Cornell, St. Louis, a commercial tourist, was in the city yesterday. Gen. R. M. Gano, leader of the famous Gano brigade, was in the city yesterday. J. O. Stange, a welcome visitor to all newspaper offices, was in the city yesterday. J. Magi of New Orleans, a well-known citizen of that place, was in the city last night. Richard Morgan, Jr., a prominent member of the Dallas bar, was in the city yesterday. Rt. Rev. A. C. Garrett, bishop of the diocese of North Texas, was in the city yesterday. S. Lehman, New York, a prominent cigar manufacturer, was in the city yesterday on business. Judge J. R. Fleming of Albany, a prominent member of the state senate, was in the city last night. Judge Carroll of Denton was in the city yesterday on his way up the Fort Worth & Denver on legal business. P. G. Hubbard, representing the branch house of Denny, Rice & Co. of Boston at San Antonio, was in the city yesterday. Neal Hurley, who has been sick for fourteen weeks with catarrh of the stomach, was able to be up town yesterday for the first time. Mesdames Mack B and F. N. Bosch of Weatherford are in the city visiting friends and relatives, and are guests of Mrs. John O. Ford, corner Cherry and Jackson. The Hon. W. Vernon, formerly of London, Eng., but now a prominent cattleman of Big Spring, who was a partner of the late Earl of Aylesford, was in the city yesterday.

ON THE STREET.

The south-bound Missouri Pacific was two and a half hours late last night. Cotton receipts yesterday were nine bales. No change in prices paid here. The compress is receiving cotton daily by rail to be compressed before being shipped. Capt. F. B. Daggett announces in yesterday's Mail that he has sold that paper to the Gazette Printing company. There are forty-four prisoners in the county jail at this time. Six of these are charged with murder, and a majority of the rest are awaiting trial for theft. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Murdoch are happy over the arrival of a young heir. THE GAZETTE welcomes the little Murdoch. It is said to be almost a necessity that a new calaboose be built at once. The location of the present one is bad, and it is entirely too small. The pay-car of the Fort Worth & Denver left yesterday morning, loaded down with shekels of gold, silver and paper, to gladden the hearts of the men on the road. The grand jury was busy yesterday with Affliction affairs. Some twenty witnesses from that part of the county were in the city in obedience to orders from the august body. The Texas Artisan, a six-column folio, devoted to the interests of the Knights of Labor and kindred orders, to be published by the Knights of Labor Printing company, makes its first appearance today. W. R. Kirkwood, formerly of Rising Star, Eastland county, but more recently with Barrett's circus, had several fine blankets and other personal effects stolen from him by attaches of the circus. Mr. Kirkwood has returned to his first love, the cattle business. Two deputy sheriffs from Victoria county stopped in the city yesterday with a prisoner wanted in their county for theft of fifty head of cattle. The same prisoner made his escape not long since by jumping from a train when moving thirty miles per hour. Texas Wesleyan college opened yesterday with a fine attendance, much better than was expected. The teachers are very much encouraged, and anticipate a successful year. Parents who intend to patronize the college will do well to send their children at the beginning of the term that they may begin with the regular classes. To-night the members of Prof. Cheeseman's dancing class meet in general assembly at Godwin's hall. For some weeks past these hops have been more and more largely attended, and interest in the school shows a marked increase with each recurring week. To-night a pleasant time is anticipated by members and visitors.

Have used Tongline in a case of facial neuralgia with excellent results. M. D. HILL, M. D., Steubenville, Ohio.

A meeting of the Commercial club will be held at 8 o'clock this (Wednesday) evening at the club rooms in the City National bank building. By order of the president.

For Lease. The Germania hall in this city, corner of Seventh and Throckmorton streets, will be leased for one year to the highest bidder, Sundays excepted, on the first Monday in October; all bids to be accompanied with bonds, and bids to be filed by the last day of September, and trustees reserve the right to reject any and all bids. Bids should be filed with H. Steinfeldt at the office of the Adheser Brewing association, southeast corner of Throckmorton and Third streets. It is a large and commodious hall, suitable for dances, festivals, concerts, theatricals, etc. Lessees to furnish their own lights and fuel. By order of trustees.

