

CONGRESSIONAL.

Senate Inquiry into the Death of Capt. Crawford at the Hands of Mexicans.

Education Bill Discussed in the Senate and the Silver Question Brought Up in the House.

XLIX Congress.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Mr. Manderson of Iowa introduced a resolution directing the secretary of the war to inquire and report to the committee on the facts surrounding the killing of Capt. Crawford, said to have been slain on or about January 19, 1898, by Mexican troops, and what steps are being taken for punishment of the government of those responsible for the killing, also whether any indemnity should be paid to those killed and whether an ample explanation should be given to the United States government for the unjust and unprovoked killing of the United States soldiers and sailors who have fallen in the hands of the Mexicans, and he explained that the United States government should be held responsible for the conduct of its troops in this instance. Mr. Manderson also introduced a resolution that the present commission be continued until the commission of the facts of the case, and that the commission be continued until the commission of the facts of the case, and that the commission be continued until the commission of the facts of the case.

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE. GALVESTON, TEX., Feb. 19.—Sailed: Hank J.J. Lutz, for Bremen, schooner George Toulain, Jr., for Philadelphia. Pecos City. SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE. PECOS CITY, TEX., Feb. 19.—Two excursion trains passed through this evening for El Paso. The Pecos Valley Cattle Growers' association will convene here on the 21st to arrange the spring round-ups. Weather dry and warm. Moving Along. SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE. BIG SPRING, TEX., Feb. 19.—The California excursion train, having a board about 300 people, passed here at two o'clock. The party spoke in glowing terms of what they saw of this country, and all seemed to enjoy the trip. It was the Austin Crank. SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE. SAN ANTONIO, TEX., Feb. 19.—After hearing all the testimony in the case for the past few days the grand jury failed to indict Henry Scott for the alleged murder of his wife, Fatty Scott, on the 29th of January, and will pronounce her was liberated from jail this morning. Speculation is again rife as to who the murderer can be, and the former theory that it was the Austin crank has again been revived.

THE FIRE RECORD.

Losses at Hillsboro. HILLSBORO, TEX., Feb. 19.—In mentioning the losses by the fire of night before last yesterday's special THE GAZETTE reporter failed to mention the loss of Harpold Bros. The loss of this firm consisted in farm machinery worth $100, on which there was no insurance. Another slight mistake appeared in the paper, the loss of Wood's Harvesting company being $100 instead of $1000. Last night about 8 o'clock, while Mr. Johnson, book keeper for the grocery firm of S. R. Yerby, was at work in the back part of the store, his lamp exploded. Considerable excitement was occasioned for the time, but it soon died out, as the lamp was thrown out of doors before any harm was done.

Two Fires.

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE. GILMER, TEX., Feb. 19.—The dwelling-house of E. J. DeJoff, situated about ten miles from Gilmer, was destroyed by fire last night. The house was occupied by a family of negroes, who lost a great portion of their effects. The loss is about $1000. The Emory school-house, near Coffeeville, this morning, was destroyed by fire. The loss in this instance was about $800. This fire is thought to be the work of an incendiary. It did not catch on fire until about midnight.

$15,000 Blaze.

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE. GRAHAM, TEX., Feb. 20, 1 a. m.—The large dry goods house of George B. Jewell burned at 12 o'clock this morning. The whole town turned out en masse, and all the men are now at work salvaging the damage. At this hour it is not thought that any other buildings will be destroyed. How the fire originated or what the insurance is cannot be learned before daylight. The total loss is estimated at $15,000.

BUSINESS NOTES.

A Change at Weatherford. WEATHERFORD, TEX., Feb. 19.—Yesterday Mr. D. C. Haynes, one of the oldest business men in this city, sold his stock of groceries to A. L. Morris & Co. of this place, upon the business, and rented his entire business house to them, consisting of two rooms, 50x100 feet each. Mr. Haynes retired from business on March 1, when Morris & Co. will move their stock of groceries into one room of Mr. Haynes building and will open a new stock of dry goods in the other, thus running an excellent grocery and grocery business at the northeast corner of the public square under Haynes's opera house. Mr. Haynes is putting in the foundation of Mr. H. H. Foy's new stone building, on North Main street, was commenced today. This building will add greatly to the looks of this street, and will add greatly to the property owners on this street will soon follow Mr. Foy's movement.

