

THE DAILY HERALD

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 31, 1896. PUBLISHED EVERY EVENING Except Sunday

J. M. HAWKINS, Publisher. HENRY L. CAPELL, Business Mgr.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. Daily, one year, $7.00. Daily, six months, $4.00. Daily, three months, $2.00. Weekly, one year, $2.00. Weekly, six months, $1.00. Weekly, three months, $0.50.

ADVERTISING RATES. Rates of advertising in the Daily or Weekly edition made known on application at the publication office.

BOOK AND JOB PRINTING. The Herald is fully prepared to do all kinds of book and job printing in all the latest styles.

THE WEEKLY HERALD. A large eight page paper giving the local events of the week, published every Saturday.

FOOTBALL has caught on in Mexico and the highest praise possible has been bestowed upon the game.

Or the Oregon man who dropped dead while opening his mail, the Tempe News says he must have just received unfavorable news from Canton regarding his application.

SEVERAL men have died in West Virginia from drinking poisoned whiskey. It is folly for any one to try to drink poisoned whiskey who has never been a regular patron of a Kansas drug store.

QUEER old Arkansans! In the returns of the state for presidential electors, as certified to the secretary of state at Washington, it appears that Jefferson Davis received eighty-six votes.

THE gentleman whose loving spouse bought him a 75-cent box of cigars for Christmas doubtless was gratified with the kindly intention.

THE Atchison Globe makes a query much to the point: The income tax law was turned down by the supreme court because it is double taxation.

DOUBLE DAMMED. The people of Laredo think they should have the dam instead of El Paso, says the Express.

EUROPEAN WAR TAXES. The great game of war in Europe is costly to the utmost limits of the ability of taxpayers to sustain the burden.

McKinley's Inaugural Suit. The inauguration suit that Major McKinley will wear March 4 next will be American clear through.

NIGHT HAWKS. The people are again talking about a curfew ordinance. Such an ordinance is certainly needed in El Paso.

POSTAL SAVINGS BANKS. It is a reproach to the government of the United States, says the Chicago Record, that it has not established postal savings banks.

Liver Pills. Like biliousness, dyspepsia, headache, constipation, sour stomach, indigestion are promptly cured by Hood's Pills.

Col. Max Frost.

Among the many prominent names mentioned in connection with federal appointments from the ranks of the leading republicans of New Mexico, the newspaper men and others have been guilty of a grievous indifference to the claims of a gentleman who is second to none in his idleness to the party—Col. Max Frost, of Santa Fe.

Four Thousand New Sailors. It is estimated that about 4000 men will have to be added to the navy in the next two years in order to furnish crews for the new vessels that will be ready for service in that time.

CHANCES OF LONGEVITY. Primary Conditions Necessary to a Long Life. "The primary conditions of longevity," the Medical Record quotes Mr. F. W. Warner as saying, "are that the heart, lungs and digestive organs, as well as the brain, should be large."

A Mosque for New York. The doctrines of the koran will soon be proclaimed from a mosque in the heart of New York.

Ten Thousand Revolutions a Minute. A large firm manufacturing dynamo motors is at work upon a propeller that will run at a speed of 10,000 revolutions a minute.

England's new cruiser, the Powerful, is undoubtedly the most formidable warship in the world, and in every way entitled to be called a floating fortress.

Whenever a man feels himself falling in health, when he feels that he is getting old too fast, that his vitality is low, and that he is losing flesh, he should waste no time in getting Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

Electric Bitters. Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish, and the need of a tonic and cathartic is felt.

Liver Pills. Like biliousness, dyspepsia, headache, constipation, sour stomach, indigestion are promptly cured by Hood's Pills.

"Saved My Life" A VETERAN'S STORY.

"Several years ago, while in Fort Snelling, Minn., I caught a severe cold, attended with a terrible cough, that allowed me no rest day or night.

I did, and soon after I was greatly relieved, and in a short time was completely cured. I have never had much of a cough since that time, and I firmly believe Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life."

A. Christensen, for the last eight years superintendent of the southern division of the Wells-Fargo Express company, with headquarters at Houston, will, on January 1, take the position of manager of the central department of the same company and maintain headquarters at Kansas City.

There is a wide difference between the prices paid for Christmas presents in different quarters in New York City. One man, living uptown paid $1,500,000 for a pearl necklace which he presented to his wife.

They have begun to cut ice in earnest at Vegas Springs. Eighteen cars were shipped to Tucson, Yuma and Deming the other day, and it is understood that they intend to ship the same amount daily until contracts are filled.

Major C. T. Pictou is manager of the State Hotel, at Denison, Texas, and the traveling men say is one of the best hotels in the section.
