

LAST JUNE

In deference to the wishes of many of our customers we added to our business that of DRESSMAKING, and at that time we embarked in this particular line only as an experiment, and now we are pleased to say that from the very first day of its opening up to the present hour this department has been a splendid success. Indeed, the inability to secure an adequate number of hands to meet the demands of the trade has been the only obstacle of which we could complain, and we are now glad to announce that this difficulty has been completely obviated. We have leased the second floor of the spacious building adjoining our salerooms on Houston street and have fitted it up in good style for our Dressmaking Department and have appointed Miss Morgan M. Long, who will take full charge of this department on to-morrow morning. She will have a large number of competent and reliable dressmakers to assist her and will turn out all work in an artistic manner, and in every instance we will guarantee every garment to fit, to the entire satisfaction of the customer for whom it was made. All work will be turned out promptly—no waiting—no delays. We solicit the patronage of all who appreciate good work in this special line. This week we shall place on sale 45 French combination robes in elegant and rich designs, at $10; worth $25 anywhere in America. 25 French combination robes, worth $85, for $12.50; these bargains can never be duplicated. 20 pieces plaid plushes in all colors, worth $1, for 65c per yard. 25 pieces striped and plaid plushes, worth $1.75, for $1 per yard. 30 pieces mottled plushes in all colors, at $1.50, worth $2 per yard. Bargains in silks, satins and all wool dress goods.

OFF FOR SPRINGFIELD.

CHICAGO, ILL., Nov. 9.—The main delegation which will intercede for the lives of the seven anarchists left for Springfield at midnight last night. Some fifty men and women composed the party. The party was composed of President Oliver and other members of the Amnesty Association were on hand, bringing with them a small trunk and several heavy valises overladen with documents to be presented. The near relatives of the condemned who accompanied the delegation were Mrs. Spies, Miss Gretchen Spies, Ferdinand, Chris and Henry Spies, Mrs. Schwab, Mrs. Fischer, and Miss Marie Engel. The wife of Engel did not go. A great crowd gathered at the depot and stared curiously at the friends of the anarchists, taking particular interest in the women. Mrs. Eda Miller, Lingg's girl, was present and at the last moment decided to go to Springfield. Mrs. Cora E. V. Richmond, the clairvoyant, accompanied the delegation by special invitation and is expected to make an inspirational appeal to the Governor.

FIELDEN PROBABLY SAVED.

CHICAGO, ILL., Nov. 9.—The Tribune this morning says: Judge Gary has written a statement in behalf of the state that will undoubtedly result in saving Fielden from the gallows. The statement relates to none of the other prisoners and cannot possibly affect their fate one way or another. It is not a petition for request for commutation of the sentence and neither is it a bare statement of facts. Just what it contains could not be learned last night, but it is rather a suggestion to the Governor that in view of certain facts therein recited favorable consideration of Fielden's petition might be justified. The Judge was asked if he would give a copy of it or make any statement as to what the points enumerated were, but declined to answer. He said he had not written any statement for any of the other anarchists, he having been asked to do so.

State's Attorney Grinnell was told what Judge Gary had said and asked if he had done anything of a similar nature. "I endorsed Judge Gary's statement in Fielden's case," he said, and also added a few points that occurred to me. I made a plain statement of a few facts in regard to Schwab that I thought the Governor ought to know, but I made no suggestions whatever, merely a statement of facts, and have written nothing in regard to the other cases, nor will I. I did not deem it policy for the state and refused to do anything."

ANARCHISTS HELD IN BOND.

CHICAGO, ILL., Nov. 9.—Fred Korst and Emil Wende, two well known anarchists, were before Justice Lyon this morning, the former charged with conspiracy and carrying concealed weapons, and the latter with conspiracy alone. These two men were arrested as announced in these dispatches last night. The cases were continued until the 13th, in bonds of $2000 and $1500 respectively, in default of which they were locked up. Korst and Wende are members of a regular anarchist group which numbers thirty-six members. It was resolved by the group to purchase arms and Korst was instructed to purchase revolvers for his associates, and he and Wende went down to purchase the pistols. The group had been suspected for some time and while the meeting was in progress an officer was in hiding in the room and heard the whole affair. A watch was placed on the two men, and when they went to buy the pistols they were arrested.

THE PLEAS TO THE GOVERNOR.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., Nov. 9.—The anarchists' delegation to petition for mercy arrived here early this morning. When Captain Black and General Trumbull arrived at the state capitol they were informed that the Governor had not yet arrived. The doors of the reception rooms were opened at 9:40 o'clock and the different committees filed in. There were nearly 100 present when they all assembled. Captain Black was presented to the Governor at once. A few minutes later Captain Black, advancing to the corner of the table at which Mr. Oglesby sat, began to read his appeal. The relatives of the condemned sat to the left of the speaker. Captain Black began by reading the general petition which had been signed by the men themselves. The anarchist lawyer advanced but a little ways when he came to the passage that said, never before the day of the Haymarket riot had a single meeting of anarchists been interrupted by the police. At this point Governor Oglesby interrupted and asked if he was to understand that statement as truth.

"Yes, sir," replied the lawyer "and furthermore that very meeting was attended by Mayor Harrison himself who remained until within twenty minutes of the riot."

