The HYPOCRITE BOASTED OF OWNING HIS OWN HOME and that HE WAS NOT LIKE other men. The POOR PUBLICAN was GLAD to be ALLOWED to be ALIVE and to BREATHE FREE AIR.

The world MOVES on confidence. We must TRUST each other. There are more than a THOUSAND different articles and different qualities and different prices of goods in any first-class grocery store.

It is easy to pick out a few articles and advertise a price and then sell all the others for a long profit. It is also easy to advertise a low price and get customers and then weigh short to make a profit. Not one woman in every fifty ever weighs what she buys, therefore she never knows how much she pays. Every wife and mother should be careful in buying for her husband and children. She should buy nothing but the best and should know that she gets the best price. We want the word "Traders" to mean that you must be pleased or your money back. We do not ask you to TRUST us, we only ask you to try us.

We run our business on the least possible expense, therefore we can sell for less. We find it IMPOSSIBLE to handle our trade properly on Saturdays, therefore we EARNESTLY ask all who can CONVENIENTLY do so to come early. We do our best, but people come in such great numbers that we can not give them the care they deserve.

We have a large line of Star Brand Shoes, "NO BETTER MADE." We carry SWEET ORR work clothing. We are putting on a fine line of DRY GOODS of the BEST STAPLE qualities. Please come and see them. Our prices are right. We handle nothing but the best meats. Please remember, money back at all times if not pleased.

106 EAST SECOND STREET.

Architect Making Good

The above is the likeness of S. L. Morris, architect and builder, who has made a splendid reputation in his work at Okmulgee. A graduate of the Tuskegee Institute, Mr. Morris has gone out into the world with that ever-dwell spirit which seems to be a virtue with students of that noted school and step by step has climbed up to success with credit to himself and his school. Some of the best buildings in Boley stand as monuments of this young man's ingenuity and some of Okmulgee's best business buildings are bearing the trade mark of his work. He does all of his own blue print work and superintends the work from start to finish.

He is ready to do work in any part of the state. Those who contemplate buildings would do well to consult him. Mail addressed to him at Okmulgee will reach him.

A Jungled Race

Chas Johnson, real estate dealer of 216 E. Archer, Tulsa, is leading the boys a jungle race among the dealers and some lawyers of Tulsa, Oklahoma, trying to secure 640 acre of oil and gas leases but among the many hard knocks and competition Chas. Johnson, arrived in the city late in the afternoon from Creek County bringing the bacon home in the shape of 640 acres of oil and gas leases in the new oil field. Chas. Johnson, must doubtless be shrewd long winded and energetic, among the many competitors he won the race, and brought the certified copies of leases with him, to save his friends time and money from trying to run after the bell had tapped. For further information call Chas. Johnson, at Phone 3337.

STREET CLEANING LONG AGO

Franklin's Autobiography Tells How He Promoted the First Contract Job in Philadelphia.

Recently at one of the luncheons of the City Club of Philadelphia there was read an extract from the autobiography of Benjamin Franklin which was said to describe the first instance of street cleaning by contract in Philadelphia. The incident is interesting also, however, as illustrating citizen co-operation in its original simplicity.

"One day," Franklin wrote, "I found a poor industrious man, who was willing to undertake keeping the pavement clean by sweeping it twice a week, carrying off the dirt from before all the neighbors' doors, for the sum of six-pence per month, to be paid by each house. I then wrote and printed a paper setting forth the advantages to the neighborhood that might be obtained by this small expense. . . . I sent one of these papers to each house, and in a day or two went around to see who would subscribe an agreement to pay these six pences; it was unanimously signed, and for a time well executed. This raised a general desire to have all the streets paved, and made the people more willing to subscribe to a tax for that purpose."—The Survey.
