A Negro in Florida Lynched for Attempted Rape.

A Jealous Lover Beats his Sweetheart Nigh Unto Death.

SHOT BY A MOB.

MADISON, FLA., Nov. 22.—Wednesday night a negro broke into the house of a widow and her daughter living in the outskirts of the city and attempted to outrage them. Armstead Williams was arrested and placed in jail. Today he was identified as the perpetrator of the outrage and this afternoon several hundred people went to the jail, broke it open and shot Wil-iams, killing him instantly.

FEARS OF A FRENZIED LOVER.

MADISON, FLA., Nov. 22.—In a fit of jealousy this morning a young man named Stewart brutally assaulted his sweetheart, Katie Hobson, inflicting probably fatal injuries. The couple attended a ball last night, and Stewart became so intoxicated that Miss Hobson refused to allow him to accompany her home. At 5 o'clock this morning Stewart kicked the door into Miss Hobson's residence, rushed up to her, knocked her down and beat her in an unmerciful manner. Her face was wounded to a jelly, and other injuries were inflicted which it is feared will result in her death. Stewart has been arrested.

FATALLY SHOT BY AN OFFICER.

CHICAGO, ILL., Nov. 22.—Thomas Price, a workman, was assaulted by footpads early this morning, one of whom, Pat McDermott, a notorious character, was captured by an officer, but succeeded in breaking away and when called upon refused to halt. The officer fired at him, causing a fatal wound. He told the name of his confederate, who was also arrested.

A SALOON BURGLARIZED.

CHICAGO, ILL., Nov. 22.—Sometime last night burglars entered the saloon of Louis Libbe, and broke open his safe and secured some $800 in money and about $200 worth of jewelry. The job was done by professionals, the tools for which were stolen from a machine shop on the next street. There is no clue to the thieves.

Carpet Dealers Assign.

CINCINNATI, OHIO, Nov. 22.—Snowden & Benninger, carpet dealers, as West Fourth street, assigned this afternoon to Geo. W. Forbes. Their liabilities are estimated at $40,000; assets, $25,000.

An ordinance authorizing the city to borrow $200,000 was signed to-day, and the police will now get their pay within a few days.

DECATUR.

A Verdict of Not Guilty.
Special to the Gazette.

DECATUR, TEX., Nov. 22.—At 5 o'clock the jury in the Rockhold murder case announced that they were ready to render the verdict, which was read by the clerk as follows: "We, the jury, find the defendant not guilty." The judge discharged the prisoner, and after repeated handshakes from his attorneys, L. C. Sparks-man, Mr. Rockhold joined his family.
This is the end of a case that has been of considerable interest to the people of Wise county and North Texas.

AUSTIN.

Bonds Received for Registration—Capital Cullings.
Special to the Gazette.

AUSTIN, TEX., Nov. 22.—Dallas city bonds to the amount of $95,000 are here for registration, which is deferred until certain informal conditions are complied with. They are the second issue of the water supply bonds, to run thirty years at 6 per cent.

Gatesville city had bonds to the amount of $5000, 8 per cent., registered to-day.
The sub-committee appointed to prepare a charter, constitution and by-laws for the organization and establishment of a home for disabled Confederates reported this evening. The association will be named after Gen. Hood.
The meeting is called next week to finally adopt the report. Much interest is felt in the enterprise, which contemplates a provision for indigent and invalid Confederates without regard to state.

B. F. Coole, a well-to-do farmer, who resides about ten miles east of the city is missing, and foul play is suspected. He was last seen coming to Austin late Monday evening.
It is rumored that the lines of the Baltimore & Ohio Telegraph company will reach Austin within a few days.
John T. Barlow, accused of perjury as an attached witness in the Wampler land fraud case, was acquitted.
In the celebrated case of Robins vs.
Dumitrescu the district court's verdict was rendered for the plaintiff for $500.
The amount sued for was $200.

DALLAS.

An $800 Attachment on the Finest Drug Store in Town.

A Failure at Duncanville—The Base-Ball Season Closed.

Special to the Gazette.

DALLAS, TEX., Nov. 22.—The law firm of Robertson & Coke to-day attached the Dallas Pharmacy for $800.
This was the first time a drug store in town and was run by Royal & Farris.

Randall & Nephews, wholesale boot and shoe merchants, ran an attachment on the stock of Gunnerson & Brandenburg at Duncanville for $351.
It seems that the whole town has gone into the attachment business.

The engagement for a series of three games of base ball to be played between the Brown Stockings and Houston Nationals has been canceled on account of the bad weather which set in a day or two ago, and there will be no more base ball here this season so far as is at present known. Guy Hecker, the pitcher for the Brown's, received a telegram from his father-in-law last night to the effect that his wife was seriously ill, and he left this morning for his home in Oil City, Pa.