"Proceed," said the Governor. Captain Black took 20 minutes to read the petition and when he closed he said: "This has been signed by Michael Schwab, Samuel Fielden and August Spies. The reason that the accused Parsons, Fischer, Engel and Lingg did not sign it was because they claimed that they had forwarded to Your Excellency their autobiographical letters and did not think it necessary to sign this." The petition recited the history of the alleged offense for which petitioners had been condemned. It affirmed that none of them either threw the fatal bomb or advised its throwing, that they had no knowledge of the fact that it was to be thrown, that they had always counseled and encouraged peace. Consistent space was devoted to an attempt to show that they had not had a fair trial, and, indeed, that such trial was impossible in Chicago, in view of the influence and the state of public sentiment at the time it took place. Captain Black presented an affidavit from Otis F. Favor, a business man of Chicago, tending to show that the jury which tried the anarchists had been deliberately packed against them by the wittic. After reading the petition and affidavit Captain Black addressed the Governor. He explained that every effort had been made to comply with the requirements of the law governing applications for interposition of executive clemency and stated that Judge Gary and State's Attorney Grinnell had joined in a recommendation for clemency. Having dispensed with the more formal parts of the application he made an eloquent and touching appeal for mercy that Democracy Forever.

Special to the Gazette.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—The Democrats are more than jubilant to-day. In fact the Democracy at the national capital was on a broad grin ever since the glorious news came over the wire. There is every evidence at the White House of satisfaction at the result of the election in New York. They have very little to say, but are evidently delighted. The President has received numerous congratulatory despatches and he saw every caller, but refused to comment on the result. Colonel Lamont was well pleased, but did not care to talk much for publication. He said, however, "the result is extremely gratifying and of course I do not see how the Republicans can hope to carry New York now. They had many things to their advantage in this contest. If they were ever going to carry the state they should have done so this time. They have won nothing since the presidential election, and I don't see how they can hope for anything from New York in the future."

Senator Voorhees was found at the Jefferson Club. He said: "It's glorious! glorious! The result of these elections means the continued ascendancy of the Democratic party for the next twenty-five, and perhaps fifty years, and it means the renomination of Cleveland unanimously and his triumphant election. It also settles Blaine, as he will not be a candidate next year, for he is shrewd enough to see that no Republican can be elected. But down in my heart," remarked the Senator, "I feel good over old Virginia. I tell you, Cleveland has a strong hold upon the populace regardless of party. Way every mention of his name on the stump brought forth the heartiest applause, and the cheers showed that the Democracy admired him. I anticipated a falling off in the George vote because I knew the Irish Democrats would desert him. They are tired of him and of McGlynn. George is now dead. Any leader of politics who loses half his vote in a year is doomed."

Senators Vest and Pugh also called on the President to-day, and extended their congratulations. He received all the kindly expressions in a hearty, cordial manner, and when the suggestion was made he was good for another term he made no response beyond expressing his gratification that it was as good as settled.

Representative Crain said, speaking of the election: "It means Cleveland for another term. Nothing can beat him if he lives."

Senator Vest coincided in that opinion. He said that Cleveland would be renominated unanimously and elected.

Senator Pugh was delighted at the result. He thought the vote in New York showed that the Democrats are united and earnest, and nothing can defeat them. The nomination of a son of the late General Grant, he said, was an appeal to sentiment, and his defeat showed that the Democrats are not to be carried away from their party and principles.

"Democratic rule for fifty years," declared First Auditor Chenoweth of the Treasury. He said he had never been so happy.

New York.

VOTE FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The complete vote for district attorney is: N. Cool, 70,004; Fellows, 93,906; Post, 30,605.

A COMPLETE DEMOCRATIC VICTORY.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—At the Republican headquarters the committee gave up the local contest early, but continued to claim the state for some time. The Democrats were jubilant all around. They laid equal claim to victory for their state ticket and announced positively at 1 o'clock this morning that they had won a complete victory.

The total estimated plurality of Cook over Grant in this state at 9 o'clock this morning is 15,000 to 18,000.

BROOKLYN MUNICIPAL TICKET.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Nov. 9.—Alfred C. Chapin, Democrat for mayor, and the entire Democratic city ticket, with possibly the exception of one of the judges, are elected. The shrewdness of Kings county is in doubt with the chances in favor of the Republican candidate.

IN ERIE COUNTY.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 9.—The Republican county ticket and the greater part of the city ticket is undoubtedly elected.

WOMEN VOTE.

BINGHAMPTON, N. Y., Nov. 9.—Yesterday at Chenango bridge, this county, eleven women offered their votes which were accepted and deposited in the box. They voted the straight Prohibition ticket.

A DEMOCRATIC CONGRESSMAN.

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 9.—Tracy, Democrat, is elected to Congress by about 2300 majority.

A REPUBLICAN CONGRESSMAN.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 9.—Syracuse city compere gives Belden, Republican, for Congress 4600 plurality. He is elected.

BOW HENRY GEORGE TAKES HIS DEFEAT.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The headquarters of the United Labor party were not very lively last evening. At a late hour Henry George addressed a number of his followers. He said: "To-night from the Astor house I have seen crowds looking at the bulletins on which a tremendous victory was recorded without cheer. It reminds me of the time when the news of the battle of Bull Run came when I saw crowds silently looking at the bulletins. There was a very great victory and there was not a cheer. This is our Bull Run. [Applause.] Every one knows that had the Union forces gained a victory at Bull
