The Stockmen's Entertainment - Commendable Enterprise-Almost a Fire-Notes.

Correspondence of the Gazette Weatherford, March 7 .- Our representation of stockmen, who attended the convention at Fort Worth, express themselves as highly pleased with the entertainment. The enterprise of our friend, W. J. Eddeman, is highly commendable and worthy of imitation. At his own expense he has just completed laying twenty-five feet of stone pavement on the west side of the square.

The residence of Mr. Burris, on east Church street, came near being burned to-day, caused by the falling of a heating stove, which scattered fire coals promisenously, and but for the timely arrival of Mr. H. H. Murphy, who succeeded in extinguishing the flames, the house and contents would have been destroyed. Several commercial drummers, representing the creditors of Ben. C.

Henry, arrived here this morning. From what I can learn they are try-ing to detect fraud in the assignweeks.

The Governor's Reception,

The supper given by Governor Ireland at the Raymond House on Thursday night to the members of the legislature and a few invited guests, was a magnificent affair. The supper, as prepared by J. F. Thompson & Co., proprietors of the Raymond House, was one of the finest that was ever spread in Austin. The guests began assembling some time before the supper, and were received by the governor in the spacious parlors of the Raymond House.

At 10 o'clock all were invited to the
