MADE A SORE SPOT RAW

(Star News Service)
 Oklahoma City—The Colored citizens in various parts of Oklahoma are expressing indignation at the recent attempt of Congressman Harrell, candidate for U. S. Senate, to make a joke on our "fighting piece." It is reported in the daily papers that in his speech at the recent Roosevelt speaking, Harrell said comparing Tulsa and Oklahoma City that: "If Tulsa has a lynching, Oklahoma City will match it by having one the next morning." Our people look at this as tearing a scab off of an old wound and believe he could have joked better on something else.
