Nothing more absurd can happen unless it be the return of the Liberals to power because of the fears of the Tories to assume 1. The very nature of the political situation expenders.

ALL MANNER OF RUMOR
One of the latest of these is to the effest that a sufficient number of Liberals have given assurance of support to a have given assurance of support to a Fory government, to induce Lord Salisbury to break the dead-lock and proceed with the work of forming a ministry. On the other hand it is asserted that no Liberal leaders have joined in any such assurances, and that therefore the Fories dare not take power. The queen is said to be particularly anxious that the Conservatives

BY RESPONBIBLE LEADERS.
On this plan Lord Salisbury said he would not object to votes of censure, because a vote of that kind would give the Conservatives an opportunity properly to appeal to the country for indorsement. The Radical section of Mr. Gladstone's followers is particularly desirous of having the Tories go into office. The clever and sagacious leaders among clever and sagacious leaders among these Hadicals would harrass any Conthe present parliamentary session to a close. "In the great cities of the Kast," says Bishep O'Connor, the Irish newcomers sink daily until they become the scum of the population, without money and without friends. In this condition they are compelled to do the hardest and most menial labor, and from this position they seldom riso.

"If they go West," continued the bishop, "their prospects are not much better. In the West there is, of course, land in abundance, but this land must now be purchased and the Irish emigrant has no money."

In commenting on the surprising declaration made in the interview the Freeman's Journal expresses the hope that the bishop's statements may save many Irish men and women from misery and want beyond the