Two men, giving their names as Wm. Garnell and J. L. Gardner, were arrested in the California wagon-yard by Officers Tarnell and White, and detained last night. They came through the Pleasant Valley yesterday, and calling at the house of Mr. S. H.
Sharp stole a lot of clothing, and on Thursday night they held up a man in White Rock. S. C. Brown of Rowlett's came to town yesterday and notified Sheriff Smith, who, accompanied by City Marshal Arnold, went in pursuit of the men, but lost their track and failed to overtake them, but Mr. Brown, who remained in town, early in the night saw them ride into the California wagon-yard, and notified the officers, who effected their arrest. Brown says they are from Rockwall county and are named McKennells and Gardenhair instead of Gardner and Gar-nell, as they registered at the cala-bouse. The prisoners were arraigned in the city court this morning, where Garnell was fined $25 for carrying a pistol, which was found on him. They were held until they can be investigated.

OUR CATTLEMEN.

A Majority and Minority Report Made on the Question of Leasing the Arid Lands.

Resolutions of Thanks Adopted and the First National Cow Convention
Adjourns Sine Die.

The National Cattle and Horse Growers' Association then Formally Organized.

Col. R. D. Hunter Chosen President With a Vice President from Every State and Territory.

An Executive Committee is Appointed and the First Annual Session Closes—The Exodus.

Closing Session of the Convention.
ST. LOUIS, MO., Nov. 22.—The sixth day's session of the cattlemen's convention began at 10:30 this morning.

Gov. Stone of Colorado, chairman of the committee on resolutions reported favorably the resolution of Mr. Mill of New Mexico with reference to the arid lands between the 35th meridian and the Sierra Nevada mountains, the same being a memorial to congress for legislation permitting cattlemen to lease land in those tracts for grazing. The prom-isable sets forth that under the existing laws the tenure of ranchmen cannot be made secure, hence the ranchmen are not safe in proceeding with improvements which would result in trebling the wealth of the cattle interests.
It is not proposed to disturb the homestead pre-emption laws, but to reserve all rights to settlers under these laws.
It is proposed, however, to except Colorado, Nevada and Oregon from the provisions of the proposed act.

Judge Wallace of Colorado of the same committee presented a minority report signed by himself, J. G. McCoy, F. D. Patterson, F. Alex. Seth and J.
T. Parlin, opposing the resolution as a measure in the interest of large owners to the prejudice of the small owners, and that it would work a substantial repeal of the homestead law.
Judge W. T. Thornton of Santa Fe spoke in support of the report. He said that he believed the resolution involved the most important question that had come before the convention. It was not proposed to disturb the rights of small holders and homesteaders, but simply to give graziers assurance which would justify them in reducing the lands, otherwise valueless, to a condition suitable for their purposes. He said that the proposed lease system at the rate of one cent per acre would be an annual income of $12,500,000, and this with great benefit to the leasee.

Bishop Faust of Utah opposed the majority report as hostile to the interests of all small herders.

McCoy of Kansas City signed the minority report, because he didn't believe that any congressman would dare to propose the bill, as it meant political suicide to any man who should do so.

Judge Rhodes of Colorado objected to the measure. He said the wonderful progress in the cattle interest in the last twelve years had been under the existing laws, and he saw no reason for a change. He believed that leasing the public domain would result in throwing the central ranch interests into the hands of foreign capitalists and would build up great monopolies.

Col. Babbitt of Wyoming denied that the resolution was in the interests of monopoly and said that the interests of Wyoming demanded such legislation.

Gov. Hadley of New Mexico expressed himself opposed to foreign or home monopolies, so he opposed range fences, but he believed the leasing of the public domain necessary to the success of the cattle interests.

Haskell of Colorado favored the resolution as being in the interest of the small owner.

Judge Wallace of Colorado opposed the measure as one calculated to stop immigration into the West as it would nullify the homestead and pre-emption law. He believed it would have the effect of forcing the small owners out of business.

Gov. Stone supported the resolution on the grounds which he recited at length.

The majority report was then adopted by a large majority.

An amendment was then passed by which the territories of Idaho and Utah were also exempted from the provisions of the resolution.

McCoy of Kansas offered a resolution asking congress to set apart certain tracts of land where cattle infected with contagious disease may be held in quarantine, which was adopted.

The chair announced the following committee to present the memorial on the trail to congress: Hon. C. C.
Upson, Texas; Capt. Henry Warren, Texas; Gen. N. M. Curtis, New York; Judge Fred. Koons, Alex. H. Swan, Wyoming; J. H. Hamilton, Cherokee Strip; Ben Groom, Kentucky; Judge
S. E. Wallace, Colorado; A. J. Dall, Pennsylvania, and Dr. Moore, Colorado.

Gen. Porter of the Cherokee nation presented a joint resolution on the Indian question, eliminating the objectionable features of the day or so before. It passed without dissent.

The committee on conference with the Hide and Leather association recommending a memorial in the interest of a more judicious system of branding cattle was referred to the committee on permanent organization.

On motion of Gen. Bristan, thanks were extended to Congressman Brown.

A resolution was introduced by Halsey of Missouri, urging that the bureau of animal industry be put under the department of agriculture.
