Persons leaving the city or the state during the summer months can have the DAILY GAZETTE mailed to them.

THE GAZETTE does not hope to save to the taxpayers the money appropriated to pay Dr. WALLACE for doing nothing.

An able article containing some good suggestions upon the enforcement of the law, clipped from the Alvarado Bulletin.

The anti-monopoly party serves notices on the public that it will not affiliate with either the Democratic or Republican parties.

The name of the great state of Texas does not appear in the roll call of the anti-monopoly convention at Chicago.

It is rather unfortunate for SAMUEL J. RANDALL that the Republicans will have no voice in the selection of the speaker of the next house of representatives.

It was a little rough on the orator of the anti-monopoly convention at Chicago. He is the original anti-monopolist of the country.

THE Cincinnati Enquirer keeps at the head of its editorial column, in "double leads," the unfriendly criticism by the New York Sun on the civil service reform and Senator PENNINGTON.

THE Houston Age puts in this column about the papers that blame Dr. Wallace for accepting an appointment to a good position.

That's about the force of the argument adopted by the defense. It is virtually no argument at all.

THE Fort Worth GAZETTE still insists that it is a great wrong for Dr. Wallace to be put on trial in a court before the asylum is in existence.

Unfortunately there is no remedy for the tax-payers. "Scolding is no cure" and is not offered as such, but it may operate as a preventative to a repetition of the disease.

It is the contract to be made with JOHN ROACH for the construction of the four iron-clads for the United States navy can be preserved intact.

THE late investigation in Chicago shows conclusively that PETER MCGEOGH who has swindled those with whom he had dealings in the lard corner, has rendered the public some service by exposing the atrocious practice of FOWLER BROS.

THE Republican party seems very well contented with small majorities. In 1870, CHANDLER sent his famous dispatch "HAYES has 355 votes and is elected."

THE decision of Postmaster General GRESHAM if honestly executed puts an end to the lottery business in the United States, a consummation devoutly to be wished, by all good citizens.

THE name of JEREMIAH O'DONOVAN will go sounding down the ages as the synonym of all that is encouragement, chivalry and brave.

THE name of the great state of Texas does not appear in the roll call of the anti-monopoly convention at Chicago.

THE closing exercises of St. Joseph's Catholic school will take place at the Germania opera-house on July 10th.

Everything in way of head and foot wear at prices to open your eyes and purse. Special bargains in men's summer suits and fine low cut shoes.

greater manifestation of disapproval than has been noticed. The university is removed somewhat from the general public.

THE laboring classes in whose interest, according to the Republican theory, the protective tariff is maintained, should be able to see through the subterfuge.

THE Philadelphia Times tells us that "while the renowned Colonel OCHULTREE is in Europe a fellow-Texas has come up to Washington with the avowed purpose of stealing away the laurels he has garnered in the shape of patronage as a member of congress.

Ungateful! Eminent! So! Last week the Post belittled the city of Fort Worth and the GAZETTE, as well with fulsome compliments in regard to their action on the question of general schools.

REV. JOHN BARTIST PURCELL the venerable and eminent archbishop of the Catholic church in the West, died last week at St. Martin's convent in Brown county, Ohio.

When She Starts She's "Thar." No one need say a word against Fort Worth in its undertakings for education.

FOR THE THOROUGH.—To avoid a danger is prudent to neglect a cough or cold is criminal.

The Amendments. The Austin Statesman with the vision of a seer has discovered indications "that the tax amendments to the constitution both for state revenue and school purposes will be defeated."

Major Penn will hold a campmeeting near Cameron, July 29, and at Belton on August 6.

Houston Age: The splendid success of the Fort Worth GAZETTE has made half a dozen other papers want to get the property of a syndicate of capitalists.

Tyler Reporter: Ex-Gov. R. B. Hubbard returned home Wednesday evening in company with his charming daughter, Miss Rena, who has been attending Hollins Institute, Virginia, where she graduated with highest honors.

Waco is going to have the fire alarm system, and will be the only city in the state except Galveston to have this facility for calling out the fire boys promptly.

Georgia leads the South this year in putting the first bale of new cotton on the market. For several years past Texas has had an undisputed monopoly of the first bale business.

Bonham Advocate: A little three-year old daughter of John Graham, living near Dodd City, was shot by her uncle last Saturday, and died Sunday morning.

Montague Cross-Timbers: A good many of the "exciters" who went back on the train Thursday morning looked as haggard as the battle-scarred veterans of one hundred years ago.

Dallas Times: It is now said that the Synagogue troubles are far from ended, and that a new move is on the boards.

Montague Cross-Timbers: Thursday night about a o'clock Bowie was suddenly aroused by a courier from the country with the startling announcement that a little child of G. W. Tinkle lives about a mile east of town.
