REGGS COLORED PEOPLE ARE DOING MUCH BUILDING.

Mr. Green Smith, of Muskogee, Okla., who has for the last few days been in Beggs, Okla., spent Tuesday in Tulsa for the purpose of purchasing structural steel for the $25-000 building in course of construction at Beggs for the Messrs. DuBose & Read, the well known wealthy and enterprising colored physician and real estate men of that hustling city.

Mr. Smith left Tuesday evening via the Frisco for Okmulgee where he is in charge of the erection of a building. He says it is his opinion that the year 1920 will be marked by more buildings erected by Colored men than ever before in the history of the country. There appears to be many Negroes with plenty of money who are disposed to invest it in a way that will redound to the credit of the Race.

The Messenger, the widely known and ably edited radical monthly magazine, 2035 7th ave., New York, tains leading articles on: "The "American Legion, Our National Ku Klux Klan," "Prohibition," and "Confederate Americanism." All Race loving Negroes should read this journal as regularly as their family Bible.

SAYS HAMON WEAKEST RICH MAN IN STATE IN WAR AID

(Tulsa World, January 25, 1920.)
Special to the World

Oklahoma City, Jan. 24.—Jake Hamon was "about the weakest rich man in Oklahoma when it came to giving up his money to our soldier boys," is a charge made yesterday by E. W. Marland, Ponca City oil magnate, in a letter to J. J. McGraw, whose place as National Committeeman Hamon is seeking.

Marland's letter was written from Mexico City where he is on a business trip, and the letter reveals for the first time some inside history of the manner in which Oklahoma raised $2,000,000 for the United War Home Drive. The letter follows:

"When I arrived at Mexico City and got the first Oklahoma papers I have seen in two months I read that Jake Hamon was still running against you.

"I never thought Jake would stay in the race so long; surely someone is kidding Jake. Isn't it a shame what some men will do for money?

"But I'll bet that Jake fools the kiddier in the end. I remember how he fooled me once and at a time when there was no kidding going on. It was when I was chairman of the United War Work drive.

"At the big meeting at San Antonio of all the southwest states to arrange ways and means to raise money for the welfare work in France the question arose as to a division of the quotas among the several states. Part of the Texas delegation thought that Texas was being asked to raise more than her share and they objected. At this point in the proceedings, Jake Ham-on, who was wearing the loudest crimson silk shirt I ever saw on a white human, arose and strode down the center aisle of the auditorium in his shirt sleeves and in stentorian tones announced that any part of this money that Texas does not want to raise, Oklahoma will of course. That statement was all right and the State of Oklahoma afterwards made good by giving $2-000,000. But that is where Jake fooled me. I thought he would help me raise that money, but when the time came he was the hardest man to find I was ever after, and when found finally contributed such a small amount that the finding was not worth the time taken. Jake was the biggest noise at San Antonio meeting and was about the weakest rich man in Oklahoma when it came to giving up his money for our soldier boys.

"You will remember something about this because you were on the job all during the campaign. I took him seriously once and you must expect that others will be fooled by his noise for a while, but I am really surprised that he has lasted so long in the race against you."

TULSA COLORED REPUBLICANS MEET AND ORGANIZE A CLUB.

Movement is Started to Elect G. O.
P. Ticket in Spring Election.

With the usual enthusiasm which has always characterized the average Colored man in his political maneuvering in the interest of the Grand Old Party, a few of the faithful met in the office of the Earle Real Estate Co., last Sunday afternoon for the purpose of organizing the big end of the Republican party in Tulsa with the hope of electing a ticket yet to be named in the city election next spring.

A call for the meeting was printed and circulated last week bearing the names of H. A. Guess, Barney Cleaver, C. F. Gabe, Dr. B. T.
Bridgewater, Johnnie Jones, J. W.
Hughes, Dr. H. J. Watson, G. W.
Wilson, T. D. Jackson, O. W. Gurley, James Cherry, Sam Kelley, Dr.
B. A. Waynes and S. G. Smith.

All of these however, were not present, in fact only a few were there to respond to roll call. But what they lacked in numerical strength they made up in enthusiasm.

Several partisan speeches were made calculated to revive the party henchmen from the lethargic stupor cast over them the lethargic stupor the Simmons gang went out of office.

May Launch Republican Paper.
To further propagate the cause of the G. O. P. the club plans to launch a red hot Republican newspaper in Tulsa.

Steps have already been taken it is said, to get the necessary funds to publish the paper which will be the official organ of the Republican party in Tulsa, so far as the Colored people are concerned.

The Star welcomes its prospective competitor, whoever and whatever he may be, and hopes for the new journal all that it may merit from a purely racial and journalistic standpoint.

The Star also hopes its new contemporary-to-be will find favor with those of the Race in Tulsa who have never found anything but fault with the Tulsa Star.

Those present at the meeting were H. A. Guess, C. F. Gabe, A. L. Phillips, O. W. Gurley, Dr. A. J. Whitley, John Vaughns, H. O. Abbott, J. L.
Greer, Theodore Baughman, M. Russell, Professor Burr, B. L. Cox, Mr.
Smith, C. F. Gabe Jr., Barney Cleaver, Jim Cherry, Lee McGregory, Mr.
Douglas, Ed Younger and others.

The next meeting will be held on Friday night, January 30, at Wesley Chapel, M. E. church, corner of Easton and Frankfort.

LAWD! LAWD! AM THIS THE WHALE JONAH TOLD ABOUT?

Whalers Find Female Whale With Two Legs in Depths of Pacific.

Tulsa Star News.

San Francisco, Jan. 30.—A whale with two legs is the most recent discovery in the mysterious depths of the Pacific ocean. It was caught at the Kyuquot whaling station. The creature was a female humpback, and her limbs were two in number, each fifty inches long, with strong bones, well covered with blubber.

Ancient whalers have never seen a whale similar to the latest capture. It is said that whales have atrophied legs with their bodies, but they are useless. They are thought to be hangovers from the day when whales, like dinosaurs showed themselves through the lush jungles or fought the saber-toothed tiger and the great cave bear.
