farmers and professional men throughout the state who desire to do all they can to make a good showing for the negroes of Oklahoma at the National Negro Business League which meet at Muskogee August 19, 20 and 21. Letters are coming into the Star office daily asking for information about this Booster Edition and many are sending in interesting facts about their business, farms, etc., to be published. Owing to the limited time left to work up this edition our special agents will find it difficult to visit all the towns in the state. Therefore those who desire to be represented in the biggest publication ever put before the National League will do well to write to this office for particulars.

The Tulsa Star, being the leading Negro paper in the state, has shouldered the responsibility of bringing the Negro business men of Oklahoma closer together and giving them a credible representation at the annual meeting of the National Negro Business Men's League at Muskogee in August.

In order to do this as it should be done the Star will publish a special twenty-page Oklahoma Booster edition as a souvenir of this great national meeting of Negro business men.

This special edition will be the largest Negro newspaper ever published in America and will be a credit to the entire state. Every Negro business man, professional man or farmer; every Negro woman, girl or boy living within the bounds of Oklahoma, who has done anything worth while will be given space in this special edition if it is possible for our special agents and reporters to find them.

The Star photographer will make special efforts to make pictures of Negro farms and business houses as well as beautiful residences owned by Negroes, that we may have a good one to run in this special Booster edition. Our agents will visit every town in the State where Negroes reside, if possible, and we hope every colored man and woman in the State will help us. It is our purpose to show up the best side of the Negroes of Oklahoma at the big meeting at Muskogee.

Race Prejudice

Wounded Man Refused Admission to Pottsville (Pa.) Hospital Dies.

The evil effects of race prejudice were brought prominently to public view in Pottsville, Pa., on May 20, when an effort was made to have George Baxter, who had been severely wounded in a mine explosion, admitted to the Pottsville hospital. Martin Dolan, a contract miner for whom George Baxter worked, obtained a mandamus which would have admitted the wounded man to the hospital, but while the authorities of the institution were wrangling in court over Baxter's admission he died.

One of Baxter's eyes had been blown out while at work and the other seriously injured, which required a speedy operation. Mr. Dolan offered to pay all the extra expense of a private ward but the hospital officials refused to permit Baxter's entrance until the board of managers consented, although a section in the charter of the hospital provides that no distinction shall be made in the treatment of patients on account of color or nationality.