Didn't Think There Was Much Harm in Making Neighborhood Whisky.

JEFFERSON, TEX., Feb. 19.—The case of the United States vs. A. W. Adlets consumed the entire day yesterday. The court discharged the balance of the jury panel 12 o'clock morning. He is charged with stealing $24 from a registered package. The government is represented by United States District Attorney McKay & Camp. The defendant is represented by Messrs. Culbertson & Culbertson and McKay & Camp. Last night a festival of long and happily to be remembered by those present. It was a banquet tendered the visiting attorneys and the home party. An elegant supper was spread and exactly at 9:30 the guests assembled around the table and partook heartily of the tempting viands. Champagne flowed freely, which with wit and song. The first was drunk to the health of the host, followed by one to the health of the other. The federal court, which was responded to very feelingly by District Attorney McKay, and to the absent one, by the Hon. David B. Culbertson. It was a happy event.

McGregor.

MCGREGOR, TEX., Feb. 19.—Dr. A. I. Folsom awarded the contract for his large two-story brick building to Jones & Hendrickson of Gatesville. This will, when completed, be an elegant structure and an ornament to the town. The building is to be used for a store-house, while the upper story will be utilized as a hotel. It is well situated on Main street, near the mineral springs.

Only Lost.

SAN ANTONIO, TEX., Feb. 19.—Ray Dean, a once famous justice of the peace at Yngaragon on the Southern Pacific, writes as follows regarding an American citizen who was supposed to have been kidnapped and cast into a Mexican dungeon. Last night, Feb. 18, I was glad to announce that John Howard, an employe of the Southern Pacific, had been found in the Rio Grande. His war, has been found at Ex-Gov. Kind reader glance at your map and see the vast territory within a 200 mile radius of Fort Worth, and think of the thousands of well-to-do people living along these lines of railway, past whose doors mail, express and freight trains hourly dash, and ask yourself if there is any doubt about TAYLOR & BARR Having the outlet for an enormous quantity of goods. Then ask yourself another question: Am I paying tribute to the dry rot-credit system when for the difference between credit and cash prices I can order or go to market and select in person from an immense stock of fresh, seasonable and fashionable goods, handled only to meet the wants of spot cash trade.

CLOTHING. At 50c worth $1.00. LOT 1—Children's Hat Shoes, sizes 4 to 6; actual value $1.00. $1.50 worth $2.25. LOT 2—Misses' Button Shoes, sizes 1 to 2; a splendid bargain lot. $1.50 worth $2.50. LOT 3—Ladies' Kid Button Shoes, sizes 1 to 6. $2.25 worth $3.50. LOT 4—Ladies' Kid Button Shoes at $2.25. These will sell at $3.50 per pair after March 1.

Lace Curtains. We have added to our stock of Lace Curtains during the past week two remarkably cheap lots. 1st lot—Nottingham Lace Curtains at 65c per pair; worth $1.00. 2d lot—Nottingham Lace Curtains, both white and ecru, at $1.00; a splendid lot.

Shoes. Shoes. We have many times during this sale been compelled to put in much finer goods than those advertised lines when out of sizes, but we are determined to carry out our purpose—that of making the greatest clearing sale ever inaugurated on Texas soil.

By our constant bold advertising and extensive quotations of CASH PRICES, we have endeavored to place before parties living at a distance figures that would enable them to make estimates whether or not we are correct in advertising that money can be saved by coming in person to market, or sending their order. Thousands have made the experiment, and daily we meet them before our counters that live hundreds of miles away, who testify to large saving. We would have those who have never dealt with us to REMEMBER that we fill all orders C. O. D., allowing the privilege of examination, all uncut goods not satisfactory to be returned at our expense.

TAYLOR & BARR. WACO. The Money Will Be Raised—The Episcopal Mission—Was Disappointed. WACO, TEX., Feb. 19.—Those who predicted that the city would not come to time in the matter of raising the subscription of $45,000 to secure the Taylor-Waco university will now admit their mistake. At a mass meeting held to night in the First Baptist church the soliciting committee reported over $37,000 secured. Seven additional names were made in this amount, and there is now no doubt that every dollar of the $45,000 will be raised within a few days.
