CLEBURNE.

The Information About the Weatherford-Cleburne Road News to the Latter City.

One Who Never Forgets, James Boycott Orders—Divorced and Married in Fifteen Minutes.

Special to the Gazette. CLEBURNE, TEX., April 20.—Although the people here are always willing to go into any scheme likely to prove beneficial to our city, the Weatherford people have gotten a little ahead of us on that railway scheme mentioned in THE GAZETTE this morning, that is, a connection with the Santa Fe from Weatherford via Cleburne.

Letters have been received by certain gentlemen here from Weatherford stating the opinion of the people on the practicability of such a scheme, but as Cleburne is now working for the Santa Fe shops it was thought advisable not to mention the other scheme just now.

No engineering corps will leave here tomorrow, as stated in the Weatherford correspondent's communication, unless they propose to do it secretly, for, after a diligent search, your reporter has been unable to unearth any man looking like a surveyor.

In the district court the will case of Haley vs. Gatwood, after occupying the attention of the court for nearly two days, was concluded this evening, but the court withheld his opinion until tomorrow.

In the case of Howeth vs. Howeth a divorce was granted. A decree of divorce was also granted in the case of Owens vs. Owens. Mrs. Owens took to herself another husband in fifteen minutes after the decision of the court was rendered.

A novel boycott notice was placed in front of Mr. Jack Smith's furniture establishment, which, undoubtedly, was the work of some crank. It reads thuswise: "Jack Smith & Co.: You are hereby notified that we have been hearing that your firm was not friendly to us. Now, this is to warn you that you are boycotted by us, and we would advise you to sell your stock and go to other parts, where you can sell goods without refusing credit to a poor man, as you and others are doing here. Be warned."

Signed, ONE WHO NEVER FORGETS. City Secretary Graves has received a letter from Mr. Swan, the artisan well contractor, dated Kansas City, in which he explains the cause of the delay of his machinery. It was found on the depot platform at that place. He hopes to be able to go to work soon.

San Jacinto day will be observed by the public schools here. The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Miller was buried this morning.

The third grand concert of the Choral society comes off Tuesday the 27th inst. at the opera house. This will be a musical feast and as the admission is only 50c to all parts of the house, every one should go to hear them and thus encourage the society in their work.

Constable Hall No Defaulter, and Says He Did Not Desert His Family. Special to the Gazette.

DENTON. DENTON, TEX., April 20.—Constable J. A. Ball, who it was reported in yesterday's GAZETTE had eloped with a barber's butter-hair, was arrested in McKinney and brought back here last night by Deputy W. B. Roberts and Deputy Marshal Witt.

The proof in the charge of embezzlement against him being insufficient, he was discharged, and rearrested on a charge of adultery, and his bond fixed at $500, which he filed and was released.

Mr. Ball claims that he had not left his family nor the town to stay, but expected to bum around a week or so and return. His official bondsmen have given him up, however, and it will perhaps be necessary to appoint a new constable. Mr. C. C. Daugherty will probably be appointed, as he is sufficiently advanced in years to be past all frolics and frolics.

Ball has made a full settlement of all demands against him in his official business. The erring wife who left her little babe still remains abroad, and it is not known whether she will return or not.

Judge F. E. Piner has returned from Montague, where he has been holding court for several weeks. He will open court at Galveston next Monday.

On a hearing before Judge Piner to-day Geo. Ross, charged with theft of a horse, was released on habens corpus, the thief who stole the horse having been convicted six years ago.

Mr. Sommerville has thoroughly drilled his chorus for the work next Tuesday and a rare musical treat is in store for those who attend. Fifty cents to all parts of the house.

WEATHERFORD. County Court Notes—Ins and Outs of Town. Special to the Gazette.

WEATHERFORD, TEX., April 20.—In the county court to-day the following cases were tried: The State vs. William Nigerman of Dallas, charged with theft of a ring, acquitted; the State vs. J. M. Campbell, charged with theft of hogs, was fined $25 and confinement in the county jail five days; the State vs. Whit Scoggins, charged with theft of timber or unlawfully removing the property of another.

Messrs. F. C. Gallagher, Oscar Barthold, James Simmons and F. R. Shropshire returned yesterday evening from a week's hunt in Palo Pinto county. They succeeded in taking the scalp of two deer and one turkey. They report a splendid trip and look much improved.

Messrs. G. M. Bowie and C. D. Hartnett came to-day from a several days' trip in the Northwest in the interest of their firms.

W. D. Farris, Hunter Craycroft and Oscar Seligman, all representing prominent wholesale houses of the Fort, were in the city to-day.

