VALUE OF GLAD MUSIC.
GLAD FRIENDS AND GLAD THOUGHTS

The Great Abraham Lincoln Once Prescribed Mirth to the Members of His Cabinet.

(Special Tulsa Stargraph).
WASHINGTON, D. C., Apr. 15.—People generally are beginning to realize that glad books, books which teach us to look for the bright side of things, for the good side of man, are books which are a part of the universal nobility that is in everyone's soul. The same is true of glad music, and every one of us every day should hear a little glad music—music sparkling with prismatic melodies and pleasing rhythm. Certainly the electric piano and the popular victrolas are doing their share toward dispelling dull care away and thus giving place in our minds for nobler thoughts and thrivings.
Yet too few of us realize the need of gladness, mirth and happiness every day. For instance, the late Charles Farrar Brown, with real name of "Artemus Ward," the great humorist, was at one time summoned to Washington to a cabinet meeting when Abraham Lincoln was president (September 22, 1862). When Mr. Brown arrived, Lincoln stopped the proceedings to introduce "Artemus Ward," and then read an entire chapter from one of Ward's books to the members of the cabinet. Edwin Stanton and the others were amazed that Abraham Lincoln, with the terrible weight of the Civil War on his shoulders, should interrupt an important meeting to read a humorist's funny remarks. When Lincoln, laughing heartily at the chapter, looked up and saw his cabinet all sitting around with solemn faces he said: "Gentlemen, why don't you laugh? With the fearful strain that is on me night and day, if I did not laugh I should die—and you need this medicine as much as I do."
Glad music is soul medicine for all of us. All of us more or less have the devil's mortgage, WORRY, and the best way to get rid of it is by means of glad music, glad books, glad friends and glad thoughts.