Why Popular. The widespread popularity of Silver Loaf baking powder is due to the strength and purity of the ingredients that enter into its composition, and repeated chemical tests place it side by side with the most popular brands in the market, and show it the peer of any powder yet offered the public. The manufacturer asks only a trial with other brands, and is willing to abide the result.

THE PURE STUFF.

How a Peddler Lost His Money, His Wares and His Watches. In the recorder's court yesterday W. Goldstein and J. Weinstein were arraigned for betting at a game. Recorder Feld gave them the full benefit of the law, $25 and costs. There is a little history connected with the affair, which is interesting: A young Hebrew named Wolff is a peddler who carries his wares and merchandise on his back. On the Jewish new year he was inveigled into the store of Goldstein and Weinstein and made drunk on pure alcohol, so Wolff says. When drunk he was induced to go into a game of cards at which he lost $60 in money, his goods worth $50 and two silver watches. As soon as sober, Wolff began to talk about the way he had been treated, and hearing this the couple went to him and offered him $10, the two watches and a ticket to Dallas if he would not testify against them. All these facts came out yesterday, and City Attorney Capps will see if an indictment cannot be secured against the men for bribery. Wolff recovered his two watches.

A CUTTING SCRAPE.

A Young Countryman Uses His Knife in a Fight and Gets in Jail. Yesterday afternoon Officer Buchanan came in from the country in charge of Jas. Dent, a young man living near Dido, in this county, who was under arrest for the stabbing of a man named Dunaway. A reporter approached Dent and obtained from him the following story of the affair: "Dunaway, Jim Mathis and myself were riding along together in the vicinity of Azle, some eighteen miles from Fort Worth, last Friday afternoon. There was an old grudge between Dunaway and myself, arising out of a quarrel at a dance some time ago. The affair came up for discussion and the old quarrel was revived. Dunaway dismounted and struck me over the eye with a stick, when I cut him in several places. He is pretty badly hurt, but the doctor says he is getting better and will likely get well." The prisoner has an ugly looking bruise over his right eye, which he said the blow from the stick caused. He stated further that Dunaway was a much larger and stronger man than himself, and, having assaulted him first he felt justified in his act, though he hoped that the wound would not prove fatal. Dent is a slight-made, boyish-looking young fellow of perhaps twenty-four years, and says that Mathis (who accompanied him yesterday) will corroborate his version in every particular. He spent the night in jail, but thinks he will be able to give bond.

Real Estate Transfers.

The following transfers of property were filed for record in the county clerk's office yesterday: John P. Hurley to Mrs. Mary Hurley, 50x100 feet of block 56, Fort Worth; consideration $2000. A. J. Davis to Mary Hurley, part of block 89; price, $1900. E. W. Nebermeyer and wife, 50x100 feet of block 12, Tucker's addition, $1000. Mrs. H. J. Frazer to Mrs. Lucy Winston, 10 acres in Parker county, $100. F. B. Clark and wife to George Mulkey, 50x100 feet in block 33 for $515. J. P. Bland to George C. Harris, two lots in blocks 98 and 6. How We Do It. "How do you do it?" asked a lady in our store the other day. "Your goods are so cheap." "We did it with our little blue pencil, madam," replied the salesman, blandly. "After going through our whole stock and marking it down to prices at which we knew they would sell, we tackled the fresh goods as they arrived and did it likewise unto them." Our entire stock must be closed out for cash by the 1st of January. RANDALL & CHAMBERS Co.

New Dress Goods. Malone, Waller & Co. are now receiving the prettiest line of real fine dress goods yet shown in the city. Yesterday they opened up several large cases of combination suitings, cashmeres, ottoman rip, silk velvets, velveteens, double with all wool plaids, and other styles, the names of which have escaped the writer's memory. Their stock of dress buttons and millinery goods is full and complete, and in hats feathers, tips, etc., they are offering something that is just simply lovely. Malone, Waller & Co. continue the cheap cash dry-goods men of the city and the immense quantities of new goods now being received give evidence of their confidence in the appreciation of their patrons. Their stock for this season will eclipse anything they have ever offered the public, and they are giving prices that leave no room for cutting.

Pig Hams. Turner & McTure have just received another shipment of nice, smooth, the famous Stillwell uncured pig hams. Dress Flannels, Dress Flannels.