J. M. Waller and Mrs. N. L. Waller of Mevin, Tex., are in the city, the guests of Mrs. H. McKay.

Miss May Thomas, an accomplished and charming young lady of Dallas, arrived in this city on the west-bound train this morning, and will spend several days visiting. She is the guest of Miss Lillian Harcourt.

Rev. H. D. Jarman, pastor of the Christian church at this place, has been delivering a series of sermons at his church, and at present considerable interest is being manifested. He has announced services until Wednesday night, and probably longer.

There are no epidemics of colds now. Red Star Cough Cure is prompt, sure, 25 cents.

THE MURPHYVILLE RIOT. The Mexicans, the instigators of the Trouble, Got the Worst of the Battle. Special to the Gazette.

SAN ANTONIO, TEX., April 20.—Mr. Ed. Millington, the young man who was wounded in the Murphyville riot, arrived here this morning by the Sunset and is now at his home resting easily, not being so badly wounded as reported. The riot was caused over the arrest of a drunken Mexican, which caused such indignation among his friends on the outside that they resolved to have revenge on the cowboys. The Mexicans were armed with Winchesters and the cowboys with the customary six-shooters. The Mexicans fired the first shots, and from the version given by the trainmen, they got the worst of it, having carried two of their number dead off the field and several more or less wounded. Two or three of the other side were wounded, but none fatally. Though all is now quieted down, it is probable that the war is not ended.

Tack, the saddler, holds his own in the trade with the stockmen. He keeps exactly what they need in their business.

PARIS. An Interview With President Wright Sets Forth What the Frisco Is Doing. Special to the Gazette.

PARIS, TEX., April 20.—Capt. S. J. Wright, president of the Paris & Great Northern Railway company, having returned from St. Louis, where he went a few days ago in response to a telegram from the Frisco officials, your reporter met the captain in his office this morning and was greeted with a hearty shake of the hand.

LADIES VISITING

California immediately observed the clear, perfect and healthy complexion of their sisters of the Golden Gate. Upon the streets of San Francisco, at the theatre and opera, and at the many fashionable resorts throughout the interior, the most casual observer notes the absence of sallowness, eruptions, roughness and other blemishes, unfortunately the bane of many ladies' existence. This is the more remarkable from the fact that the climate of California is particularly trying to the complexion. Nothing is better understood by ladies than the fact that the delicate skin requires protection from the vicissitudes of atmospheric changes; and it becomes, therefore, a matter of first importance to be able to discriminate between preparations which exert a soothing, beneficial and beautifying influence upon the skin and complexion and those found to be injurious to the skin and dangerous to health.

The various "Balms," "Creams," "Flowers," and face powders in common use throughout the South and West, are in California generally, discarded; but no toilet is considered complete without a bottle of the favorite "CAMELLINE." This elegant article, prepared by WAKELEE & Co., the leading chemists of San Francisco, and certified as harmless by the highest medical and scientific authority, has, wherever introduced, taken the first place in the estimation of LADIES, as a preservative and beautifier of the complexion. It is prepared white or tinted, and may now be obtained at all the principal drug stores throughout the country.

WACO. Gen. Sul Ross Will Open His Campaign on the 8th Day of May at Sulphur Springs. Special to the Gazette.

WACO, TEX., April 20.—J. H. Frazier, a well-dressed young man, who seems to be a stranger in this section, was arrested and jailed this morning for passing a forged note for $50 on J. W. Wright, a restaurant man, in liquidation of a board bill. The name of Wm. P. Paston, a solvent farmer residing a few miles from this city, was signed to the note. He promptly declared it a forgery.

San Jacinto day, tomorrow, will be celebrated by breaking dirt for Baylor-Waco university. The fire department, military and students of the university will participate in the exercises, which will be held in Minglewood park. Several business houses will close the greater portion of the day.

Gen. J. S. Ross will open his canvass for governor early in May, speaking on the 8th of that month at Sulphur Springs and on the 12th at Paris. These are the only appointments for which dates are definitely fixed, but others will be announced very soon.

In the state district court to-day John Shine, charged with the murder of Washington Smith in 1882, near this city, was acquitted. His brother, Dan Shine, is to be tried on a similar indictment.

The store of Joel Robinson, on the plaza, was raided by burglars last night, who made a rich haul of clothing, liquors and cigars. No arrests yet.

In the district court late this evening the case of J. A. Goldstein, charged with forgery, was called, a motion to quash the indictment overruled and the case went to trial. Goldstein is one of the most prominent merchants in the city and was formerly in the wholesale liquor business and senior partner of the firm of Goldstein & Migel, dealers in dry goods and notions.

The case excites great interest as no man in the city has stood higher socially or in a business way than Goldstein. The principal witnesses against him are Travis F. Jones, Missouri Pacific ticket agent, and W. H. Roper, proprietor of the Pacific saloon. It is generally believed that Goldstein will be acquitted.
